

Miss Stegeman Bride-elect

LEBANON (Special) —Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Stegeman have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Lynn Stegeman, to Charles C. Langmack, son of Col. and Mrs. Charles J. Langmack of Lebanon.

Miss Stegeman is a former student of Providence School of Nursing in Portland and Mr. Langmack is majoring in pre-dentistry at Lewis and Clark college.

Formal announcement of the engagement was made in late December at a dinner for the two families at Melody Lane.

XI LAMBDA chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority met for a buffet dinner in the Marion hotel Wednesday night preceding the annual city-wide meeting for all chapters at the YWCA. Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers showed pictures from their recent European trip at the city meeting. Next meeting for the chapter will be January 20 at the home of Mrs. C. L. Mink.

MOVING this week to the new rectory for St. Paul's Episcopal church are the Rev. and Mrs. George H. Swift. The rectory adjoins the church grounds on South High and is the former Arthur Erickson home, the Ericksons moving to the Bradley Burkland home on Candalaria Heights.

HOSTESS to her bridge club on Tuesday night was Mrs. F. W. Poorman, entertaining the group for dinner and cards.

Spring Bonnets — Millinery Institute of America is coming forth with this display of creations for spring hats. Fran Miller, upper left, designs a sports stitched silk chiffon planter in navy dots on white with navy chiffon draped band. Daphne Dure, upper right, has dots before eyes from society suitor of poppy red French chiffon with black felt poker chip dotted drape. Lower left is another headpiece worn by Fran Miller, a cocoon cloche of gray and white petitpurl straw, white straw daisy with rhinestone center and yellow velvet leaf. Hiske Forsyth, lower right, wears a bloused crown bonnet of white organdy with black velvet streamer laced through eyelid embroidery. (AP Wirephotos)

Woodburn Couple Observe Anniversary

WOODBURN (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Cason, Woodburn, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, December 29, with a reception from 2 to 8 p.m. in the social room of St. Mary's Episcopal church in Woodburn.

Present to honor the golden-weds were about 140 friends and relatives coming from Seattle and many parts of Oregon.

Cutting and serving the wedding cake was Miss Bertha Van Cleave. Solo, and at the urns were Mrs. Mabel Morley, Salem, and Mrs. Lillian Anundson, Silverton. Miss Lois VanCleave, Salem, was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Cason were married January 2, 1907, in Salem. They have one daughter, Mrs. Edna Johnson, Bay City, three grandchildren and two great grandchildren, all of whom were present for the anniversary except one grandson who is in the army, stationed in Hawaii. Oldest guest present was Mrs. Avi Conroy, 84, Dallas, and the youngest was Nancy Schwenke, about three months old.

JEFFERSON (Special) — Married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hutchings, Monday at 6 p.m. were Miss Mary Etta Perry, of Marion county, and Malcolm R. Scarborough, of Mercer county, New Jersey.

Mrs. Rufus Perry and Mrs. Marvin Hutchings witnessed the ceremony performed by Judge Marvin Hutchings.
