air force and now it appears that farmers will be there for at least another year.

One Portland air force official indicated that funds may become available at the start of the 1958 fiscal year, which will be July 1, 1957. It is possible though, that even then, no funds will be allotted to the Woodburn base, he said.

$13.5 Million Cost
First announcement of the base early in 1956 called for an estimated $13,500,000 initial expenditure. Total cost of the base was estimated at around $40,000,000 over a period of years.

Later, air force officials announced they would seek only enough funds to start land acquisition this year. They asked for and received the $2,400,000 figure for this purpose. They said that construction monies would be requested at a later date.

Further announcements indicated that the base might have an annual pay roll of up to $10 million. Property acquisition was first scheduled to start this fall.

4 Area Youths Nominated to AF Academy

Norblad Nominates 10 Youths for 3 Oregon Spots

Four Salem area youths have been nominated for appointments at the United States Air Force academy. The nominations were among 10 made by Representative Walter Norblad. The nominees will vie for three positions allotted Oregon in the third class at the academy, temporarily located at Lowry AFB, Denver.

Nominees named by Norblad are Jerry M. May, Salem; Carl B. Barner, Gervais; David Owen Harris, Dallas; Laurence D. Mendenhall, Willamina.

Paul E. Kelley, Neskowin; Rob Allen McCutcheon, Corvallis; James A. Ross, Jr., Toledo; James P. Phillips, Seaside; and Robert L. McKillip, Cloverdale.

May, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam S. May, 265 North 24th St., Salem, is a 1956 graduate of North Salem high school. He is cadet commander of the Salem Civil Air Patrol and has won the CAP Certificate of Proficiency. He recently returned from a tour of Brazil under the CAP Cadet Exchange program. He is employed currently at the Meier and Frank store.

Barner is the son of Warren B. Barner, Rt. 1, Gervais. He is a 1956 graduate of Gervais Union high school and is currently attending Northwest Air college, Spokane, an airlines-sponsored school. Barner is a former member of the Salem CAP squadron.

The nominees will compete among themselves and nominees made by the four other Oregon members of congress for the three vacancies. In addition to scholastic tests, they will be required to pass stringent medical examinations to determine if they are physically capable of taking flight training.

The three winners will enter the academy in July, 1957.

United's Hal Sweeney Honored By Staff on 25th Anniversary

Hal F. Sweeney, manager for the Salem station of United Air Lines, this past week celebrated his 25th anniversary with the company.

A dinner arranged by the company staff here was given for Sweeney at the Marion hotel for all employees of the local office and their wives.

A handsome Lord Elgin wrist watch with the UAL 25-year medallion on it was presented to Sweeney at the dinner.

On October 19, Sweeney will go to Denver for a UAL staff dinner and celebration at which W. A. Patterson, president of United Air Lines, will present the Salem man with his fourth diamond for his lapel pin, and his 25-year pin. A gold pin is given at the conclusion of five years' service with the company, a diamond for the pin for each five years after that.

Sweeney started with United in Portland in the radio and operations department. He later was in the flight operations side, then with the office personnel, coming to Salem 10 years ago to assume the management here.

Attending the local dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Stinnette, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Larry McLaughlin, George Hutmacher, Miss Doty Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Les Walling, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas.

Hubbard Store Sold
HUBBARD (Special)—The Hubbard Hardware store has been purchased from Harry Van Arsdale by Erwin A. Suss, who took possession of the business Monday. Suss will continue to operate a linoleum and floor covering business which he also owns in Hubbard.

Mrs. Durbin, Former Salem Woman, Dies

Death in a North Bend hospital came Tuesday for Mrs. Mary Emily Durbin, 79, a former Salem resident who had lived in Oregon 21 years.

Mrs. Durbin was born at Nebraska City, Neb., Dec. 20, 1877. Her husband, Lewis S. Durbin, former West Salem city employee, died in 1951.

Recitation of the rosary will be Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in North Bend Holy Redeemer Catholic church. Requiem mass will be at 8 p.m. on Friday. Concluding services will be at Belcrest Memorial Park in Salem. Mills mortuary of Coos Bay is in charge of services.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Agnes Skinkle, Gothenburg, Neb.; eight sons, Lawrence Durbin, Casper, Wyo.; Edgar and Warren Durbin, Salem; Harvey and Hugh Durbin, Coos Bay; Richard Durbin, Bakersfield, Calif.; William Durbin, Turlock, Calif.; Robert Durbin, Reno, Nev.; sister Miss Agnes Eads, Portland and 39 grandchildren and 41 great-grandchildren.

Former Willamette Athlete Solos in First Navy Try

Jack L. Bishop, former Willamette university and Salem high school student, prominent in basketball circles, is making good progress toward becoming a naval aviator.

This information is contained in a letter from Capt. John J. Lynch, commanding officer at Whitney Field, Milton, Fla., to Bishop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bishop, 1760 N. 17th St.

Capt. Lynch reports that Bishop completed his first solo flight in the navy's newest primary trainer, the "Mentor." Later he is to be transferred to Corry Field, near Pensacola where he will fly planes with much greater power.

Former Coquille Resident Passes

Miss Jessie Knife who died at a Salem hospital Thursday will be interred in City View Cemetery October 6, following private services in the Clough-Barrick chapel at 10 a.m. with Dr. Brooks Moore officiating. Miss Knife was a late resident of Coquille.

Survivors are a sister, Mrs. Frank Ames, Arkansas City, Kansas; two brothers, R. B. Knife, Coquille and E. E. Knife, Eureka, Calif.; and many nieces and nephews.

Farmers Seek Drainage Aid

The county commissioners have agreed to investigate a request for participation in the Woodburn drainage area as suggested by the soil conservation organization.

Farmers of the area, involved in the project have asked that the county share a portion of the cost of installing supplemental drainage tile.

The entire cost of the project is $1,200 and it has been suggested that the county contribute 11.3 per cent of this sum.

$300,000 Collected in Liquor Tax in Quarter

Distribution of $300,000 in liquor privilege tax moneys for the quarter ending September 30 was announced today by Secretary of State Earl T. Newbery.

The funds are distributed 75 per cent to the counties and 25 per cent to the general fund for use as old age pensions, mothers' aid and direct relief of the indigent.

Lumberman Sells Lyons Interests

LYONS (Special)—Sidney B. Lewis has sold his interest in the Mt. Jefferson Lumber Co. here to his partner, Walter D. Miller and resigned his position as president and general manager. Miller lives at Stayton.
