Sixth Graders Enter Contest

Many sixth grade pupils in Marion and Polk counties will enter the nationwide picture contest being held in connection with Physically Handicapped Week, Oct. 7-13. The contest is sponsored by the President's committee on Physically Handicapped, Arch L. Brewster, EPH chairman for the two counties, said. Approval of all school principals has been obtained. Winning entries, Brewster said, would be displayed in Salem stores and will be eligible for awards.

Three Timber Tracts Sold

Three tracts of Bureau of Land Management timber brought over a half-million dollars at an oral auction sale held October 2 by Salem District Forester Otto C. F. Krueger. A total of 3,197,000 bd. ft. was included in this Polk county tract. The highest bid received for Douglas fir during the sale was offered by Murphy Lumber Co. of Portland. A total of 3,197,000 bd. ft. was included in this Polk county tract. A Benton county tract containing 3,267,000 bd. ft. of Douglas fir was purchased by Hazel Glen Logging Co. of Philomath, Oregon, for $38.85 per 1,000 bd. ft. The final tract containing 6,603,000 bd. ft. of Douglas fir located in Linn county, was purchased by M & M Wood Working Co., a division of Simpson Redwood Co. of Portland at $36.00 per 1,000 bd. ft.

Tax Referendum Proponents Plan Meet Wednesday

First public meeting of the Committee to Save the Tax Referendum, an organization formed recently to oppose November ballot title No. 1 in Marion county, will be held Wednesday at the Labor Temple at 8 p.m., it was announced by Guy Jonas, secretary-treasurer of the group. Speaker at the meeting will be Tom Scanlon, director of education of the State AFL-CIO Council. Scanlon will be introduced by Herb E. Barker, co-chairman of the committee. Jonas said that the committee is presently at work sending letters to all organizations in Marion county, offering speakers to oppose the proposed constitutional amendment to allow immediate effect clauses on legislative tax bills.

Thornton Speaks To Young Voters

Attorney General Robert V. Thornton is scheduled to speak at a First Voter coffee in Baxter hall lounge at 4 p.m. Wednesday. The session is sponsored by the Willamette YMCA. The purpose is to acquaint students who have just passed their 21st birthday with voting procedures and to urge every eligible student to register by 8 p.m. deadline Saturday. Both Young Republicans and Democrats have assisted the campus 'Y' in planning the meeting.
