

24 Persons to Get Citizenship Papers

Reception Slated December 27 At YMCA

Seventeen residents of Salem and seven from nearby communities will be honored with a dinner and reception in recognition of their having become United States citizens, Dec. 27 at the Y.M.C.A. The 24 persons were given their final interviews Monday and then appeared before Circuit Judge George R. Duncan for a brief address. Judge Duncan will be a special guest at the dinner as will be Attorney General Robert V. Thornton, chairman of the YMCA education committee, and County Clerk Henry C. Mattson. The latter will

3 in Court on Forgery Count

Three cases involving forgery and one dealing with larceny were disposed of by Circuit Judge George R. Duncan in Marion county circuit court Monday afternoon. Sentenced to two years in prison was Arlo Verdel Erickson, Scotts Mills, who had pleaded guilty to forging the Frank McLaughlin home. Donald F. Schultz, Crabtree, will be sentenced Dec. 24 on a charge of forgery involving a $22.50 check. Entering innocent pleas to forgery charges were Donald William Schnee and Charles LeRoy Armstrong. Both cases were continued for trial.

Mrs. Ina Mark Succumbs Here

Mrs. Ina Mark, 80, a resident of Oregon for the past 19 years, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vera Felker, 3215 River Bend Rd. She had been suffering from cancer. Mrs. Mark was born Feb. 21, 1876, in Shelbyville, Ill., and after coming to Oregon lived for about two years with her daughter. The remainder of the time she lived in Oregon City. Her maiden name was Ina Isabel Middlesworth. She was married in 1898 in North Dakota to William Mark who died in 1949. In addition to Mrs. Felker, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Lola Blanchette, San Francisco; four sons, Lee, Oakland, Calif.; Glen, Oregon City; Roy and Nile, San Francisco; a brother, Floyd Middlesmith, Monroe, Wash., and 13 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Hillside chapel in Oregon City. The Rev. Clark Enz will officiate and interment will be in Mt. View cemetery in Oregon City. Services were arranged by the Oregon City Funeral home.
