

POLITICAL ROUNDUP

Ike Appearance Week's Highlight

Without doubt the outstanding political event in Oregon this coming week will be the appearance in Portland of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. The president is scheduled to arrive at the International airport about 3 p.m., next Thursday, attend a reception at the Multnomah hotel at 5 p.m., and speak at the Civic auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

While plans have not been completed, it is likely that a caravan of cars will travel from Salem and other Willamette valley points to Portland next Thursday to greet and hear the President.

Ike Fighting Now
Judging by both his Lexington and Pittsburgh talks, Eisenhower has his fighting clothes on and doubtless will continue to outline his record of accomplishments during the past 3½ years to contrast the charges of failure made by his opponent.

President Eisenhower's appearance in Portland caused a change in virtually all itineraries of the leading Republican candidates, such as Douglas McKay, Governor Elmo Smith, Mark Hatfield, running for secretary of state, and State Treasurer Sig Unander, seeking re-election.

All will be on hand to greet the President when his plane sets down on the Portland airport next Thursday.

Of considerable interest to Republicans during the past week was the receipt by members of that party of letters from the Americans for Democratic Action soliciting contributions.

The ADA letter, sent from its headquarters at 1341 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., points out that between now and November "we have a chance to elect a great liberal President and a liberal Congress, it so sorely needs."

ADA Seeks Funds
The letter calls for funds to support not alone Stevenson and Kefauver but also for Democratic senators, including Wayne Morse of Oregon who is listed on the ADA executive committee. Mrs. Maurine Neuberger, wife of Senator Neuberger is listed as a national board member of this admitted left-wing organization.

Robert R. Nathan, chairman of the national ADA executive committee signed the letter which concludes with this appeal: "The results in November depend on you. Won't you please send us now as much as you can, as your investment in helping to elect Stevenson and a liberal Congress. It can be done with your generous help."

Oregon Democrats had their lining last Thursday when Adlai Stevenson visited Portland and spoke at the Portland auditorium. A group of Willamette valley Democrats traveled to Portland to greet and meet their presidential candidate.

McKay Fights Back
Constant charges that Douglas McKay, when Secretary of the Interior "opened up" wildlife refuges to oil and gas drilling made by both Senator Wayne Morse and Richard L. Neuberger has brought a sharp reply from the McKay headquarters in the form of a "fact sheet."

Headed "McKay made important and lasting contributions to wildlife conservation," the paper proceeds to outline five points to prove their statement. Here are the five points:

"1. Doug McKay was the first secretary of the interior to suspend leasing until effective regulations could be drawn to protect wildlife reserves that were not being protected by regulations of his Democratic predecessor. His reopening of these reserves after the new regulations were adopted has been maliciously misrepresented as 'opening' of the areas."

"2. Doug McKay was the first Secretary of the Interior to create permanent sanctuaries where drilling will never be permitted to protect rare and irreplaceable wildlife species."

"3. Doug McKay was the first Secretary of the Interior to give the Fish and Wildlife Service a veto authority over leasing. This agency may now determine when, how and under what circumstances leases will be issued."

"4. Doug McKay established nine new wildlife refuges and three more were in the process when he resigned. Under McKay, approximately 97,000 additional acres were acquired for wildlife preservation. In the six prior years his Democratic predecessors abolished 36 wildlife refuges and reduced reserves by more than 400,000 acres."

"5. Doug McKay in fiscal year of 1955 obtained the largest allocation of funds in history for the acquisition, development and maintenance of wildlife areas—50 per cent more than his Democratic predecessor obtained."

No Sudden Rise
The McKay fact sheet points out further that since 1917, the number of oil and gas leases issued each year has been fairly constant and there was no sudden acceleration of leasing after McKay became Secretary.

"Both Democrat and Republican administrations of interior have carried out the intent of Congress by permitting oil and gas development where it does not interfere with wildlife conservation. The congressional intent is to be changed, it should be by an Act of Congress, and not by insistence that an administrative agency refuses to carry out the law."

North Salem PTA to Hear Ford Scholar

William P. McKinney will tell of his experiences working under a Ford Foundation scholarship this past year at the first meeting of the North Salem PTA scheduled Oct. 18 at 8 p.m.

The executive board of the group met Thursday night to work out a program for the year whose theme will be "Your Child in Today's Community." Next Thursday's general meeting of the PTA will be one of four programs to be presented this year, with the others to include world relations, today's community and mental health.

Membership in the North Salem PTA will be emphasized beginning next week, said G. B. Wright, president of the association. Slips will be sent home to parents next week, urging their participation.

Committees appointed for the first meeting include Mrs. J. L. Bowlin, hospitality; Mrs. Dennis Patch, publicity; and Miss Beryl Holt, program, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haskins and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Otto.

Recall Petitions May Fall Short

October 27 is the deadline date set by David O'Hara, state elections registrar for filing completed petitions for a recall election involving Eugene Venn, Lane county district attorney. A preliminary recall petition was filed July 19.

O'Hara said that on Sept. 5, only 886 signatures were on file for the recall petition that required 8,402 for a recall election. Such an election would be called 10 days after completed petitions were filed.

Proposal to recall Venn stems from his controversy with Circuit Judge Frank Reid of Lane county in regard to the drawing of a grand jury.

5 Youths 'Beat Up' Salem Man

A young Salem man was attacked and beaten by about five youths at a west Salem drive-in restaurant Thursday night, he reported to city police Friday.

Melvin Butcher, 24, 905 Rosemont St., told officers that he was taken to Salem Memorial hospital after the incident, where he was treated for a lip laceration and a loosened front tooth.

The attackers were strangers to him, he said. The attack occurred about 8:20 p.m., police said.

Ike Leads Adlai in Wide Variety Of Polls, But by Less Than '52

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Eisenhower is leading Adlai Stevenson in a wide variety of presidential polls, but often by a smaller margin than he did in 1952.

A compilation of polls shows that to be the general trend whether in nationwide samplings by professional public opinion experts or in regional straw ballots.

There were some exceptions to the trend. In Vanderburgh County in Indiana, Eisenhower was reported polling 63.2 per cent compared with his actual vote of 59.5 per cent in the 1952 election.

But a poll as of Sept. 18 among farm people only by the Wallace's Farmer and Iowa Homestead, a weekly farm magazine, showed the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket leading the Eisenhower-Nixon slate 43 per cent to 35 per cent, with 22 per cent on the fence.

This was an overturn from September 1952, when the Wallace poll showed 53 per cent of the farm people favoring Eisenhower to 25 per cent for Stevenson, with 22 per cent undecided.

In some cases there were no comparative polls for 1952. How right the pollsters are cannot be known until the Nov. 6 election returns are in.

The Eisenhower-Nixon ticket polled 55.4 per cent of the major party vote in the 1952 election. The most recent Gallup poll, published Wednesday, held that as of Oct. 1 Eisenhower was leading Stevenson 52 to 40 per cent, with 8 per cent undecided.

On Sept. 21, four years ago, Gallup reported: Eisenhower 55 per cent; Stevenson 40 per cent, and 5 per cent undecided.

Kenneth Fink, a professional pollster, said his findings for New Jersey as of Sept. 26 this year were: Eisenhower 53.4 per cent; Stevenson 43.4 per cent; undecided 3.2 per cent.

Fink's figures for Sept. 18, four years ago, were Eisenhower 53.8 per cent; Stevenson 44.2 per cent, and undecided, 2 per cent.

The Minneapolis Tribune's "Minnesota Poll," conducted Sept. 19-25, gave Eisenhower-Nixon 49 per cent; refuse to say, 1 per cent; no opinion, 3 per cent.

The poll, for the comparative period in 1952, gave Eisenhower 54 per cent; Stevenson 40 per cent; refuse to say, 2 per cent, and no opinion, 4 per cent.

The Tribune, which lists itself as independent, backed Eisenhower in 1952 but has not yet declared this year.

The Des Moines Register's

"Iowa Poll" in the last week of September gave Eisenhower 46 per cent; Stevenson 36 per cent; and 18 per cent undecided. A similar poll for the same week in 1952 gave Eisenhower 48 per cent; Stevenson 27 per cent, and, undecided, 25 per cent.

The Watertown (N.Y.) Daily Times, conducted a poll of voters in the upstate New York area and said the returns showed: Eisenhower 747, Stevenson 262. The Daily Times said Eisenhower did not run quite as strongly as four years ago.

It said, however, his margin of about 2½ to 1 exceeded the normal upstate ratio of Republican nominees over Democrats. It said this ratio generally is considered slightly more than 2-1.

The Los Angeles Mirror-News said this week a poll in Los Angeles County showed: Eisenhower 51.2 per cent; Stevenson 38.4; undecided 10.4.

Salt Lake City radio station KSL said a poll of persons attending the Utah State Fair showed: Eisenhower 6,905; Stevenson 3,437.

The Evansville (Ind.) Press said a poll in Vanderburgh County gave Eisenhower 63.2 per cent and Stevenson 36.8 per cent. Vanderburgh County has voted for the winning candidate in every election since 1896.

In 1952, the Press estimated on its final poll returns that Eisenhower would get 52 per cent of the county votes. He got 58.5 per cent.

The Indianapolis Star, supporting Eisenhower, said a statewide spot check conducted by interviewers for Midwest Surveys Inc., as of Sept. 23, gave Eisenhower 53.2 per cent and Stevenson 42.1 per cent, with 4.7 undecided.

The Lansing (Mich.) State Journal, Republican independent, polled occupation groups and reported these results:

Among state employees — Eisenhower 215, Stevenson 75, or 3-1; viewers for Midwest Surveys Inc., as of Sept. 23, gave Eisenhower among factory workers — Stevenson 307, Eisenhower 253, or 6-8; among business and professional people — Eisenhower 360, Stevenson 12, or 31-1.
