College of Idaho Stars Rank High in Nation: Willamette's Platoons Hoping for Upset

Two 1956 "backs of the week" will knock heads Saturday night at McCulloch stadium when the ambitious Willamette Bearcats meet the eager gridders from the sagebrush, the College of Idaho Coyotes.

Tim Campbell (left) and Chuck Koani (right) are comrades on the Willamette university second platoon which will try to upset College of Idaho Saturday night. Campbell, a freshman right half, is from Salem, Koani, a 203-pound senior fullback, is "back of the week" for the Northwest conference.

Opposite him, ranking third among the nation's small colleges, is Eddy Lodge, the churning chunk of power who leads the Northwest back of the week this season.

All these yards, though, are barely ahead of his teammate, fullback Gary Collins, who has an even 400 and is even more potently putting them together they help the Coyotes become second nationally as a team in this thing called offense and one wonders how Lewis & Clark and Eastern New Mexico ever beat them.

Winter Olympic Site Given OK Of Committee

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Except for some "minor reservations" this site of the 1960 Winter Olympics has a rating of "excellent" from a committee of experts concerned with the swi runs.

A delegation from the Federation Internationale de Ski (FIS) toured the sierra site, about 200 miles east of San Francisco, Thursday and expressed satisfaction about the arrangements and general plan for accommodations in the Lake Tahoe resort area.

Reservations were voiced over the contemplated downhill course for men and the high altitude of the cross-country runs.

The four-man committee added that since there is no snow on the courses now, it may make a winter inspection.

The committee said it could not find sufficient steep and difficult grounds to cover the minimum required 300 meters of vertical drop but it may make an exception.

Lodge, Collins Pace Conference Gaining

College of Idaho's double-barreled attack—Ed Lodge and Gary Collins—stands out statistically in this week's Northwest conference report of the big guns.

Lodge leads ground gainers with 418 yards in four games while his buddy and accomplice, fullback Collins, is on his flying heels with 449 yards.

As a team, the Coyotes, have averaged 324 yards per game, which is 200 more than Willamette university has allowed its four opponents for an average.

Individually, Willamette has no one above 10th, Windy Sequeira being No. 10 with 142 yards and 5.3 average. Tim Campbell of WU is 12th with 115 and 6.4.

In passing, Ron Parrish of Linfield is the leading gainer with 404 yards on 29 of 66, but Jim Johnson of L. & C. is the best percentage passer with 16 of 30 for 264 yards.

Best punter is Bill Colman of Linfield, with a 37.3 average on 12 kicks. Collins of C. I. is second with 36.0. Campbell of WU is sixth with 30.3 despite having one blocked.

Lodge also is leading scorer with 42 points.

Hollaway Is Fastest UCLA Back Since 'Robby' in '40
LOS ANGELES (AP)—As college football players go, halfback Chuck Hollaway of the UCLA varsity is a little guy with a big job on his hands.

He stands only 5 feet 8, weighs 162 pounds and is somewhat a prototype of another chunky little rambler, Buddy Young, the ex-cellino star.

And like Young, Hollaway, a letterman as a hurdler and broad jumper in track, is fast—the fastest halfback since Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn baseball fame performed for UCLA in 1939-40.

Hollaway, a 25-year-old senior from Detroit, showed flashes of break-away brilliance last year. But he had to play second fiddle to the best right half, or wingback in the single wing, in the school's history, a lad named Jim Decker.

As "it was, Hollaway was the sixth best ground gainer on Red Sanders' Rose Bowl team, with 115 yards in 24 carries to his credit.

Despite his lack of height, he was the leading pass receiver—16 catches for 184 yards and three touchdowns.

At this stage Sanders has Hollaway playing first string, and if hard work means anything, this competitively minded young man will be hard to move out of the role. He is a physical education major and athletics are to be his career.

Last spring, and the spring before, Hollaway combined track and football, and his best afternoon came in 1955 in the dual track and field meet with the Bruins' powerhouse neighbor, Southern California. Little Chuck won both the low hurdles and the broad jump.

His best marks were 24 feet in the broad jump, and 23.4 in the low hurdles.

Ferguson Among Final Contenders for U. S. Boxing Team

By ROBERT L. MYERS
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Classy Vince Ferguson of New York, winner of 52 straight fights, goes after two more tonight as he leads the United States' finest amateur boxers into the final phase of their Olympic trials.

Ferguson, 19-year-old NCA light middleweight champ from Wisconsin, was one of five collegiate finalists to advance to the semifinals of the three-day Olympic trials.

A sixth NCAA representative, Choken Markawa, Michigan State's bantamweight from Hawaii, goes into the final against Dave Abeyta of Idaho State, a Western regional winner.

Dazzling Display
Vince uncorked a dazzling array of crosses and counterpunches to stop Air Force champion Dave Smith of Seattle in the first round. Ferguson floored the rangy Smith with a right cross on the jaw and hit him twice more in the stomach. Then the bout was halted.

The original field of 105 was trimmed to 30 for 10 semifinal and 10 final fights to select the United States' boxers for the Olympic Games at Melbourne, Australia, next month.

Ducks' Pass Defense to Face Major Test Against Stanford

2 Oregon QBs Ill; Beavers Go to WSC

Stanford's favored Indians battle the Ducks of Oregon at Eugene Saturday in one of three Pacific Coast Conference games with direct Rose Bowl flavor.

Also in contending position for the bowl bid are the California Bears and the Beavers of Oregon State. The Bears host the Bruins of UCLA while Oregon State tangles with Washington State, the nation's top passing team.

AAU winner, punched out a three-round victory over Ed Hawkins, a fellow Air Force boxer, last night. Another Wisconsin entrant, NCAA lightweight champ Orville Pitts, had the most impressive victory in the marathon 42-bout card. With one punch—a searing left hook—he knocked out Donnie Hall of Louisville in the opening round.

Other collegiate champs to reach the semis were welterweight Gil McLane of Louisiana State, default over Henry Brown of Wichita, Kan.; middleweight Roger House of Idaho State, KO victory over George McCorkle of the Air Force; and heavyweight Harold Espy of Idaho State, who outpointed Jesse Barber of Los Angeles.

Undeleted Southern California hosts the Huskies of Washington, but along with UCLA, these teams can't go to the Rose Bowl. All three were penalized by the conference for illegal subsidization.

Mostly By Passing
Stanford quarterback John Brodie ranks as the nation's collegiate leader in total offense with 748 yards in four games—all but 14 of those yards coming via passes.

He faces an Oregon squad rated the toughest in pass defense on the coast. Stanford returns to PCC play after three straight non-conference foes.

California fullback Jerry Drew, one of many PCC players limited to five games by conference penalties, decided to start his string Saturday at Berkeley against UCLA. It was either meet UCLA or Stanford and Jerry chose the former. His five-game string runs out before the Stanford Big Game.

Arnett and Roberts
ISC rates over Washington on the strength of its one-two rushing punch of Jon Arnett and C. R. Roberts. But they'll be running into the likes of Dick Day, the 240-pound tackle voted Lineman of the Week by The Associated Press after the Huskies' victory over Oregon.

Oregon State's running attack proved too tough for California last week as sophomore tailback Paul Lowe had a great day. Washington State has two of the nation's leading passers in Runny

Aldrich and Bob Newman for this running vs. passing duel. Idaho is idle.

Duck QBs Ill
Oregon Coach Len Casanova, who possibly had been flinching with the idea of starting a sophomore quarterback against Stanford, may be forced to it.

His No. 1 and 2 quarterbacks, the unrelated Tom and Jack Crabtree, both fell ill Thursday and had to be put to bed. There is a chance that both will recover in time to play Saturday.

The sophomore who is ready to take over is left-handed Roger Daniels, a sharp passer who had been working out with the regulars this week even before the Crabtrees fell ill.

Guard Harry Mondale of Oregon pulled a leg muscle in practice Thursday, but later said he would be able to play against Stanford.
