

Ore. Candidates for Congress List Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six of Oregon's eight candidates for the House have reported campaign contributions of $31,835 and expenditures of $24,444.

These figures do not include anything for Rep. Sam Coon (R), seeking re-election from the Second District, or Phil J. Roth, Republican nominee in the Third District. No reports had been received from them.

Preliminary reports are required before election. A final report is required after election. Not included in the contribution total are gifts which may have been made to committees operating in behalf of any candidate.

In listing expenditures, candidates are required to itemize some costs—principally advertising, radio or television time—but are permitted to lump such items as personal traveling and subsistence expense.

Oregon congressional candidates filed the following reports, listing in order contributions, itemized expenditures, unitemized expenditures and major contributors (limited to those in excess of $500 or to largest contribution reported if none in excess of $500):

Walter Norblad (R), 1st District—$318, $1,911, none; Oregon Republican Finance Committee, 3 contributions totaling $4,000; National Republican Congressional Committee, $500.

Jason Lee (D), 1st District—$1,207, $1,244, none; Wayne Morse Political Committee, $1,000.

Al Ullman (D), 2nd District—$1,145, $1,145, none; Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, national headquarters, $200.

Edith Green (D), 3rd District—$503, $503, $720; $100 contributions each from R. Ellis, S. George, P. Dooley and C. Davidson, all of Portland.

Harris Ellsworth (R), 4th District—$16,415, $2,517, $13,898; Oregon Republican Finance Committee, 6 contributions totaling $1,500; G. L. Jackson, Medford, $500; W. A. Woodard, Cottage Grove, $500; National Republican Congressional Committee, 2 contributions totaling $1,500.

Charles O. Porter (D), 4th District—$7,747, $2,406, $100; AFL-CIO, 4 contributions totaling $3,000; Democratic Congressional Committee, $500; Michael Kirwan, $500; Wayne Morse, $1,000.

Labor Spends Most for Sen. Morse of Any

WASHINGTON (AP) — Organized labor has made larger campaign contributions to Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) than to any other Senate candidate, the Senate Elections subcommittee reported Sunday.

The total from Jan. 1 to Oct. 21 was $35,500 for Morse, an interim report by the subcommittee said. The funds came from 15 national labor political funds.

The report said labor groups listed $254,437 in contributions to Democratic Senate candidates. They listed $290,805 contributed to House candidates, most of them Democrats, in 45 states.

The 15 national labor groups reported $1,454,271 in political contributions this year, with $1,226,127 of this transferred to other campaign groups, including those of House and Senate candidates.

Labor contributions accounted for about 25 per cent of nearly one million dollars received by Senate candidates or their campaign committees, the report said.

It listed Republican Senate campaign groups as receiving $520,000 and spending $449,000 up to Oct. 21. The figures for the Democrats were $442,000 received and $359,000 spent.

31 Congress Members Won't Be Around for 1957 Sessions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thirty-one members of the present Congress—six senators and 25 representatives—won't be back next year regardless of what happens in tomorrow's elections.

Two other representatives won't return to the House, but may land in the Senate.

The six senators pulling out voluntarily include the veterans Eugene D. Millikin (R-Colo.), Walter F. George (D-Ga.) and Herbert Lehman (D-Ny.), and three interim appointees not seeking election in their own right: Robert Humphreys (D-Dy.), William R. Laird (D-Wa.) and Thomas A. Welford (D-Sc).

Of the 25 representatives not returning to the House, 18 retired, several with service long enough to rate pensions in excess of $10,000 a year; 6 were defeated in primary elections; and 1 unsuccessfully sought nomination to the Senate.

Those retiring from the House are John Phillips of California, Richard W. Hoffman and Harold H. Velde of Illinois, Shepard J. Crumpacker of Indiana, Clifford R. Hope of Kansas, Charles P. Nelson of Maine, George A. Dondero and Jesse P. Wolcott of Michigan, Jackson B. Chase of Nebraska, Ralph A. Gamble of New York, Oliver P. Bolton of Ohio, and Karl C. # How Do Voters Score the Candidates, Parties, Issues?

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N.J., Nov. 2—The votes registered next Tuesday will be determined largely by the way the public thinks about the:

1. Candidates,
2. Parties, and
3. Issues.

And since about one-third of all Americans of voting age fail to cast their ballots, the effectiveness of the party machines in getting their followers to the polls on Election day constitutes a fourth major factor.

Modern scientific polling attempts to gauge voting sentiment, but in doing so it is equally interested in shedding light on the reasons why people vote as they do.

With this in mind, the Gallup Poll has sought in the present election campaign to use its methods in appraising all four of these key factors which will determine the outcome of the election.

THE PARTIES

More voters today prefer the Democratic party than prefer the Republican party.

When asked how they classify themselves politically, the preferences of voters across the country line up as follows:

Democrats 43 p.c.
Republicans 36 p.c.
Independents 21 p.c.

Previous Institute surveys also have shown that if all Americans of voting age were required to re-register today, the Democrats would outnumber the Republicans by nearly 13 million voters.

An April survey found 51,700,000 voters said they would sign up as Democrats, 39,000,000 would register as Republicans, while 7,800,000 would still be "on the fence."

SCORE: On the matter of party preference, the Democrats have a distinct advantage over the Republicans.

3. How Voters Stand On the Issues

On the public itself regards as the Number One problem facing the country—foreign policy and preserving the peace—the Republican party comes up with a great advantage over the Democratic party.

Voters were asked in the latest survey: "Which political party do you think would be more likely to keep the United States out of World War III—the Republican party or the Democratic party?"

They answered: Republican party 44 per cent, Democratic party 19 per cent, no difference 17 per cent, no opinion 20 per cent.

When voters were asked to name the most important problem facing the country and then asked which party could best handle the particular problem they named, the results among those who named one of the two parties were: Republican party best 57 per cent, Democratic party best 43 per cent.

SCORE: The Republicans have the edge in the matter of campaign issues.

S.A. Advisors Adopt Hostel

The Salvation Army advisory board voted Monday to go ahead with the transient hostel project a committee headed by J. V. Avison has been studying. Avison reported that a modest sized operation can be financed within the present budget of the S.A., plus donations of food, bedding, furniture, etc., which the Army already receives or will have no trouble securing.

Avison said much more can be accomplished in this manner for the money being spent and that it is urgently needed for emergency transient aid. Major West said he already has about 25 cots and some of the other furnishings available. A satisfactory house on Marion street has been offered at $35 a month rental. The cash budget for the project for the coming year is $320, plus the donated items.

It was announced that the Salvation Army's Christmas kettles will be placed on Salem streets November 23 and it was agreed that board members will man them on one day, to be named later.

Bleachers for Molalla High

MOLALLA (Special)—A special meeting of the board of education of the local high school, with representatives of the local grade school also present, was held recently to take up a matter jointly.

The grade school district had located a set of eight used folding bleachers owned by Vernonia high school and offered for sale at a price which represented approximately one-third of the cost for new sets.

Since the grade school could use only four of the eight sets, they were made available to the high school. It was voted to purchase the four sets, using money received heretofore from Molalla Buckeroo association in payment for field lights.

Also authorized at the special meeting was construction of a new aerial for the amateur radio station in the high school. A proposal for construction of a fence around the athletic field was tabled for further consideration.

Pat McCarthy is not running for office because of his fine family. But he believes they make seven good reasons for his interest in the future of the county.

The election of Pat McCarthy will bring to the Marion County Court—

1. A balanced representation.
2. A new outlook, fresh ideas and vigorous approach to the growing county problems.
3. Fair and courteous treatment to all who have business with the court.

All Present Members of the County Court were first appointed to the jobs they now hold—Not Elected.

It is time a new member be chosen by the voters—not by the remaining members.

VOTE for ELMO SMITH because he has done a tremendous job in his nine months as Governor

In nine short months Elmo Smith has displayed the qualities for exceptional leadership in Oregon. In this brief time he has put into action 15 major propositions for the growth and betterment of Oregon while guiding with a sure hand the many normal functions of the State Government. As memory serves, no other Governor has accomplished so much in so short a period. His record as Governor is unchallenged. His record for personal and official fairness and integrity is unchallenged. We strongly urge you to cast your vote to keep Elmo Smith Governor.

WHAT LEADERS SAY ABOUT HIM ON:

EDUCATION Dean U. G. Debach, Lewis and Clark College, Portland: "I favor Governor Smith because I know that when he promises to do everything he can to help the educational system, he'll do it. You can trust Elmo Smith's record."

HIGHWAYS Ben Robinson, Farmer, Imbler: "Farmers need good highways. Governor Smith has been a true leader in giving Oregon a magnificent highway system. I want to see him continue his work."

UNITED NATIONS Victor P. Morris, 1956 U. N. Day Chairman, Eugene: "Governor Smith is interested in the United Nations, and in recognition of United Nations Day, he asked me to serve as chairman for the promotion of its observance in Oregon this year, giving me full support."

AS A MAN Orval D. Yokom, Attorney, John Day: "I've known Elmo Smith and his fine family for a long time. Speaking as a neighbor of his, I can vouch for the fact that you'll never meet a cleaner, more sincere, harder-working man."

LABOR R. Bruce Kiehl, Member Masters, Matos and Pilots, Local 17, A.F. of L., Portland: "I know the working man's problems and I know Elmo Smith. I know, too, that Smith has always opposed anti-labor legislation, and that as Governor he will continue to do so. Oregon's wages are the highest in the U.S. I'd like to keep them that way, so I'm for Smith."

TAXES Len Shaver, Jr., Past Junior 1st Citizen, Portland: "Governor Smith wants to simplify the state income tax payment system and repeal the surtax. He wants it possible for us to pay all our state income tax through withholding. That makes sense."

FAIRNESS TO ALL Arthur A. Cox, Editor, Northwest Clarion, Portland: "I like Governor Smith. His voting record in the Oregon legislature shows that he's fair to everybody, regardless of race, creed or color."

Keep ELMO SMITH GOVERNOR

Governor the people of Oregon like and trust

A VOTE FOR MORSE IS A VOTE AGAINST EISENHOWER

Morse has been wrong—terribly wrong—on the vital issues that meant war or peace for our country. He was wrong on Korea, wrong on Formosa, wrong on Suez, and is now wrong on the H-bomb. Support Eisenhower's program for peace.
