

2 Tax Measures Defeated; 4 Other Proposals Adopted

Increasing Pay Of Legislators Still in Doubt

Emergency Clause Is Snowed Under by 100,000

PORTLAND (UP)—Oregon voters yesterday rendered clear-cut decisions on six of seven initiative and referendum measures put before them on the state ballot.

Only on the issue of doubling the salaries of state legislators did there appear to be any doubt of an outcome. Those opposing the increase were holding the edge as returns continued to come in and the measure was trailing by a little more than three thousand votes.

The emergency clause measure, considered crucial by both parties in the state, was being defeated by a heavy margin that approached 100,000 votes on the basis of still incomplete returns. That was the widest margin turned in on any of the seven issues as Oregonians apparently accepted the Democratic argument that the measure was a Republican tactic to enact a sales tax "by the back door."

The three-cent cigarette tax vote was a repeat of a familiar refrain. Oregon voters wanted no part of a tax levied against its cigarette smokers and dumped the proposal by more than 40,000 votes.

The proposal to permit the state to accept gifts of stocks of private corporations won easily, going in to the stretch moving ahead. A margin of some 54,000 votes made it almost a "no contest." The measure had no organized opposition.

Sports and tourist-minded Oregonians agreed with wildlife and conservation organizations who claimed that commercial fishing should be banned in all coastal streams south of the Columbia river. "Yes" votes were well ahead. Commercial fishing and cannery interests opposed the measure.

Voters liked the proposition that the legislature should decide the qualifications of county coroners and surveyors. The measure had an advantage of more than 24,000 votes and next session of the legislature will probably result in a law requiring surveyors to be some background in their field.

A 29,000-vote margin was held in the vote to change the constitutional limit on salaries of state officers. Top state officials already are paid far more than the state's founding fathers deemed necessary nearly 100 years ago. Voters yesterday legalized the practice.

Three Towns Okay Fluoride

ASTORIA (UP)—Three Clatsop county towns expressed the approval of fluoridation of their city water supplies in balloting yesterday. All three towns already had fluoridated but measures were placed on the ballot to eliminate the treatment of municipal water supplies.

The towns were Astoria, Gearhart and Warrenton.

Commissioner Leads

Republican Roy Rice, veteran Marion county commissioner, won another four year term Tuesday, defeating challenger Patrick McCarthy.

Leads

On the basis of incomplete unofficial returns Hattie Bratzel has a narrow edge on Tom Enright in the race for Marion County district attorney.

Senate Race Results and Trends

This is how the vote for U.S. Senate shaped up at 7 a.m., EST. Today, of 35 Senate races involved, Democrats appeared sure winners in 14 and led close races in Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Oregon, Colorado, Kentucky and Nevada. Republicans won 11 seats and were leading in a close Illinois contest. (AP Wirephoto Map)

President Piles Up 1.5 Million N.Y. Lead; Javits Beats Wagner

NEW YORK (UP)—President Eisenhower piled up a plurality of approximately 1,500,000 votes over Adlai Stevenson in winning New York's 45 electoral votes.

The Republicans also gained a seat in the U.S. Senate as Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits defeated Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City, Democratic-Liberal candidate, by some 450,000.

Returns Wednesday from 11,071 of the state's 11,132 election districts, with traditionally Democratic New York City complete, gave:

For president — Eisenhower 1,286,301; Stevenson 2,731,562. For the Senate — Javits 3,679,150; Wagner 3,240,932.

Javits will succeed retiring Democratic Sen. Herbert H. Lehman.

Wagner had aspired to follow in the footsteps of his father, the late Sen. Robert F. Wagner, sponsor of the Wagner Labor Relations Act and other New Deal legislation.

The mayor carried New York City by almost 450,000 votes, but could not cope with the upstate outpouring of Republican ballots.

In contrast with Wagner's run in the city, Stevenson carried the traditionally Democratic stronghold by only 62,994 votes. The count was: Stevenson 1,614,825; Eisenhower 1,551,921.

And upstate, Eisenhower took city after city and district after district by larger margins than he did four years ago.

Unofficial returns indicated the voters approved a 500-million-dollar bond issue for highway construction but had defeated a 100-million-dollar bond issue to encourage private construction of middle-income housing.

Eisenhower's plurality in New York State in 1952 was 848,000 votes. Wagner conceded defeat at 1:22 a.m., after leading much of the time in a see-saw race. He sent a wire of congratulations to Javits.

Democratic leaders appeared to accept the Democratic debacle philosophically.

"No Democrat need be discouraged," said Gov. Averell Harriman, who had lost out to Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination. "The Republican party is not anything like as popular as President Eisenhower."

Harriman predicted a Democratic recovery in state elections in 1958.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, widow of the former President, told volunteer Democratic workers it was "important to be a good loser as well as a winner."

Eisenhower supporters appeared to take their victory matter-of-factly.

Mark Wins

Republican Mark Hatfield of Salem defeated his Democratic opponent Monroe Sweetland Tuesday to gain a four year term as secretary of state.

AG Repeats

Democratic incumbent Robert Y. Thornton was returned as Oregon Attorney General by state voters who elected him over Republican Carl Francis.

Mamie So Happy She Weeps a Bit

By PATRICIA WIGGINS, United Press Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON (UP)—Mamie Eisenhower, though blinking back tears, was probably the happiest woman in a jam-packed room of wildly cheering Republicans here Tuesday night.

As President Eisenhower eloquently closed his brief victory statement and thunderous applause broke loose, the bright-eyed first lady turned to Mrs. Richard M. Nixon and murmured, "It makes me weak inside."

A moment later she was blinking back tears as her beaming husband took her arm to escort her back to the White House for another four years.

The first lady was radiant from the moment the presidential party entered the cheering auditorium of some 1,600 happy Republicans. She came through the door first, then turned to wait for her broadly-grinning husband and they entered as the "team" that they have been for the past four years.

Mrs. Eisenhower, who will be celebrating her 60th birthday just a week from today, carried a bouquet of two dozen "Mamie pink" carnations. She wore a full-skirted electric blue net gown with blue sequins around its scoop neckline. Her blue satin pumps matched her gown. She wore her favorite pearl necklace and on her wrist was an "Ike" bracelet.

A Cabinet wife earlier described Mrs. Eisenhower as a "wonderful hostess" in the hotel suite above the GOP party in the ballroom where officials gathered during the evening.

Besides the officials, Mrs. Eisenhower's mother, Mrs. John S. Doud—wearing an "I like Mamie" button—Mrs. Eisenhower's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon Moore, and the Eisenhower's son and his wife, Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower, were on hand.

Clyde Elected Utah Governor In 3-Way Race

SALT LAKE CITY (UP)—Utah voters gave President Eisenhower the state's four electoral votes in a three-way contest in yesterday's general election.

They also re-elected a Republican U.S. senator and the two Republican congressmen.

Eisenhower's lead over Democrat Adlai Stevenson was approximately 2-1, a wider margin than he won by four years ago.

Sen. Wallace F. Bennett defeated Democrat Alonzo F. Hopkin, a veteran member of the State Senate.

George D. Clyde, at 58 seeking his first public elective office, defeated Democrat L. C. Romney, a Salt Lake City commissioner, and Gov. J. Brackett Lee, running as an independent after he lost the Republican nomination to Clyde in the primary.

Returns from 607 of the state's 1,630 voting districts showed: Eisenhower 135,769; Stevenson 71,339.

For governor — Clyde 80,205; Romney 67,250; Lee 58,640. U.S. senator — Bennett 112,528; Hopkin 91,606.

Powell May Quit Demos

NEW YORK (UP)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.), newly re-elected Negro congressman, says he might quit the Democratic party. He supported President Eisenhower for re-election.

Powell said last night he intends to vote as a Democrat in the organization of the new Congress. But he added:

"If the Democratic party becomes the party of Eastlandism, I cannot stay in it."

Board Accepts Morse Ballot Over Challenge

EUGENE (UP)—A Eugene election board yesterday, after due consideration, accepted the challenged vote of Sen. Wayne Morse.

The right of the Democratic senator to cast his vote in the election was challenged by Woodrow Smith, Hood River service station operator who made an unsuccessful attempt to win the Democratic party nomination from Morse in the May primary.

Smith maintained a six-hour vigil outside the voting place yesterday until the senator showed up to cast his ballot at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Pearl Pallette, an election judge, listened to the challenge and administered the election oath to Morse as required by law. After the challenge was issued, the board considered the challenge and decided that the documents submitted by Smith in his contention that Morse was a Republican rather than a Democrat only proved that the senator had changed his party registration.

The events took place in the crowded kitchen of the M. J. Gleason home, the voting location for Friendly precinct.

Smith explained as he made his challenge that "he didn't have it in for Morse—he merely doubted that he was a Democrat." Smith had earlier made several unsuccessful legal attempts to establish this as a fact.

Reelected

Sig Unander was again elected state treasurer for another four year term Tuesday. He had little opposition from Wiley Smith of Portland.

BOISE, Idaho (UP)—Democrat Frank Church, 32, a political neophyte, piled up a surprising near 40,000 vote majority today to oust Republican Herman Welker from the U.S. Senate.

Church won despite a heavy vote in favor of President Eisenhower. Church was running for major political office for the first time.

Returns from 744 precincts out of the state's 893 gave President Eisenhower 139,077 votes to Adlai E. Stevenson's 86,590.

Welker conceded his seat to Church at 12:25 a.m. today after the new senator picked up a lead of about 25,000 votes in the three-way race. Farmer Sen. Glen H. Taylor, who ran as a write-in candidate, conceded earlier.

The senate vote, with 744 precincts reported, was Welker 86,485; Church, 121,844; and Taylor, 8,891. Idaho's two members of Congress won reelection. Democratic Representative Grace Post was leading Republican contender Louise Shaddock, 46,942 to 39,012, with 307 out of the first District's 461 precincts reporting. Miss Shaddock conceded.

Republican Rep. Homer Budger led Democrat John Reynolds, 77,714 to 51,794 with 437 out of 492 precincts reporting. Reynolds conceded.

Four years after the British Museum placed the shell of an Egyptian desert snail on exhibition, a small crawled out. It was hungry.

Both the state's Democratic congressmen, Aime J. Forand and John E. Fogarty, won re-election. Fogarty defeated Republican Thomas H. Needham, 104,673 to 95,836 in the 2nd District race.

Forand won easily over Samuel D. Ramsay (R), 85,553 to 75,513, in the 1st District.

Ballot Fraud Charges Stir Town in Okla.

STILWELL, Okla. (UP)—Reports of ballot stuffing and illegal absentee voting today rocked this eastern Oklahoma town which only last summer saw its sheriff-elect and sheriff kill each other in a post-primary election gun duel in the county jail.

U. S. Dist. Atty. Frank McSherry Muskogee, Okla., said he had received reports that an unidentified candidate for sheriff passed ballots to friends he knew would vote for him, urging them to slip the extras into the boxes.
