

Holiday Glamor Starts at the Top This Year

White Christmas—White ermine bonnet veiled in black Chantilly lace, designed for gala wear by Sally Victor.

Flower Wig—Made entirely of multi-color flower petals, this headliner fits head snugly, covering the hair.

Once upon a time, in the very recent past, you couldn't be sure whether a woman was wearing a hat or not, especially after five. A band, a flower and a scrap of veil could double for a hat at almost any function.

This season there is no doubt about it—hats are hats, and the more spectacular the better. Milliner Sally Victor creates a fantasia of holiday headgear ranging from fur bonnets to flower wigs, saying:

"The whole idea is to make women look prettier—and this year's hats can do the job." Mame Eisenhower's favorite milliner, the small, energetic and sparkling Mrs. Victor covers the full range of glamorous toppers, using all varieties of luxury furs, jewels, flowers, velvets, satins and feathers for the greater glorification of her customers. The hats are high, wide and handsome—and there's a silhouette for every type. (AP Newsfeatures)

TALBOT (Special)—Miss Ardis Bell Brown, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wied, was wed to Robert M. Blanchard, of Waldport, at Talbot Community church Saturday, November 24, at 3 p.m. The Rev.
