THE BRIDE COOKS DINNER
Flavorome — this skillet beef!
Steamed Rice Salad Bowl
Hot Garlic Bread
Fruit and Cheese Beverage

SKILLET BEEF
Ingredients: 1/2 cup knife-chopped beef suet, 2 medium-sized onions (chopped), 1 1/2 pounds beef round steak (cut in 1-inch squares and about 1/4 inch thick), 3 medium-sized tomatoes (each peeled and cut into quarters), 1/2 cup water, 1 clove garlic (minced or crushed), 1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder, 1 1/2 teaspoons wine vinegar, 1 1/2 teaspoons dark brown sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, pepper.
Method: Slowly heat suet in 10-inch skillet until it melts; add onions. Cook, stirring occasionally, until onions are wilted. Push onions to one side of pan; add beef and brown, stirring often. Add tomatoes, water, garlic, chili powder, wine vinegar, sugar, salt and pepper to taste; stir well. Bring to a boil; cover and simmer, stirring often, over low heat until meat is tender — about 1 1/2 hours. Serve over rice. Makes 3 servings.

Camp Fire Girls Plan Candy Sale

Camp Fire Girls will take the spotlight from November 10 to November 21 when hundreds of girls ring neighborhood doorbells and offer candy for sale to procure funds for summer camp maintenance.

Although Camp Fire Girls is a beneficiary of United Funds, the budget does not include camp maintenance. This year the various groups are hoping to build a play area at their summer camp with the money earned from the sale of the chocolate coated mints.

The young ladies, dressed in red, white and blue, will not only sell candy from door to door, but also will have booths at Lipman's, Meier & Frank's-Salem, First National bank, Montgomery Ward, Ladd and Bush, U.S. National bank, Heider's and Miller's.

The candy containers were specially designed by Brown and Haley and company for the event and sell for $1 a box. Selling simultaneously with girls from the Salem area will be Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds from Marion, Polk, Linn and Benton counties.

"Together We Make Tomorrow" is the theme for this year. Any girl between 7-18 is eligible for membership.
