GIRL AVERTS DISASTER

Car Goes Crazy In Hill Traffic

WINDSOR, Conn. (AP)—Down the hill it came, hitting 70 or 75 miles an hour — a car gone crazy.

At the wheel, Cynthia Moran, 17, pounded furiously with her foot on the brake. Her 14-year-old brother David sat frozen to the front seat.

Crowds just a few blocks ahead were crossing Broad Street heading for church. Traffic Patrolman Robert Christensen was directing them across.

Something had happened to the car at the top of the hill. Suddenly the engine had roared up and the car spurted ahead.

Cynthia couldn't stop it. The brakes didn't hold. She couldn't get the gears into neutral. Nothing happened when she turned off the ignition.

She leaned on the horn and turned the car onto the center espanade—a grassy strip dividing north-south lanes on Broad Street.

Patrolman Christensen shouted at the crowds to get out of the way.

Cynthia came to the intersection and by then managed to jam the gears into reverse. The car jolted and spun around, then slammed into Albert Turgeon's car, coming the other way.

Cynthia and her brother jumped out. Turgeon, 67, jumped out of his car.

The cars, hooked bumper to bumper, began to move again — in a slow, crazy circle. Christensen hopped onto the car Cynthia had been driving and pulled the wires from the coil in the engine, stopping it.

Police said they believed the linkage between the gas pedal and the carburetor in Cynthia's car had stuck.

"She did a remarkable job of handling the car," they said.

British Jail Cyprus Girls

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — A British court sentenced two teen-age Cypriot girls to long jail terms Monday for having a homemade bomb. They were the first girls sentenced for such an offense.

Pampitsa Constantinou, 19, was sentenced to seven years and Rita Anthouli, 18, was given two years.

The bomb was found in Miss Constantinou's handbag last month when her car was stopped and searched at a roadblock.

The Greek Cypriot rebels meanwhile renewed their bombing attacks on the British after a week of quiet.

Three British soldiers were wounded and two military vehicles were damaged in two bomb attacks Sunday.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Operation Teen-ager — aimed at cutting down the high incidence of polio among Arizona's youngsters — starts tomorrow with the first of a series of citywide mass vaccinations. It is the first such program in the nation.

Dr. Clarence G. Salsbury, state health commissioner, said some 5,000 students at Phoenix Union High School will be the first to receive the free shots. Later, some 15,000 youngsters at 23 schools in Phoenix and Maricopa County will be eligible to participate.

Free shots will be given to anyone from 6 months to 19 years, but the main objective is teenagers.

Norstad Says NATO Might Deters Soviet

VALLETTA, Malta (AP) — Gen. Lauris Norstad, new supreme Allied commander in Europe, Monday said NATO's strength is "so great that war is unlikely except as a matter of accident or misunderstanding."

Speaking at a news conference during a 14-hour tour of this British island base, he added that "part of the deterrent to war with Russia is the Soviet's knowledge of the magnitude of the destruction which our forces can wreak on the other side."

Asked whether NATO nations would go to the aid of Turkey if attacked, Norstad replied: "Yes. We are agreed to go to the assistance of any member nation who is attacked."

White, Negro Churches End Segregation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two large Protestant congregations, separated by hundreds of miles and varying traditions, have lowered racial barriers to permit integration in their churches — one all white, the other all Negro.

In Minneapolis, the fashionable Hennepin Avenue Methodist Church opened its doors to members of a small Negro Methodist church which is to be torn down to make way for a redevelopment project.

And in the South, an all-Negro Baptist church in Louisville, Ky., has admitted 13 white persons to its congregations.

A delegation from the all-white, 4,000-member Methodist church in Minneapolis yesterday told members of Border Negro Methodist Church, "We invite you with sincere warmth." They said the Negroes need not decide immediately whether to accept.

Dr. Stanley Coors, Minnesota Methodist bishop, said the invitation was a "proposal of Christian love and fellowship."

The integration move in Louisville was believed to be the first by a Baptist church in Kentucky since slavery days.

The 13 white persons joined the Zion Baptist Church in the past month and the pastor, the Rev. D. E. King, said they "seem to be enjoying themselves."

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Premier Adnan Menderes says Turkey has no aggressive designs on any country and wants only "peace, security, and stability."

Menderes spoke Sunday at the inauguration of the big Sarayar hydroelectric plant and dam near Ankara. His statement followed Syria's complaint Saturday to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold that Syria was threatened by "preparation for armed aggression against her" by Britain, France, Israel, and Turkey.

REDS FREE SCAPEGOATS

HONG KONG (AP) — The Hanoi Radio in Communist North Viet Nam says nearly all party members "wrongly condemned" in connection with the land reform program have been released from prison. The announcement follows an earlier broadcast acknowledging belatedly a farmers' uprising late last month. An undetermined number were killed when the revolt was crushed by Red troops.

Israel Plans New Pipeline

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP) —The laying of a new pipeline to carry crude oil north from the Gulf of Aquaba is due to begin this week.

The eight-inch line will move oil 150 miles from Eilat, Israel's southernmost port, to Beersheba. From there the oil can be transported by rail to Haifa refineries.

This will facilitate direct imports from the Persian Gulf without requiring passage through the Suez Canal. It may also make Israel less dependent on imports from Venezuela.

Sinatra Ill; 2 Shows Missed

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Frank Sinatra's press agent says the singer is resting at home with muscular pains in the neck and back that kept him from appearing on two television programs.

One was Jackie Gleason's TV tribute Saturday night to Senatra's onetime boss, bandleader Tommy Dorsey, who died last Monday.

The other was Ed Sullivan's show last night on which Sinatra was to have accepted a movie magazine's award as an entertainer.

Singer Doris Day, similarly honored among women performers, accepted Sinatra's award as well as her own.
