

WILLETTE NOTES

Varied Activities for Campus Groups Reported

By LUCY MYERS
Capital Journal Correspondent

Willamette University students participating in the Western Association Forensic Tournament in Stockton, Calif., last week were rated semi-finalist or first in extemporaneous speaking.

Bright and Pat Farley reached the semi-finals in debate. Farley advanced to the semi-finals in this event.

Approximately 375 pints of blood donated by Willamette students and faculty in the campus drive. Contributions from men totaled 243 pints, while women gave 132. Final results not tabulated until after regular Salem drawing December 8.

Scheduled students in acting and directing combine forces and present a series of seven one-act plays to town and Friday. Performances are in the Little Theater, on the second floor of the Fine Arts building beginning at 7 o'clock each evening.

Tomorrow evening the plays will be "The Blue Tie," directed by George Nelson, "Turn Down an Eye," directed by Fred Gambers, and "Frances and the Circus," directed by Mac Baker. Today evening's program will be "Saturday Evening," directed by Ann Snow, "Fortune is a Cow-

Wed November 30—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Garr (Mary Miller), above, were married November 30. The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Fount Miller and Mr. Garr is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garr of Newport. The wedding was in Keizer Community church. (Joe Tompkins picture) boy," directed by Ken Renshaw, "Rouge Atomique," directed by Maggie Magone, and "The Woman Who Understood Men," directed by Lois Wickham.

Mozart's Requiem, originally scheduled to be presented tonight by the University choir and orchestra, has been postponed until next Wednesday evening. The performance, which will be in the Fine Arts auditorium at 8:15, is Willamette's contribution to the international celebration of the 200th anniversary of Mozart's birth. Soloists for the presentation are Clorinda Topping, soprano; Marjorie Stapp, alto; Melvin Geist, tenor, and Don Glecker, baritone.

Aid Hungarians
Voluntary contributions to the World University Service which were collected in the Thursday chapel before Thanksgiving to aid Hungarian student refugees amounted to $142.84. At present, UNESCO is working on the possibility of bringing Hungarian students to the Willamette campus.

Tom Lovell, sophomore, was selected by the Senior Cadet Battalion as cadet of the month for November. He was selected on the drill field by his command ability, proficiency at drill, and military appearance.

Recently elected president of Pi Gamma Mu, national social science honorary, is Doug Houser. Paul Edwards is vice-president; Lou Ann Mergler, secretary; and Barbara Goodier, treasurer.

Christmas stockings, and table centerpieces will be on display.

Mrs. A. M. Zahare is in charge of the tea table and Mrs. Nettie Wright is chairman of the hostess committee.

Everyone is invited and there is no admittance. Hours are 1 to 9 the afternoon on Saturday, December 8 and from 1 to 7 on Sunday.

LEBANON (Special) — Celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bart Borrow.

They were married in November, 1931, at Alvdore, Ore., and have lived in Lebanon for seven years.

Store cold bread in tightly covered container overnight before slicing.

'Pops' Series Set By Portland Symphony

A "Pops" series will be inaugurated this spring by the Portland Symphony orchestra, Lawrence C. Shaw, president of the Portland Symphony society has announced. The orchestra, with Theodore Bloomfield conducting, will perform light and popular music befitting the name "Pops." Both wings will have tables set up in them and the wings will be kept open during the performance so that people may have refreshments during the performance and at intermissions.

These concerts have been made possible by groups in the city taking blocks of seats on the main floor and selling them at a moderate price on a benefit basis. Tickets not disposed of in this manner will be on sale to the public before each concert.

Dates already set will be March 18, a Pops night with the Oregon Federation of Music clubs, the Oregon Music Teachers association, the Oregon State Employees' association, the Portland Postal Supervisors association, the Portland Federation of Women's organizations and other interested groups taking part, and April 12, "April in Paris 'ops Night'" sponsored by the Portland Symphony women's committee.

Have Perspiration Stains Ever Ruined Your Dress?

New ARRID with PERSTOP® Stops Perspiration Stains—Stops Odor

DRAMATIC STEAMBATH TEST SHOWS HOW

This woman was put in a steam bath at 104 degrees. Arrid with Perstop® was rubbed into her forehead. Fifteen minutes later...

... she was dripping with perspiration—but Arrid with Perstop® kept her forehead dry. Arrid will do the same for your underarms, too.

Just rub Arrid in—rub perspiration out. Rub Arrid in—rub odor out. When the cream vanishes you know you're safe even on hot, sticky days.

Proved 1 1/2 Times as Effective

Arrid with Perstop®, used daily, keeps your clothes safe from ugly stains, keeps your underarms dry, soft and sweet.

Arrid with Perstop® is 1 1/2 times as effective as all leading deodorants tested against perspiration and odor.

So... don't be half-safe. Be completely safe. Use new Arrid with Perstop® to be sure. 43¢ plus tax.
