

U.P. Editors Rate Hungary Revolt Biggest 1956 News

NEW YORK (UP)—Revolt in Hungary was the biggest news story of 1956. And 1956 was the biggest news year since the outbreak of the Korean War. That is the opinion of editors of United Press client newspapers who cast ballots in a country-wide poll.

The editors made their selections from a list of 36 big events nominated in his weekly letter to client editors by Earl J. Johnson, U.P. vice president and general news manager.

The Suez crisis was voted the number two story of the year and the re-election of President Eisenhower was number three.

"When we began writing down entries for the ballot we realized what an uncommonly big news year 1956 had been," Johnson said. "Dozens of stories on the list which would have qualified for the first ten in other years got only a handful of votes. An example is what happened Aug. 7 in Cali, Colombia. A fleet of trucks laden with dynamite blew up in the middle of the city, killing 1,200 persons. But so many other 'world-shakers' happened before and after Cali that we forgot the incident ourselves until it turned up in our chronology of events."

Johnson pointed out the wide range of subject matter of the stories. In a year of wars, revolutions and disasters a romance—plinary march and the sentencing of Sergeant McKeon 656; 7. Violence in the South over school integration 581; 8. Wedding of Prince Rainier and Grace Kelly 482; 9. Don Larsen's perfect World Series game 394; 10. Soviet downgrading of Josef Stalin 349.

The next three runners-up were: The kidnaping of Peter Weinberger; the blinding of Victor Riesel and the rioting in Poland.

Editors of United Press client newspapers abroad now are being polled on their choices of the ten biggest stories. Early returns indicate the lists for Europe, South America and Asia will vary considerably from the selections made by American editors.
