

KHRUSHCHEV IN BUDAPEST

Russ Bigwigs Try to Firm Kadar's Regime

BUDAPEST, Hungary (UP)—A delegation of prominent Soviet leaders sought today to bolster the regime of Janos Kadar and end the revolt of the Hungarian people.

My Dad, Walt Disney

At last! The intimate story of America's most beloved—yet least known—genius, told by his daughter, Diane.

In this week's Saturday Evening Post, read the whole rag-to-riches story of the remarkable man who gave the world Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck and Snow White! You'll follow Disney from his early failures in Kansas City to his triumphs as top Academy Award winner of all time!

Disney's Daughter Reveals • Why, though his pictures have made millions, Disney is usually strapped for cash • How a nervous breakdown improved Disney's outlook on life • The unique appeal of Mickey Mouse Club and Mouseketeers have for millions of children • Disney's exciting plans for future projects. Don't miss "My Dad, Walt Disney," as his daughter told it to Pete Martin!

Out today—on all newsstands The Saturday Evening POST November 17, 1956—17¢ A CURTIS MAGAZINE

Freedom Asked

WALLA WALLA, Wash.—Mrs. Violet Hill, left, chats with Mrs. Dorothy Anderson, Washington State Penitentiary matron, as she waits results of attempts to gain her freedom. She is serving a sentence for manslaughter in the shotgun death of her husband in 1934 at Seattle. Evidence now indicates she may be innocent of the crime. (AP Wirephoto)

TANKER EXPLODES saingpo, 25 miles northeast of Pusan, South Korea, (U)—Police reported Tuesday a 54-ton tanker had exploded at Chang-explosion followed a gasoline fire, killing six crewmen and seriously injuring two others.

Salem Building Permits Rise Five Per Cent Above Year Ago

$5.1 Million Total For Nine Months Reported

Salem building permits for the past nine months of 1956 totaled $5,103,144, up 5 per cent from the $4,877,203 of the first nine months of last year, says a survey by the Equitable Savings & Loan association.

Property Tax Deadline Just 2 Days Away

Last call for payment of real property taxes.

Or, rather 5 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 15, is the deadline when taxes become delinquent unless at least a quarter of the entire assessment is paid.

If the entire obligation is taken care of no later than Nov. 15, the property owner is given a 5 per cent reduction. Many taxpayers are taking advantage of this situation, although others, not quite so flush, will settle the demands of the tax collector at three-month periods, or perhaps twice a year.

The line of taxpayers at the courthouse varies in length from hour to hour. There is a sizable rush at 8:30 a.m. when the doors are opened. During mid-afternoon Tuesday there was a queue of men and women that contained 30 to 40 persons.

Howard T. Evans, chief tax collector, reports collections are running about the same as a year ago. As usual, many property owners are making their payments by mail. Most of these remittances are placed aside while the office force waits on the customers at the big counter. It may be several weeks before the receipts are returned.

There is not too much delay in being waited on and the person who has but one statement and has his check all made out can expect to be relieved of his money within five or 10 minutes, depending upon his position in the line.

As could be expected under the circumstances, there is little joviality among Collector Evans' customers. Most of them are grim-faced.

Behind Corvallis, Eugene

Salem drops behind both Corvallis and Eugene in dollar volume of permits because of large building projects at Oregon State College and the University of Oregon. Corvallis with a total of $7,420,163 is up 374 per cent, and Eugene with $7,165,876 is up 95 per cent over last year.

Compared with Washington cities, outside of Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane, Salem drops under Vancouver and Yakima, although Vancouver is down 4 per cent.

In dwelling construction for the last nine months Salem has dropped 26 per cent compared with last year, with a total of $1,918,120. The nine-month total last year was $2,583,935. Salem, however, led all other Oregon cities but Portland in dwelling construction, and also all Washington and Idaho cities outside of Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane with the exception of Idaho Falls which has built $3,020,330 worth of dwellings.

1955 Mark Topped As an overall report the survey says that in the first nine months of the year Pacific Northwest building has exceeded the record for the same period in 1955 by 13 per cent in dollar volume, though dollar volume for home building is down 17 per cent. State by state total building estimates show: Idaho, $55,119,218, a 13 per cent increase; Oregon, $73,382,150, an 8 per cent increase; Washington, $142,672,779, an 11 per cent gain; and British Columbia, $61,642,924, up 26 per cent.

Lebanon Reports Building Active

LEBANON (Special)—Building permits during October totaled $3,900 in value. City Councilman Robert Heimerdinger reported at a council meeting Friday. Licenses were renewed for Paslume Cafe, Nameless Food Market, Columbia Foods, Jack's Market and the Dinette.

Councilman Ken Fuller reported that loss by fire within the city limits totaled $5,000 during October. In the rural area the loss was $75.

The public properties committee, headed by Councilman Mal Beard, was authorized to call for bids on city-owned items no longer in use, including a roof cooler, tarp, and similar articles.

New YM Instructional Pool Opens

Polk County Has Man Sought Here

A man wanted by Salem police on a bad check charge has been arrested by the Polk county sheriff's office on a charge there, city police said Tuesday.

Officers said John Ditzler, no address given, wanted here on a charge of passing a check with insufficient funds last January, will be held to answer to the Polk county charge first.

County Court Attends Meetings in Portland

County Judge Rex Hartley, Commissioners Roy Rice and E. L. Rogers were in Portland Tuesday attending the executive meeting of the O. & C. Land Counties association. The three men will remain attending the sessions of the Association in Portland much of the week at the invitation of Oregon Counties.

The new instructional-therapy pool at the YMCA was opened Monday and immediately put to work. Here, Dick Audley, Williamette student from Burlingame, Calif., puts some small fry through kicking exercises in a learn-to-swim program. Formal dedication will be Nov. 30 following a week-long open house of the Y's new building. (Capital Journal Photo)

Steinfeld's DELICIOUS kraut is King! Crisp Fall Days... Sauerkraut Time's Here!

Christmas is MORE FUN! when you belong to First National's interest-earning Christmas Club. Here's the way to Christmas fun... paid for in advance! Just join First National's Christmas Club at any convenient Branch. You will receive a special Christmas Club passbook in your name, showing the amount you intend to deposit each week. (Any amount you choose, 50c, $1.00, $2.00, etc.)

ALL that's NEW is OLDS! Golden Rocket, Starfire 98. Here's value that puts the accent on YOU! It's Olds for '57... with an exclusive new Accent Stripe. Seven Golden Rocket models include a new convertible and two new Finests. All with the 277-hp. Rocket T-400 Engine.