

Miss Long And Mr. Poe Are Wed

FALLS CITY — (Special) — The Falls City Methodist church was the scene of a mid-afternoon wedding Saturday, September 15, of Miss Mardonna Long and Stanley Poe. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Long, of the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Conlee Poe, all of Falls City.

The Rev. James H. Royer read a double ring service at 3:30 o'clock. Baskets of yellow gladioluses with greenery and tall candles in candelabras were the decorations on the altar.

Miss Judith Wells played the wedding music and accompanied by William McCammon who sang. The Misses Margaret Miller, Dallas and Shirley Carey of Falls City lit the candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length white dress of nylon sculptured lace over net and tulle, fashioned with long fitted bodice with a scoop neckline and three quarter length sleeves with the edges bound in satin. The finger-tip length tulle veil fell from a crown shaped headpiece decorated with seed pearls. The bride carried an orchid on a white Bible covered with lace, and wearers of stephanotis.

Miss Judy Long, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a lavender lace over tulle waltz length dress with matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow gladioluses. Miss Beverly Brownover, Dallas, in yellow tulle and Miss Mary Lee Dennis, Falls City, in Nile green tulle were the bridesmaids. Their dresses and accessories were like the maid of honor.

Melvin Sylsberry was the best man and Art Inman and Marsden Murphy ushered.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Long chose a cinnamon gold colored suit with accessories of wedgewood blue. Mrs. Poe wore a gray-brown dress with red accessories. Both wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

The reception followed at the Victor Ferguson home. Mrs. Harold Gillman of Dillard, an aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. James Embree poured coffee and Mrs. C. C. Fosbick, Dillard, another aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Kenneth Taylor was in charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Seaside, the couple are at home at the C. D. Embree home.

The bride was honored in early September with a shower given by Mrs. Roy Dennis, Mrs. Victor Ferguson, Mrs. Mildred Wray, Mrs. Alvin Drake and Mrs. Sylvester Tucker.
