

Nixon Carries His Campaign Back to East

Closes Fast California Tour by Parading in S. F. Chinatown

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Vice President Nixon takes his campaign for re-election eastward today after calling on his fellow Californians to choose President Eisenhower as "far the best qualified" leader to promote world peace.

Nixon, winding up an intensive one-day tour of his home state, told the San Francisco Press Club last night his travels across the nation have convinced him of two things:

1. "The major issue in which the voters are interested is peace. . . I found this true in Texas, Vermont, New Hampshire, the Midwest, the Far West and the East."

2. "The popularity of President Eisenhower is undiminished since 1952—in fact, increased in some areas."

Nixon leaves today for Elko, Nev., Boulder and Denver, Colo. He will continue his tour across the Midwest and into the industrial East.

He completed a grueling vote-seeking expedition in his native California amid the clang and glitter of a Chinatown "Double Tenth" parade, celebrating the 45th anniversary of the founding of the Chinese Republic.

The vice president and Mrs. Nixon rode perched high in a convertible just ahead of a 250-foot, red-headed dragon propelled by dozens of Chinese-Americans.

Nixon drew applause when he promised the United States under the Eisenhower administration would never write off people under Communist rule.

Rep. John Shelley (D-Calif.) rebuked some in the crowd for booing when Nixon appeared and also when a telegram of greeting from Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson was read.

Nixon told newsmen he was highly pleased with what he had seen and been told of Republican chances in California, declaring, "I think we will win."

He said that in the country generally "the Republican campaign seems to have gotten off the ground in the past 10 days or two weeks."

Bogota Fair Plans Drawn By Salem Man

Walter Hartley, Salem commercial artist, on Wednesday completed plans for a 45 foot long display to be erected at an agricultural fair in Bogota, Columbia. The artist mailed the drawing to Millers' National federation in Washington, D. C., who will erect the exhibit in Columbia along with the Flour Millers Export association.

Hartley's plans and the exhibition will be a part of an agricultural fair to be held in Bogota in a few months. Joseph Spiruta, Millers' national marketing expert, commissioned Hartley to prepare the plans. Featured in the exhibit will be baking and flour products of the United States. Additional space was allocated to a display to show how wheat is grown in different sections of America.

Latin Americans attending the fair will be treated to samples of American pastries made in a bakery that will be a part of the exhibit.

Catholic Press Session Dated

MOUNT ANGEL ABBEY—Plans are being readied here to host the first Northwest regional meeting of the Catholic Press Association of the United States Oct. 18-19.

Delegates from Catholic publications in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana will assemble here next week to discuss modern trends in the religious press and seek to iron out mutual problems. Representatives from several Catholic publications in Western Canada will attend the meeting.

On hand to speak to the delegates will be Very Rev. John S. Randall, president of the national association, and managing editor of the Rochester Courier Journal. Other speakers will be Msgr. Charles M. Smith, editor of the Catholic Sentinel in Portland; William P. O'Connell, managing editor of the Catholic Northwest Progress; and Rev. H. J. Bader, managing editor of the British Columbia Catholic.

Rev. Albert Bauman, O.S.B., editor of St. Joseph Magazine, is temporary chairman of the regional press group.
