

Camp Fire Meeting Set In Salem

Once again Salem is to be the host city for the annual dinner meeting of the Willamette council of the Camp Fire Girls, Inc. The dinner will be at Randall's Chuck Wagon next Monday, January 21, at 7 p.m.

Annual reports and the election of the council officers for 1937 will comprise the business for the meeting. Those present for the dinner will be all adult members of the Willamette Area council of the Camp Fire Girls, and their husbands and wives. The group includes leaders, sponsors of groups, assistant leaders, district committee members, and council members from the four counties, Benton, Linn, Marion, and Polk, which comprise the Willamette council. Also invited to attend will be staff members of other United Fund-supported agencies, and Governor-elect and Mrs. Robert D. Holmes. Special guests of the council will be local Camp Fire Girls who have earned two or more Torchbearer ranks who will be hosting and assisting with the installation of new officers during the evening. The main speaker of the evening will be Secretary of State Mark O. Hatfield.

"Together We Make Tomorrow," which is the 1937 "birthday theme" and a special project for the Camp Fire Girls, will be carried out in the decorations, and will also be the subject of the speaker's talk.

The committee in charge of the program and arrangements was appointed by council president, Burton Hutton of Corvallis. This committee includes Mrs. Marvin Holland, Mrs. W. E. Gardner, and Allen Stevens, all of Salem.

Salem Blue Bird Camp Fire, and Horizon club groups will be busy assisting with the decorating and the making of the centerpieces. Groups of girls from all four of the counties will make murals, mobiles and name tags.

Through courtesy of Meier & Frank's-Salem there will be a display of Blue Bird, Camp Fire, and Horizon club supplies and equipment.

Miss Dunham Wed At Recent Rites

JEFFERSON (Special) — The marriage of Miss Delores Dunham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunham, to George Burleson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Burleson, was solemnized in the Dunham home Saturday, December 29 at 2 p.m. The Rev. Mervin McGill read the double ring service in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon dress of white brocade taffeta with white accessories. She carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

The fireplace was banked with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and stock and candles. Lighting the candles was Karen Dunham, sister of the bride. She wore a gold colored crystalettte afternoon dress.

Mrs. Gordon Turnidge sang, accompanied by Miss Carol McDermott.

Mrs. Shirley Cobine was matron of honor. She was attired in a blue sheath dress with matching shoes and white hat and carried a bouquet of red roses.

A reception followed the ceremony. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Jack Earnest, Portland. Mrs. Imogene Riddle poured the punch and Mrs. Donella, Portland, the coffee. Miss Barbara Jean Hart presided at the guest book.

Following a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will make their home in Salem. Mrs. Burleson is employed at the Salem telephone office and Burleson is employed at the M. M. Woodworking plant in Albany. Both were graduates of Jefferson high school.

Shaub-Knight

DALLAS (Special)—Mrs. Mabel Knight, San Diego, Calif., and George W. Shaub, Dallas, were married recently at an 8 o'clock ceremony at the home of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Kenneth Willis, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, read the service.

Mrs. Walter Girten, Vista, Calif., a daughter of the bride, was her attendant and Henry Schild, Dallas, was best man.

A reception followed after the ceremony. The bride's table was decorated with tall white candles trimmed with silver and white glass balls. Mrs. Girten and Mrs. Henry Schild served.

MOUNT ANGEL (Special) — Catholic Daughters of America of Court Marion No. 718, will meet Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, January 14, in the meeting room of St. Mary's school. Recitation of the rosary in church will precede the meeting.

Warrenton to Get Astoria Phone Service

Public Utilities Commissioner Charles H. Heltzel Wednesday ordered extended area telephone service for the 885 telephone customers in Warrenton.

The order, directed to the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., puts Warrenton in the Astoria exchange. He said it would save the Warrenton subscribers $4,700 a year, since they won't have to pay toll charges for calls to Astoria. The order will become effective next Oct. 1.

Prime Minister Sidney G. Holland of New Zealand says that he once sold plows to farmers. The farmers' only answer to his eloquent sales talks would be a simple "yes."
