'House Cleaning' Due on Law Suits

Attorneys involved in law suits on which no legal action has been taken for a year or more are being notified by the county clerk's office that such cases will be up for final determination during a January motion day to be held early next year.

In the process known as "house cleaning day," the law requires the clerk's office to notify all attorneys associated with each case by a letter in affidavit form of the impending motion day.

In some cases there are several attorneys involved, which means an individual letter must be mailed to each.

Approximately a half hundred cases are involved in the current "house cleaning" process.

Paratroops

minutes before had been locked in bitter controversy.

Labour Party leader Hugh Gaitskill pressed Eden to say whether the cease-fire was local or general, and asked:

"If the cease-fire is general, then will he undertake to carry out the rest of the U.N. General Assembly resolution and withdraw our troops from the area?"

Eden replied:

"Quite clearly I cannot know how wide or narrow is the area covered by the cease fire."

British airmen returning from the paratroop drop said the initial phases of the operation went off "just like a practice jump."

Meanwhile, Israeli forces in the mopup operations in the Sinai Desert claimed the capture of the mainland town of Sharm (Sharm el-Sheikh), controlling the entrance to the Gulf of Aqaba and Israeli's port of Elath. Unconfirmed reports Sunday said two fortified islands off Sharm—Tiran and Sanafir—had been taken.

The landings were announced by Allied headquarters on Cyprus, takeoff point for the invasion, only a few hours after a top-level British-French meeting here. The party apparently resulted in a decision by the two powers to go ahead with their "police action" despite weekend events in Hungary and the United Nations.

But Britain and France followed up their invasion announcement with a promise to cease all military action in Egypt as soon as Israel and Egypt accept a U. N. plan for an international police force to end the Israeli-Egyptian fighting and get the Suez Canal back into operation.

The waves of paratroopers took off from Cyprus in predawn darkness.

Most of the British troops were regulars. Ten to 15 per cent had been in combat before. Many were veterans of Britain's bloody battle against the EOKA underground on Cyprus.

Prior to the landings, British and French bombers had pounded coastal and anti-aircraft installations in the canal area in a softening-up operation.

Low-level bombing attacks also were reported north and northeast of Cairo.

British-French headquarters already had claimed the Egyptian air force has ceased to exist as a result of the steady attacks last week of the British and French planes on the airports.

Word of the invasion was flashed after a turbulent day in London, where 20,000 demonstrators milled about Whitehall, seat of Britain's government, demanding that Prime Minister Eden resign.

open all the way through until the count is completed," he said.

Polls Open 8 to 8

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. Counting boards will start their work in the morning shortly after polls are open and first voters have marked their ballots.

In Marion county and the state probably the race creating the most interest is the Morse-McKay fight for a U. S. Senate seat. According to a Capital Journal school poll, most Republicans can expect to win easily in Marion county. The Morse-McKay poll however, showed only a slight lead here for McKay, a lead his supporters say must be large here to offset Morse strength in Multnomah county.

4 In Council Race

Of seven statewide ballot measures, most controversial has been number one, which will allow the emergency clause on tax measures passed by legislature.

A special Marion county subdistricting bill will get most of the attention here as ballot measure from his horse and eight others were injured before order was restored. Authorities arrested 32 demonstrators.

Bar Assn. Has No Candidate

The Marion County Bar association, through its president, Peter M. Gunnar, announced this morning that the bar association has taken no action to support or endorse either candidate for the office of district attorney of Marion county.

No preference poll, either official or unofficial, has been taken to determine the preference of the individual lawyers in this contest, he said. His statement was made at the direction of the board of directors of the bar association, he added.

Polls Pick Ike

it is 230-201, with four vacancies. Each party held two of the seats now vacant.

12 Senate Races Close

Republicans claim they will pick up at least one new Senate seat and 25 in the House. Democrats say they will hold their own in the Senate and make a net gain of 13 seats in the House.

Most observers see a dozen Senate races as close. Consequently, the makeup of the new Senate may not be known finally until late Wednesday.

The weekend saw the windup of the GOP campaign, except for an hourlong program tonight to be carried by the ABC, CBS and NBC TV networks and by CBS radio. It will include brief talks by Eisenhower and his running mate, Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Both will speak from Washington.

Time: 8 p.m. PST.

Both had planned to go to Boston for a rally there tonight, but switched plans when the Middle East crisis developed last week. Eisenhower will speak briefly to the Boston rally by closed circuit TV.

All 15 of West Virginia's cross-country squads have been coached by Art Smith.

Transportation to the polls Tuesday will be provided by Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce members for persons otherwise unable to get to polling places in the city and adjacent suburban areas. The service will be conducted from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. and persons wishing to get the transportation can do so by calling the Red Cross office which is the headquarters for the Jaycees for this project.

crats in this, and besides had accepted outlawed financial aid in preparing for the poll-watching in Portland.

The Democrats asked an investigation by the Senate subcommittee on elections, and Democratic Sen. Richard L. Neuberger said Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.), chairman of the subcommittee, had sent word the investigation would be made.

Some of the candidates continued campaigning through the weekend. Both Morse and McKay made talks at Portland Sunday. Holmes also spoke there, and Neuberger spoke at a Democratic meeting at Monroe in Benton County.

Earl Sande rode his last horse race at the age of 54.

Niagara
 CYCLO-MASSAGE

Did Something for these folks

A LOVELY HOMEMAKER

"I purchased my Niagara set in October, 1953—three years ago. I honestly believe I've used it every day since. I can't begin to tell you how much I like the set and how much it has done for me. I seem to have a troublesome back... and Niagara does give me relief. Niagara helps me relax, too, and it certainly helps me feel and look better. Frankly, if I couldn't buy another I would not sell my Niagara for any amount of money."

Mrs. J.L.S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

AN 80-YEAR OLD WOMAN

"I was in a wheel chair for ten years before I found Niagara. After ten months of regular use, the pain and trembling in my legs is practically gone. Now I feel better all over... the strength is coming back in my legs and arms. I can stand alone and move about all by myself, and I sleep like a log every night. In fact, Niagara Massage has made me feel so much better I'm planning a trip back East next month."

Mrs. V. M. B., Oakland, Calif.

AND A HARD-WORKING EXECUTIVE

"There's nothing quite like a leisurely 'ride' in one of the new Niagara Lounge Chairs. In the middle of the day, I like to lean back in mine and let the three cyclo-massage motors relax my tired muscles and nerves. The Niagara Chair is a wonderful aid to comfort and health... and it would, I think, be a delight to any busy executive."
