

2nd Arsonist Puts Torch to Two Churches

TRENTON, N.J. — Another hunt was under way Friday for a church burglar in this state capital. Two more blazes broke out in churches Thursday less than three hours after a man was jailed on arson and murder charges in five earlier church fires.

Police reinforcements have been called in and plainclothesmen posted at as many churches as possible in an effort to trap the firebug at work or prevent another in the bizarre series of fires.

The Rt. Rev. Michael Zaparyniuk, priest at the Holy Trinity Ukrainian Orthodox Church, grappled with a man he saw running from his burning church Thursday night and noted part of the license number of the car in which the man escaped.

Within 40 minutes, a fire broke out in the altar boys' sacristy of St. Peter and Paul Roman Catholic Church with damage estimated unofficially by police at $750.

Police said both fires were started by an arsonist. They were brought under control within minutes.

Elmer Cooper Lucas, 40-year-old part-time bakery truck driver, is being held in Mercer County jail without bail on charges of arson and murder.

Police say he has admitted setting four church fires early last Sunday and the blaze last March 11 at St. Mary's Roman Catholic cathedral which took the lives of Msgr. Richard T. Crean and two housekeepers.

'SANTA' ROBS COUPLE. WEST HAVEN, Conn. — Police said Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Johnson were eating supper when a man came to the door with a Christmas package. He told Johnson he had a present for Mrs. Johnson, so Johnson let him in, and led him to the kitchen. The man put down the package, whipped out an automatic and robbed the couple of $22.

Newspaper at KF Drops Its 'Joy' Issues

KLAMATH FALLS — Readers of the Herald and News this week will be able to learn of unhappiness and cruelty and bloodshed, if there is any, without turning to inside pages.

This has not been so in other years in the week before Christmas.

The Herald and News experimented two years ago and again last year with restricting page one to cheerful news; news in keeping with the Christmas spirit.

But not this year. "The best news we can offer the reader during the duration of the perilous world situation that faces us this Christmas," said Bill Jenkins, managing editor, "will be an objective job of reporting the news of international import. Maybe the news that will be most appreciated will be those headlines that tell the reader that we are not yet at war."

But, said Jenkins, "this is not an admission of defeat. We plan to go back to the cheerful spirit as soon as world conditions will permit us to do so honestly."

K. C. Leader Protests Ike Bid to Tito

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Luke E. Hart, supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus, protested Friday to President Eisenhower against a reported administration plan to invite Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia to the United States.

The head of the Catholic fraternal organization said in a telegram to Eisenhower:

"Nothing else that your administration might do would be so disappointing or would so grievously offend our more than 30 million Catholics and a large proportion of others."

Both in the telegram to Eisenhower and a letter to Secretary of State Dulles, Hart referred to Tito as the "jailer of Archbishop Stepinac, the persecutor of religion, the tyrant of Yugoslavia and the accomplice of the butchers of Budapest."

"World politics or power politics, or what have you," Hart wrote, "should not be served by this country extending a welcome to Tito. On the contrary, much harm would result."

Hart urged Knights of Columbus groups to draft resolutions of protest and forward them to Eisenhower and Dulles.

Singer Johnnie Ray Says He Thinks Presley's Fine

By MIKE FORBES (Capital Journal Valley Editor)

FRUITLAND (Special)—Wing weary Johnnie Ray, Dallas dream singer, flew back home Thursday from Miami, Fla., for his first Christmas reunion in six years.

And with him he brought his third gold record, an honor conferred a troubled flight from the east. Johnnie won his upon any star whose record sells a million copies.

Third Gold Record "Walking in the Rain." And he got soaking wet in the rain that hit Salem Thursday while he finished his Christmas shopping.

A grand welcome from his family awaited the singer when he arrived at Portland airport after a 12-hour flight from the east. The plane was 2 1/2 hours late because of adverse weather conditions west of Chicago.

At the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Ray in Fruitland, Johnnie found the house cluttered with gifts from all over the world, a reminder of his recent world tour. There were gifts, cards and fan letters from all over the world and throughout the United States.

Kick to Be Home "Buy, this sure is a big kick to be home again," Johnnie told his parents as he looked about the house and noted the renovated living room with a new, large picture window. With him as a guest was Stan Hoppert, a member of the staff of Harper's Bazaar of New York. They expect to remain at the Ray's family home in Fruitland until after Christmas.

"What about this singer Elvis Presley?" Johnnie was asked. "I think Presley is fine," Johnnie said. "I think it's about time some new talent came along. There always is room for new, good talent. I like him."

State Police Shifted Into Road Patrol

All available state police will be transferred to highway patrol over the Christmas holidays for what could be the worst single four-day traffic accident period this year in Oregon.

Six persons already had been killed in pre-holiday traffic since yesterday.

State police headquarters here said officers' days off were being cancelled and, where possible, men transferred from other assignments to guard the highways.

Last year, when the holiday consisted of three days, seven persons were killed and 203 injured in 633 Christmas-time accidents.

State Police Superintendent H.G. Maison reminded drivers that the "big job of accident prevention will rest with each individual who drives."

Maison said anyone who drinks and then drives faces arrest, which could result in a stiff fine and jail sentence as well as a mandatory suspension of driver's license for at least 90 days.

The Oregon Traffic Safety Commission said that last Christmas weekend, drinking drivers were involved in nearly 55 per cent of the fatal accidents although normally they are involved in less than half of such mishaps.

Instruments Record B.C. Coast Quake

SEATTLE — A strong earthquake, recorded in seismographs across the nation, was believed to have centered early Friday near the Queen Charlotte Islands, off the northern British Columbia coast.

The University of Washington estimated it centered at sea, about 480 miles north of Seattle. He described it as "a very strong tremor."

It was recorded similarly at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena. The first wave was recorded in Seattle at 1:00:36 a.m., 2 minutes and 30 seconds before the first Pasadena needle quiver.

Neumann said the shock waves continued for about an hour and a half.

The Canadian Press correspondent at Queen Charlotte City, a village near the center of the islands, reported residents there did not feel any tremors during the night.

Little Chance of Refugees Coming To Salem Area

There was little prospect that any of the new contingent of Hungarian refugees, due in Portland Friday, will be assigned to Salem area sponsors, Ernest Brewer, coordinator for the Oregon Committee for Hungarian Refugees, told the Capital Journal Friday.

Brewer said the refugees were coming into Oregon so rapidly the funds of the committee are becoming depleted, although the new group will be taken care of. He indicated that the new group, like the others that have come into the state, will be assigned to Portland area families.

Presley Howl Follows Carol

ALBANY, Ore. — Christmas carols sounded out over the business heart of Albany in the traditional manner Thursday. One of them ended when the next started, shoppers halted in dismay. It was Elvis Presley rendering that un-Christmas number, "You Ain't Nuthin' But a Hound Dog."

By the time civic leaders reached the location of the record player, the Presley number had been going out over the city some 10 minutes.

The changer, which normally shifts from one record to another, had been jammed and the Presley record played over and over.

There was no report of who had done it.

Industrialist And Daughter Shot to Death

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UP) — A prominent local industrialist and his daughter were shot to death in their home here today and two other persons were critically wounded in the mysterious shooting.

Sheriff Dan Tehan said Lester Aue, 54, vice president of the Drackett Co., and his daughter, Sue, 17, were killed.

Critically wounded were Mrs. Helen Aue, 50, wife and mother of the slain pair, and Gordon Pape, 19, Sue's friend and classmate at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

The sheriff said Pape, fully clothed, and Sue, dressed in night clothing, were found in the girl's bedroom. A pistol was nearby.

Pape reached the house only a few minutes before the shooting. Aue was in the master bedroom. Mrs. Aue was lying at the foot of the stairs leading to the second floor bedrooms. She had been shot in the chest. Authorities said the wound indicated the bullet was fired from a downward angle.

Joanna Jones, a maid, told police the shooting occurred just before 9 a.m. She said that Pape reached the house about that time. She said she was at work in the basement, heard the shooting, and went upstairs where she found the dead and wounded.

Officials Mourn Death of Toozee

Gov. Elmo Smith and other high state officials expressed sorrow today over the death of Justice Walter L. Toozee.

The governor reserved his first condolences for the family saying Judge Toozee was "an able lawyer and jurist."

He said no successor would be appointed until after the funeral. State Treasurer Sig Unander said Toozee's death was "a tragic loss to Oregon."

"My most earnest sympathies go out to the family at this time," Unander said.

Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry said he was "deeply shocked at the news of his passing."

"I always regarded him as one of the most outstanding justices Oregon has ever produced," Newberry stated. "He was a man of tremendous ability who had a host of friends."

"He endeared people to him from all walks of life because of his sincere approach to their problems," the secretary concluded.

Jordan Seeks Dag Report on Sinai Pullout

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — Jordan called on Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold Friday to report at once to the General Assembly on the progress of Israel's withdrawal from the Gaza Strip and Sinai Peninsula.

Jordan's Abdel Monem Rifa'i accused Israel of refusing to comply with the Assembly's call for withdrawal behind the 1949 armistice line. He spoke as the 80-nation body began debate on the Middle East crisis despite precautionary urgings from Hammarskjold and the United States.

Rifa'i expressed hope Hammarskjold could have his report on hand before the Christmas recess begins this weekend so that the Assembly could take appropriate action.

Earlier, Syria's Farid Zeldindine accused France and Britain of "collusion" with Israel in invading Egypt. He called for a U.N. probe to prove such a link.

The Middle East debate began anew Thursday night when France's Valery Giscard d'Estaing brought in fresh charges that French nationals had been beaten and imprisoned in Egypt.

U. S. Delegate James J. Wadsworth appealed to the Assembly to bring "this phase of discussion" to a quick end for fear it would touch off a lengthy, heated debate. At the same time, however, Wadsworth supported charges brought by France and Britain that their nationals had been mistreated and subjected to deportations from Egypt.

The State Department said that so far there have been no solid developments in the hunt for Gerald Lester Murphy, 23, a former co-pilot for the Dominican airline.

Pilot Search Clues Lacking

WASHINGTON — The Dominican government and the American embassy at Ciudad Trujillo are continuing, without success up to Friday, the search for a Eugene, Ore., man missing since Dec. 2.

The State Department said that so far there have been no solid developments in the hunt for Gerald Lester Murphy, 23, a former co-pilot for the Dominican airline.

The young man disappeared the afternoon of Dec. 3 and his automobile later was found abandoned on a street in the Dominican capital.

His father is reported to have gone to the Dominican Republic to help in the search.

St. George, Bermuda, is believed to be the oldest English-speaking community in the Western Hemisphere. It was founded in 1612, eight years before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock.

PTT Increase Up to Heltzel

The question of a 7 per cent rate increase, asked by Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. was before Charles Heltzel, public utilities commissioner, Friday.

The three-day hearing on the company's request, which would add $3,200,000 to its annual revenues, was completed Thursday afternoon with presentation of a detailed accounting report.

Heltzel can grant all, part, or none of the requested increase.

The company said additional earnings were necessary to finance improvements.

Mail Service Moves Swiftly

Delivery service out of the Salem post office has been operating so smoothly during the current holiday rush that all parcel post matter is being delivered the day of receipt.

This was indicated Friday as the result of an inspection of the temporary warehouse being used on South Liberty street for incoming parcel post matter.

Cross-country time is fairly normal, with packages being mailed at points east of Chicago reaching Salem in less than a week in most instances.

Cancellation of outgoing letter mail has decreased to some extent. Thursday's cancellations totalled 153,153, bringing the total to 2,259,041 for the month.

No Youths in TB Hospital

There will be no Christmas for teen agers at the state tuberculosis hospital this year.

The reason? There are none there any more.

Authorities at the hospital report that for the first time in many years there are no children of school age on the patient list.

It was not long ago that the service of two full-time teachers were required to instruct the children who were hospital patients. The number was reduced to one last year and since then to a half time instructor. With no children to teach she has been given other duties.
