

Kiwanis Kids Parade Slated For Saturday

Culmination of Salem Kiwanis Kids Day week activities set for Saturday, Sept. 23, at 10 a.m. will feature a parade of decorated floats, marching units and other entries by more participants than ever before, according to Dr. Ray Pison, chairman.

Entrants are asked to appear at the Capitol Mall about 9 a.m. for judging which starts at 9:30 a.m. William Hammond, chairman of judging, announced that prizes will be awarded in several divisions. Salem United Fund agencies have agreed to enter decorated floats and marching units for this year's parade.

Kiwanis Kids Day parade will start at 10 a.m. from the Capitol Mall and head west on Chemeketa street, south on High and return east on Court street to the Mall.

Annual poster contest for children, a Kiwanis sponsored event, attracted more than 2000 entries drawn by Salem District elementary school children. Miss Pat Slayter, judge of the contest and art instructor at North Salem High school, announced winners of the poster contest on Monday. First, second and third place winners in each grade will receive certificates, and first place winners and their parents were guests of the club at the regular Kiwanis weekly lunch today at Senator hotel.

First grade winners: Janet Straw, Richmond; Carolyn Morris, Garfield; Barbara Dickey, Halls Ferry, second grade winners: David Manock, Richmond; Nancy Watterson, Rosedale; Ronnie Amick, Englewood. Third grade winners: Nancy Humphreys, Morningside; Roberts Parsons, Liberty; Debbie Berkey, Highland.

Fourth grade winners: Helen Rosenfeld, Englewood; Jeanie Macdonald, Morningside, La Vonne Mason, Washington. Fifth grade: Michael Ryan, Hoover; Michael Mennis, Mountain View; Charlotte Brown, Bush, Sixth grade: Mary Bent, Liberty; Yvette Dunn, Mountain View; Carol Davis, Bush.

Funeral services for Oran F. Daniels, 63, late resident of Sheridan, who passed away Friday as the result of an automobile accident near Dallas, were held Monday afternoon, at Pershall's Sheridan Funeral home. Interment was in Green Crest Memorial park.

Daniels was thrown clear of his pickup truck, when it collided head-on with the car of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Wren, also of Sheridan.

He was active in the Phil Sheridan Rodeo association, having helped begin the yearly event, and also was an active member of the board of directors of Green Crest Memorial park.

Daniels was born Dec. 25, 1892 in Merced, Calif., and came to Sheridan when six years old. He was a prominent farmer in this area, and a member of the Buell Grange. He married Leota Burgess Sept. 19, 1917 in McMinnville.

Survivors are his wife, two sons, Ross Daniels of Tule Lake, Calif., Earl Burgess of Williams; three sisters, Mrs. Jessie Wise of Sheridan, Mrs. Anita Franklin of Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Oris Minges of Carmel, Calif.; a brother, Marion DeLashmuth of Ronan, Mont.; six grandchildren.

Funeral Set For C. J. Smith

LEBANON (Special) — Funeral services for Charles J. Smith, 60, who died Sunday at the Lebanon Community hospital, will be at Josi's chapel at 11 a.m. Wednesday, following a rosary for him at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, also at Josi's chapel.

Smith had built dry cleaning establishments in both Lebanon and Sweet Home.

He was born Dec. 21, 1895, at North Plains, Ore., near Forest Grove, and is survived by his wife Edna, whom he married in Lebanon in 1931, and his two children, Charles of Camas, and Mrs. Evelyn Robertson of Reno, Nev.; four brothers, Peter F., Frank, Will A. and Lawrence of Lebanon; three sisters, Mrs. Josephine Skeen and Mrs. Mary Myler of Lebanon, and Mrs. Emma Dorset of California; and five grandchildren.

Driver Held After Accident

A two-car collision at Lancaster drive and Silverton road Monday evening resulted in the arrest of one driver on a charge of driving while intoxicated, state police reported.

Charged was Robert Fromm, 56, Aurora. His car collided with one driven by Robert J. Roberts, Portland, officers said.

No one was injured in the 5:30 p.m. collision, police said.

PNM WINS IN TRINIDAD PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad: — A preliminary count of ballots in Trinidad's general elections showed Tuesday the People's National Movement (PNM) swept to power with 18 of 24 legislative council seats.

Dr. Eric E. Williams, leader of the predominantly Negro PNM, defeated his nearest rival by more than 4,000 votes in Monday's voting.
