US Holds Olympic Team Lead

Yankee Women Shining

Aussies Defeat Yankee Men In Relay

By TED SMITS

MELBOURNE (AP) — Australia's powerful 800-meter freestyle relay team beat Uncle Sam's men swimmers out of Monday's only Olympic gold medal as American women advanced in the diving and swimming competition with brilliant performances in qualifying competition.

The American men finished second to the Aussies in the relay event with Russia third and picked up one point in the unofficial team standings.

At the close of the day, the United States still held the lead over Russia in the unofficial point standings, 488-419½ after a readjustment in the wrestling points but the Russians were gaining in the women's gymnastic events, where Russia was first and Hungary second after the first day's competition.

Pat Leads Diving

A trio of beautiful American girls, led by Mrs. Pat McCormick of Lakewood, Calif., a double champion in 1952, led the field in the women's springboard diving event.

Shelley Mann of Arlington, Va. broke the world's record with a one minute 11.2 seconds victory in a qualifying heat in the 100-meter butterfly event and two American girls, Carin Cone of of Ridgewood, N.J., and Margaret Edwards of Portland, Ore., moved into the finals in the 100-meter backstroke event.

Australia's great men's relay team set a new world's record of 8:23.6, with the United States second in 8:31.5 and Russia clocked in 8:36.7. The Olympic mark was set by the U.S. in 1952 at 8:31.1.

Mrs. McCormick, who won both the platform and springboard diving crowns at Helsinki in 1952, let all the way in the qualifying competition for women in the springboard event. She scored an impressive total of 76.80 points in six dives. Canada's Irene MacDonald was second with 75.26.

Barbara Gilders of Detroit, a 19-year-old diver from the Detroit Athletic Club, was third, with 71.67 points and Joanne Stunyo, a 20-year-old University of Detroit student from Gary, Ind., was fourth with 71.02.

Two Oregonians Win Qualifying Olympic Efforts

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — The two remaining Oregon athletes in the Olympic Games won Monday. Maureen Murphy in qualifying heats in swimming and Dale Thomas in the first round of wrestling.

Miss Murphy, Portland schoolgirl who has been the star of the Multnomah Athletic Club swimming team, qualified in the 100-meter backstroke for the semi-finals which will be held Tuesday.

Thomas, member of the Oregon State College athletic department staff, took his first light-heavyweight match in Greco-Roman wrestling with a fall in 7:15 minutes over Eugene Weinberger of Austria. Next matches are Tuesday.

Miss Murphy's time in the 100-meter backstroke was 1:14.4. She placed fourth in the heat in which Margaret Edwards of England set a new Olympic record of 1:12.6.

Clem Labine's only World Series start also marked the first time he had pitched to innings in the big leagues. He beat the Yankees 1-0 for the Dodgers in the sixth game of the 1956 Series.

Scio Yell Leaders Happy After Win

Scio basketball rooters were probably the happiest in the state Saturday night after they won the Marion County B league jamboree award for the best yelling section. Their four yell girls, Mary Brock, Kay Thayer, Boris Morgan and Nancy Thurston, were full of joy after receiving the award. The Scio team edged Sublimity, 22-18, to help the North beat the South. Staudinger, Smith Lead C-J Bowling

2nd Round Ends; 3rd Round to Pick Finals

By BESS VALDEZ
Capital Journal Bowling Editor

Bert Staudinger and Barbara Smith topped the second round of the annual Capital Journal—Capitol Lanes Singles Elimination and the second round of the tournament drew to a close at the Capitol last night.

Staudinger shot 267 in his four game effort and Bart checked in with 622 as both advanced to the third round. Mary Polinsky was pressing Bart and her 622 as she tallied 615 to advance to the third round while Frank Johnson totaled 577 to secure place behind Staudinger. Nine men and four women were scratched as the result of the second round.

Women Lead Way

The men did not start too well in the second round but the ladies were little short of sizzling in their efforts. Bessie Hou shot 646 for the three games but he was against champion Del Olney with 638. Those two were eliminated as were Ruth Cumming here with her 540 and Marge Epperly with her 536.

Jeanne Bart and Mary in the third round in quest of one of the four final positions will be Myrtle Dunn with 580, Marilyn Reese with 568 and Alma Penny with 560. All five of the gals advancing to the third round are members of the upper crust in Salem women's bowling circles.

Joining Staudinger and Johnson in advancing to the final round in quest for the six positions in the finals were a total of eleven men. Those qualifying and their scores: Lyle Anderson, the defending champion, 611; Walt Gardner 607, Joe Bovis 606, Bob Dyar 601, Joe Farrar 601, Lim Lazwell 597, Ben Mayo 578, Vern Turner 578 and Jess Ewing 575.

Those eliminated were Jimmy Lewis 735, Harry Ranger 731, Frank Kelton 725, Fred Whittaker 719, Ralph Sommers 698, Jess Clark 697 and three men who did not bowl their second round for Lake Dove Landlair and Ed Lange.

All third round scores must be posted by midnight Sunday to get on with the finals scheduled for Sunday, December 16th. Trophies will be awarded to the champion with all finalists receiving prizes on the small entry fee this year as pretty well eliminates the possibility of round prizes.

Evans in 72nd Spot at Chicago

CHICAGO (Special) — Frank Evans, Salem, Ore., stood in 72nd place in the All-Star tournament here Sunday after shooting to a 6-game 1020 score after a fine opening round.

Evans, running into rail trouble and misses on his second day here, managed to total 2179 for 12 games. Saturday he scored 1249 but the two-day total was far down the list in the 90 of the 158 male contestants who had finished shooting.

The Oregon bowler had 16 open frames Sunday, including nine rails and five misses.

Action Hot in Jamboree

Twelve valley B schools gave fans a lot of action Saturday night in the Marion County B league jamboree. Here in the Falls City-Chemawa game, Chemawa's Jim Reitsteg (10) and Falls City's Larry Ladle fight for the ball while Ellery Broncho (3), Chemawa, and Jim Wheeler (4), Roy Carver (5) and Bob Stephenson (10) come into the action. Falls City won, 35-5. (Capital Journal Photo)

Jefferson Appears Strong in Marion B

Jamboree Score Close Among 12 Teams

The Marion County B league should have a good basketball race this season if the boys in 12 teams play as tight as they did Saturday when the "North" [illegible] the "South" 22-18 in their annual jamboree at Willamette.

Valsetz, the lone guest team in the 12-club field, almost upset the applecart for the South by whacking Santiam 29-4 in the night's lone game. The North has been ruling an easy roof since the first game, but the outcome wasn't decided until the final buzzer.

Three teams from each side were winners in the 10-minute contests. Jefferson and Dallas, Oregon School for Deaf and S. Paul and Scio edged S. Pontiac for the North. McLaren was over Perrydale and Falls City won over Chemawa added to the South victories.

Jeff Looks Strong

Jefferson, last year's league champion, again showed it may be the team to beat. Its 56-6 win over Dallas was the easiest of the evening. Ivan Johnson, 6-7 Valsetz center, took scoring honors with 12 points.

The award for the best rooting section went to Scio with Chemawa featuring a cheer leader-ette mascot in feathers who helped, a close second.

Eight of the teams go into action early this week. Tuesday's games in Scio at Jefferson Sublimity at Chemawa, Valsetz at McLaren, Gates at Perrydale and Dallas at S. Paul. A Wednesday game has Gervais at Santiam.
