

16th Olympiad Starts Tonight (PST) at Melbourne

Sounds Of Strife Vanish

Spring Sunshine Hoped for At Games

By TED SMITS
MELBOURNE (AP)—The Duke of Edinburgh opens the 16th Olympic Games tomorrow before a sellout 110,000 and there was hope Melbourne's nasty spring weather would turn to warm sunshine.

The dissension that has plagued the games from the start seems to have melted away amid final preparations for the stately ceremony.

More than 4,000 athletes from 68 nations will compete in 16 sports between now and Dec. 8. Major honors are expected to go to the United States and Russia, with Australia and Hungary vying for third place in the unofficial point standings.

Center of Controversy
For the past seven years, the Melbourne games have been the center of controversy. At the start they were a political football and negotiations went so slowly Avery Brundage, International Olympic Committee president, threatened to move the games to another country. Then, in recent weeks, the troubled situation in the Middle East and Hungary brought the withdrawal of seven nations.

But to the throngs on the gaily decorated streets of Melbourne all this was forgotten today.

The ceremonies, which follow rigid protocol, begin at 3 p. m., Australian time, (9 p. m. PST) tomorrow when the Duke of Edinburgh enters the great oval of the Melbourne Cricket Club and service bands play the national anthem.

Pigeons and the Duke
Then comes the march of athletes in their uniforms of many colors—with team officials, a total of 5,000 men and women.

As thousands of pigeons are released, the duke reads the simple words that start this great sports festival.

"I declare open the Olympic Games of Melbourne celebrating the 16th Olympiad of the modern era."

Then comes the dramatic arrival of the Olympic torch that was kindled in Greece and brought by plane to Australia. From Darwin to Melbourne it was carried by 2,300 athletes, each running one mile.

Basketball Starts Off
There will be a brief dedication address by the Archbishop of Melbourne and recitation of the Olympic oath, then, after the national anthem, the athletes march out. Actual competition begins at 8 p. m. when Korea meets Nationalist China in basketball. Russia plays Canada in the second game of the evening.

Full-scale competition starts Friday in track and field, fencing, the modern pentathlon, rowing, field hockey, soccer, weightlifting, and boxing.

Aurora Lions Sponsor Wrestling Card Tuesday

NORTH MARION HIGH (Special)—The Aurora Lions club will sponsor an all-star wrestling card at North Marion Union high school Tuesday, Nov. 27, at 8 p. m.

Proceeds will go to the North Marion Lighting fund and cash prizes will be awarded students selling the most seats.

Headed by the professional card will be Red Bastien and Kurt Von Poppenheim.

Jockey Injured at State Fair Recovering Slowly After Coma

PORTLAND (AP)—Dewey Henshaw, the tough little jockey who suffered a severe brain injury at the state fair race meeting and who was in a coma for a month, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home at Caldwell, Idaho.

His sister, Mrs. Joe Schaefer, Portland, said Tuesday that Dewey had been released from a Portland hospital Nov. 4. He spent several days visiting at the Schaefer's, at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Patterson, Portland, and at the home of the family of his girl friend, Connie Bishop of Portland.

On Nov. 14 he took a train to his parents' home at Caldwell and his sister said he had no difficulty on the trip although he is suffering from impaired vision, a speech impairment and partial paralysis of his right arm and leg.

His sister is confident that eventually he will be fully recovered. But she hopes he will never ride again.

The 21-year-old jockey, who stands five feet tall and weighs 114 pounds, was thrown Sept. 4 when the horse he was riding stepped on the foot of the horse ahead and went down. He was rushed to the Salem General Hospital where doctors didn't hold much hope for his recovery.

Later that month, while still unconscious, he was moved to Providence Hospital in Portland where he was awakened from his coma and began the long road back to recovery.

Dewey said while at the hospital that he had "made pretty good money as a jockey. But I don't believe I want to continue in that work. I'd like to get another job, perhaps working with horses in some other way. I'd like to be a trainer, I think."

Woodburn Rifle Club to Elect

WOODBURN (Special)—The Woodburn Junior Rifle Club will elect officers at a meeting Monday at 7 p. m. at the city hall, then go to the old Hubbard city hall for target practice.

Juniors and interested adults are invited.

At a recent meeting, the club stressed safety and a review of rifle fire. After choosing two captains, Johnny ZerZan and Ray Halter, the teams competed, with ZerZan's team winning. Other team members were Donna Mathison, Jimmy ZerZan, John Connell, David Zastoupil and Bill Nathman.

Donna Mathison was high scorer with 59 x 100 and Ray Halter next. Ronnie Rosburg was second high among the girls.

Chair-Swinging Montana Gets Bloody Nod Over Ed Francis

Next time Bull Montana offers him a chair, Gentleman Ed Francis will duck.

Montana's inhumanity to man resulted in a brutal victory Tuesday night at the Salem Armory, with Francis' blond hair a mass of red with a red part from a steel chair swung by Montana in the second fall of the main event.

It's a long, sordid story, beginning with the second fall, after Francis had won the first with three backbreakers and a press.

Montana threw Francis out of the ring for the umpteenth time, right by the timer's table, and followed him to pound him good and proper. Then Montana jumped back under the ropes to await Francis.

Francis, looking for an equalizing weapon, pushed a folded-up steel chair in the ring, and followed it. But Montana, more of a butcher than a wrestler, seized the chair and smacked Francis smack on the head with it, and no feeling.

But that wasn't enough for the

Olympic Charm

If American diver Jeanne Stunyo, of Gary, Ind., dives as well as she looks, the Americans should pick up plenty of points in the upcoming Olympic games. Jeanne is shown at the Olympic pool at a training session. (AP Wirephoto)

Bill Dellinger 1st Oregon Star To Start in '56 Olympic Games

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Bill Dellinger, the Springfield, Oregon miler from Springfield, will be the first Oregon athlete to hear the starter's gun in the 16th Olympiad.

Sunday, Nov. 25, at 9:50 p. m., on the Pacific Coast, the first heat of the 5,000-meter run will start. That is Dellinger's event.

The last scheduled finish for an event in which an Oregonian is entered is Greco-Roman wrestling in which Dale Thomas of Oregon State College's physical education department competes. That winds up early in the morning of Thursday, Dec. 6.

Fortune Gardner, discus thrower from Brightwood, Lee Allen, free style wrestler from Troutdale, and Maureen Murphy, swimmer from Portland, are the other Oregon entrants in the Olympic Games which start with opening ceremonies at 9 p. m., Pacific standard time, Wednesday, Nov. 21.

OSC Wrestler and Discus Star In Meet

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Bill Dellinger, the Springfield, Oregon miler from Springfield, will be the first Oregon athlete to hear the starter's gun in the 16th Olympiad.

Sunday, Nov. 25, at 9:50 p. m., on the Pacific Coast, the first heat of the 5,000-meter run will start. That is Dellinger's event.

The last scheduled finish for an event in which an Oregonian is entered is Greco-Roman wrestling in which Dale Thomas of Oregon State College's physical education department competes. That winds up early in the morning of Thursday, Dec. 6.

Fortune Gardner, discus thrower from Brightwood, Lee Allen, free style wrestler from Troutdale, and Maureen Murphy, swimmer from Portland, are the other Oregon entrants in the Olympic Games which start with opening ceremonies at 9 p. m., Pacific standard time, Wednesday, Nov. 21.

1 UO Stars Entered

The games open Thursday Australian time, but there is an 18 hour time difference between Australia and Oregon.

In the two weeks of competition, Oregon track fans will have three races of special interest: Dellinger's 5,000 meters, the 1,500 meters

Woodburn Rifle Club to Elect

WOODBURN (Special)—The Woodburn Junior Rifle Club will elect officers at a meeting Monday at 7 p. m. at the city hall, then go to the old Hubbard city hall for target practice.

Juniors and interested adults are invited.

At a recent meeting, the club stressed safety and a review of rifle fire. After choosing two captains, Johnny ZerZan and Ray Halter, the teams competed, with ZerZan's team winning. Other team members were Donna Mathison, Jimmy ZerZan, John Connell, David Zastoupil and Bill Nathman.

Donna Mathison was high scorer with 59 x 100 and Ray Halter next. Ronnie Rosburg was second high among the girls.

Chair-Swinging Montana Gets Bloody Nod Over Ed Francis

Next time Bull Montana offers him a chair, Gentleman Ed Francis will duck.

Montana's inhumanity to man resulted in a brutal victory Tuesday night at the Salem Armory, with Francis' blond hair a mass of red with a red part from a steel chair swung by Montana in the second fall of the main event.

It's a long, sordid story, beginning with the second fall, after Francis had won the first with three backbreakers and a press.

Montana threw Francis out of the ring for the umpteenth time, right by the timer's table, and followed him to pound him good and proper. Then Montana jumped back under the ropes to await Francis.

Francis, looking for an equalizing weapon, pushed a folded-up steel chair in the ring, and followed it. But Montana, more of a butcher than a wrestler, seized the chair and smacked Francis smack on the head with it, and no feeling.

But that wasn't enough for the

Waldorf Resigns As Cal Grid Coach

'My Own Idea, No Pressure,' Says Pappy
By ROBERT MYERS
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Lynn O. (Pappy) Waldorf, dean of Pacific Coast Conference football coaches, announced his resignation to his California squad Tuesday night, emphasizing "it was my own idea."

The 54-year-old Waldorf, head man at California since 1947, said there was "no pressure on me to quit and this was merely the step I've contemplated for quite a while."

He announced the resignation before Cal's big game against Stanford Saturday "to avoid speculation about my future and to prevent pressure on the university."

Under Fire
Waldorf, whose three-year contract expires July 1, has been under fire by alumni groups two years. His salary has been estimated at $15,000 a year.

Pappy, one of the best known figures in football during 29 years of coaching at five colleges, told The Associated Press:

"I have seven months to make up my mind what I want to do. Maybe I'll stay in coaching, maybe I'll do something else. I just don't know."

Waldorf said he had not discussed the resignation with anyone connected with the Associated Students of the University of California, which operates Cal's athletic program.

3 Rose Bowls
Waldorf piloted the Golden Bears to 66 victories, 32 defeats and 4 ties in 10 years. He took California to the Rose Bowl in 1949, 1950 and 1951, losing all three times.

This year, the Bears have lost seven games while winning two. Before coming to California, Waldorf was head coach at Northwestern University from 1935-46 where he developed pro great O. T. Graham. He previously coached at Oklahoma City University 1927-28, Oklahoma A&M 1929-33 and Kansas State 1924.

His overall record is 169 victories, 94 defeats and 16 ties.

Greg Englehardt, Cal athletic director, said nothing will be done about a successor until after the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. meeting in January. He added Cal has no successor in mind.

Ennis Traded To Cardinals

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Del Ennis, traded to the St. Louis Cardinals for less age and more speed in Rip Repulski, is looking at the deal about as matter of factly as the Philadelphia Phillies. "That's baseball," he says.

If you put it on the blackboard, Ennis plus an unknown for Repulski and Bobby Morgan, a utility infielder, comes out at the Phillies' figuring to at least three years difference and more times on base.

And yesterday's trade of the 31-year-old outfielder and an unnamed minor league player for the two Cardinals may be one of a series.

General Manager Roy Hamey, who put his head together with Manager Frank Lane of St. Louis on this one, has already indicated he'll barter to the hilt in an effort to pull the Phillies from the National League's second division.

"Naturally, the guy in the deal for us was Repulski," said Hamey. Repulski, also an outfielder, is 28 and that says Hamey, "is a big thing."

Gervais Short On Experience

GERVAIS (Special)—Gervais is building a basketball team with five lettermen and a lot of other untried talent this winter.

Coach Ordie Howe will have little to say in experience of his team but even less height. Ralph Bennett, 6-0, is the biggest letterman while the tallest man on the squad, Louis Sova, is only 6-2.

Bennett will have help in the experience department from (Carroll) Phil Mahony, Cary Upendahl and Oris Seibel. Other prospects include Stan Steel, Stephen Crane, Alan Miller, Bob Berglund, Jerry Lamar, Johnnie Cox, Jerry Elwell, Ray Blair, Don Bellegue and Alva Vohlund.

Donna Mathison was high scorer with 59 x 100 and Ray Halter next. Ronnie Rosburg was second high among the girls.

South Squad Cut to 13 as Opener Nears

THE SOUTH SALEM basketball team has been reduced to 13 players by Coach Dick Hillantyne as the Saxons practice hard for the season opener against Hudson's Bay at Vancouver on December 1.

Forwards on the squad will be Jerry Brunelle, Dan Moore, Wayne Robinson, Keith Burres, Ed Lewis and Stan Anderson. The only center is 6-2 Ron Russell.

Guards are Jerry Coon, Larry Thompson, Jack Scott, Bob Payne, Don Watkins and Bob Treibstad.

Russell and Coon, Thompson and Scott were named as the six with the best chances of starting in the opener. All but Scott and Brunelle are lettermen.

Don Watkins, who led the Marion county B league in scoring last year, was expected to return to practice tonight after being laid up for a week with a bad ankle. Moore missed practice Monday and Tuesday because of flu.

Football Days Over for Star Vic Janowicz

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Vic Janowicz, one of Ohio State University's all-time football greats, has reached the end of the gridiron glory trail.

He has been advised by his physicians that he must never participate in any contact sport again.

Janowicz, 1950 all-America half-back and later a professional star with the Washington Redskins, suffered a brain injury several months ago in a California automobile accident.

He will recover sufficiently within the next year to lead a normal life, Dr. Robert Murphy of Columbus predicted Wednesday, but his football days are over.

Barnes May Spoil Crawford's Dinner With Too Much Yardage

State, is a long way back in second with 1,058.

But Brodie's lead on the total offense crown is by no means so secure. He has added five yards rushing to the passing total for an over-all 1,546. Paul Hornung of Notre Dame, second with 1,296, has two games (Iowa this week and Southern Cal next) to Brodie's one with California.

A Tough Job
The 250-yard advantage would be a tough one to overcome, but Hornung is the boy who could do it. Should Brodie win both passing and total offense titles he will succeed Navy's George Welsh, who did it last year.

Bob Newman of Washington State is the nation's third-ranking passer with 1,100 yards gained on 79 completions in 152 attempts. His passing puts him in the No. 7 spot in total offense with 1,659 yards gained in nine games.

Hornung Could Catch Brodie for Total Offense Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Bill Barnes, senior fullback from Wake Forest, will be more than thankful Thursday if he can pick up 113 yards rushing against South Carolina as part of the Turkey Day trimmings.

And if he does, it's likely to spoil the dinner of Jim Crawford, senior tailback on Wyoming's Skyline Conference champions.

Crawford gained 1,104 yards in Wyoming's ten games, all victories, and the major college rushing championship is his—if Barnes, with 992 in nine contests, doesn't take it away from him in Charlotte, N.C. Figures were compiled by the NCAA Service Bureau.

Hill Could Win

Jim Brown of Syracuse, in third place with 986, has finished his college career and may be passed by Jack Hill of Utah State, who has 826 yards. It's even possible for Hill to overhaul Barnes, but highly unlikely. Hill finishes against Utah Thursday.

John Brodie of Stanford has already wrapped up the forward passing yardage title with 1,541 yards. Bob Reinhart, San Jose

He's Had It

Panthers Drill Less Gridders

CENTRAL HI, Monmouth-Independence (Special)—Football success for the Central Panthers is still putting a damper on basketball workouts here as the hoop team prepares for the Willamette Valley league jamboree at Molalla, Dec. 3. Several hoop players are still playing football.

Coach Ray Coleman also has a handicap of a squad whose biggest man is exactly 6-0 tall.

Several of the basketball players are on the Central football team which is now in the State A-2 semifinal playoffs. These players may not be available until Dec. 3, after the A-2 title game.

The Panthers have seven lettermen returning this season, with 6-0 Roy Peterson topping the group in height. Others include 5-10 Larry King, 5-9 Dennis Hedges, 5-8 Jim Travis, 5-8 Aaron Cooper, 5-8 Bob Dodson and 5-7 Bill Blankenbaker.

7 Lettermen Out for Team

Seven lettermen are among 40 boys who turned out Tuesday for the South Salem wrestling team coached by Hank Juran.

The returning award winners are 120-pound Dave Roberts; 133-pound Lee Franklin; 145-pound Dick Davis; George Randall and Larry Payne; and 165-pound Gary Ballaw and Jerry Stuckley.

Juran thinks that the team would have a fair season if he found a heavyweight and several lightweights.

The season opens December 6 against Dallas at South Salem.

Cascade Going For Hoop Title

CASCADE HI, Aumaville-Turner (Special)—Cascade's Cougars are pointing to a possible District 8 A-2 championship this season with nine veterans on hand to open the schedule.

Coach Cal Hersey's club finished in the district and Capital conference runnerup slot last season and had an overall record of 16-10. With a little luck the Cougars could go all the way this year.

Returning lettermen are topped by 6-3 Wayne Wilkinson. The vets also include 6-2 Jim Urhammer, 6-1 Gary Downer, 6-1 Daryl Whitehead, 6-0 Gene Speer, 6-0 Roger Harris, 5-11 Don Smith, 5-8 Paul Peters and 5-4 Richard Towery.

The Cougars will first appear at the Capital conference jamboree Dec. 7 at South Salem high.

Don Newcombe Named Most Valuable NL Player in '56

NEW YORK (AP)—Pitchee Don Newcombe, whose 27 victories made him the biggest Brooklyn winner in 32 years, was voted today the Most Valuable Player in the National League for 1956 by the Baseball Writers Assn.

The big right-hander edged out his mound mate Sal Maglie by a scant 41 points. Seven players received first-place nominations by 24 voting writers. Five accumulated more than 100 points.

Not since Hank Sauer nosed out Robin Roberts and Joe Black in a three-way battle for the 1952 award has there been such a close race.

The 30-year-old Newcombe, who lost only seven games all season and but two of his last 20 decisions, topped the list with 223 points. His superb World Series performance — he was knocked out of the box in both starts — did not figure in the balloting.

Aaron Banks 3rd
Maglie, who won 13 games in closing a no-hitter while losing only five after joining the Dodgers in mid-May, was second with 183 points. Then came Milwaukee's Hank Aaron, 146, and Warren Spahn, 126. Junior Gilliam, another Dodger, rounded out the first five with 103 points.

In all, 32 players received recognition, 11 of them pitchers. Eight Dodgers were named, but Roy Campanella, who got his third MVP award last year, wasn't among them.

Only one rookie was honored in the voting. He is Frank Robinson

Newk Edges Sal Maglie in Ballot

NEW YORK (AP)—Pitchee Don Newcombe, whose 27 victories made him the biggest Brooklyn winner in 32 years, was voted today the Most Valuable Player in the National League for 1956 by the Baseball Writers Assn.

The big right-hander edged out his mound mate Sal Maglie by a scant 41 points. Seven players received first-place nominations by 24 voting writers. Five accumulated more than 100 points.

Not since Hank Sauer nosed out Robin Roberts and Joe Black in a three-way battle for the 1952 award has there been such a close race.

The 30-year-old Newcombe, who lost only seven games all season and but two of his last 20 decisions, topped the list with 223 points. His superb World Series performance — he was knocked out of the box in both starts — did not figure in the balloting.

Aaron Banks 3rd
Maglie, who won 13 games in closing a no-hitter while losing only five after joining the Dodgers in mid-May, was second with 183 points. Then came Milwaukee's Hank Aaron, 146, and Warren Spahn, 126. Junior Gilliam, another Dodger, rounded out the first five with 103 points.

In all, 32 players received recognition, 11 of them pitchers. Eight Dodgers were named, but Roy Campanella, who got his third MVP award last year, wasn't among them.

Only one rookie was honored in the voting. He is Frank Robinson

Pirates Keep Joe L. Brown

PITTSBURGH (AP)—General Manager Joe L. Brown will direct the Pittsburgh Pirates for another year and possibly longer as a reward for his part in the National League club's most successful season in five years.

John Galbreath, Pirate president, announced the signing of Brown Tuesday. Salary terms and length of contract were not revealed.

Galbreath, expressed hope, however, that Brown would remain with the club for many years, saying:

"This past year was a trying and challenging job for Joe and it proved to be a most successful one. I am very well pleased with the recent progress of the Pirates and the Pittsburgh organization."

Brown, 37, was hired last year to succeed Branch Rickey Sr., who remained with the club as board chairman, and advisor, Rickey, lauding Brown's retention, said Tuesday night, however, that he has not had any active role with the Pirates.

Results of Brown's first year in big league baseball showed the Pirates finishing in the black financially for the first time in five years on a home attendance of 949,878 fans — double that of 1955.

Brown's retention was a foregone conclusion as is the retention of Field Manager Bobby Bragan. An announcement on Bragan is expected soon.

Alex Karras Named Lineman Of Week, Idahoans Honored

PHIL McHugh Praised For Action in USC Game
By TED MEIER
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

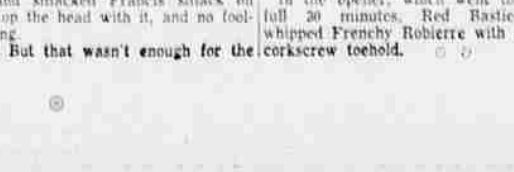

Big Alex Karras, Iowa tackle, was named Associated Press Lineman of the Week Wednesday for his superb play against Ohio State that helped put the Hawkeyes in the Rose Bowl.

The performance of the Gary, Ind., youth in Iowa's 6-0 triumph over the Buckeyes was "outstanding" according to his coach, Forest Evashevski. Alex was shifted to play head on with the OSU center.

"This made him doubly effective," Evashevski said. "He could penetrate from that position and take both sides of the line. He just licked the man playing opposite him. He has exceptional quickness for a 230-pounder."

38-Minute Man
Big Alex played 38 minutes against Ohio State. He led the blocking on Iowa's third period scoring drive when he cleared the way for a first down on the OSU 36. Probably his most spectacular play came on the last play of the game. He broke through and smeared OSU's Jim Roseboro for a nine-yard loss on the Buckeye

Lineman of Week

Don Newcombe Named Most Valuable NL Player in '56

NEW YORK (AP)—Pitchee Don Newcombe, whose 27 victories made him the biggest Brooklyn winner in 32 years, was voted today the Most Valuable Player in the National League for 1956 by the Baseball Writers Assn.

The big right-hander edged out his mound mate Sal Maglie by a scant 41 points. Seven players received first-place nominations by 24 voting writers. Five accumulated more than 100 points.

Not since Hank Sauer nosed out Robin Roberts and Joe Black in a three-way battle for the 1952 award has there been such a close race.

The 30-year-old Newcombe, who lost only seven games all season and but two of his last 20 decisions, topped the list with 223 points. His superb World Series performance — he was knocked out of the box in both starts — did not figure in the balloting.

Aaron Banks 3rd
Maglie, who won 13 games in closing a no-hitter while losing only five after joining the Dodgers in mid-May, was second with 183 points. Then came Milwaukee's Hank Aaron, 146, and Warren Spahn, 126. Junior Gilliam, another Dodger, rounded out the first five with 103 points.

In all, 32 players received recognition, 11 of them pitchers. Eight Dodgers were named, but Roy Campanella, who got his third MVP award last year, wasn't among them.

Only one rookie was honored in the voting. He is Frank Robinson

Newk Edges Sal Maglie in Ballot

NEW YORK (AP)—Pitchee Don Newcombe, whose 27 victories made him the biggest Brooklyn winner in 32 years, was voted today the Most Valuable Player in the National League for 1956 by the Baseball Writers Assn.

The big right-hander edged out his mound mate Sal Maglie by a scant 41 points. Seven players received first-place nominations by 24 voting writers. Five accumulated more than 100 points.

Not since Hank Sauer nosed out Robin Roberts and Joe Black in a three-way battle for the 1952 award has there been such a close race.

The 30-year-old Newcombe, who lost only seven games all season and but two of his last 20 decisions, topped the list with 223 points. His superb World Series performance — he was knocked out of the box in both starts — did not figure in the balloting.

Aaron Banks 3rd
Maglie, who won 13 games in closing a no-hitter while losing only five after joining the Dodgers in mid-May, was second with 183 points. Then came Milwaukee's Hank Aaron, 146, and Warren Spahn, 126. Junior Gilliam, another Dodger, rounded out the first five with 103 points.

In all, 32 players received recognition, 11 of them pitchers. Eight Dodgers were named, but Roy Campanella, who got his third MVP award last year, wasn't among them.

Only one rookie was honored in the voting. He is Frank Robinson

Pirates Keep Joe L. Brown

PITTSBURGH (AP)—General Manager Joe L. Brown will direct the Pittsburgh Pirates for another year and possibly longer as a reward for his part in the National League club's most successful season in five years.

John Galbreath, Pirate president, announced the signing of Brown Tuesday. Salary terms and length of contract were not revealed.

Galbreath, expressed hope, however, that Brown would remain with the club for many years, saying:

"This past year was a trying and challenging job for Joe and it proved to be a most successful one. I am very well pleased with the recent progress of the Pirates and the Pittsburgh organization."

Brown, 37, was hired last year to succeed Branch Rickey Sr., who remained with the club as board chairman, and advisor, Rickey, lauding Brown's retention, said Tuesday night, however, that he has not had any active role with the Pirates.

Results of Brown's first year in big league baseball showed the Pirates finishing in the black financially for the first time in five years on a home attendance of 949,878 fans — double that of 1955.

Brown's retention was a foregone conclusion as is the retention of Field Manager Bobby Bragan. An announcement on Bragan is expected soon.

Alex Karras Named Lineman Of Week, Idahoans Honored

PHIL McHugh Praised For Action in USC Game
By TED MEIER
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Big Alex Karras, Iowa tackle, was named Associated Press Lineman of the Week Wednesday for his superb play against Ohio State that helped put the Hawkeyes in the Rose Bowl.

The performance of the Gary, Ind., youth in Iowa's 6-0 triumph over the Buckeyes was "outstanding" according to his coach, Forest Evashevski. Alex was shifted to play head on with the OSU center.

"This made him doubly effective," Evashevski said. "He could penetrate from that position and take both sides of the line. He just licked the man playing opposite him. He has exceptional quickness for a 230-pounder."

38-Minute Man
Big Alex played 38 minutes against Ohio State. He led the blocking on Iowa's third period scoring drive when he cleared the way for a first down on the OSU 36. Probably his most spectacular play came on the last play of the game. He broke through and smeared OSU's Jim Roseboro for a nine-yard loss on the Buckeye

Lineman of Week

send greetings personally BY LONG DISTANCE

typical low rates from Salem

Medford $.80
Bend60
Astoria50
Eugene45

Station to station rates, not including tax, for 3 minutes after 6 p.m. weekdays and all day Sunday

Next time, say it personally by telephone

Pacific Telephone

FANFARE

