

Saxons Win 5th Straight; Big One Friday

Milwaukie Handed Setback by 64-48

South to Play at North Salem Next

By JOHN HARVEY
Capital Journal Sports Writer

The South Salem Saxons won their fifth straight game Tuesday night by wallowing Milwaukie 64-48 at South Salem and now look forward to the Friday night district game with North Salem.

The Friday night contest will be the first counting game between the two teams after the cross-town schools split a pair of December tilts.

Ron Russell and Dan Moore, the two point-making machines for the Saxons, were both running at high efficiency with Russell getting 21 points again while Moore was putting in 15.

The Mustangs, coached by George Crandall, went into the game with a 6-2 record, but Bob Trostad bottled up 5-6 Con Pekola, the Mustangs' leading scorer, and the visitors didn't have a chance. Pekola had only four points.

Close at 18-17
Cal Tichenor, a 6-3 transfer from Klamath Falls, opened the scoring for Milwaukie with a long one-hander, but Ed Lewis came back with a bucket and Moore put in a jump shot and a lay-in to give the Saxons the lead for the rest of the night.

Trostad put in three onehanders from outside in the last 90 seconds of the quarter to keep South in front, 16-12.
Milwaukie cut the score to 18-17, but Russell and Moore scored seven straight points to make it 25-17. Milwaukie scored five points in the final 30 seconds of the half to make the halftime score 32-29 in favor of the Saxons.

Tom Giddings brought the Mustangs within a point by hitting on a jump shot, but Russell went berserk, getting 11 points in 2:36 to put the Saxons safely in the lead. South led 53-42 at the start of the final period and kept pulling away gradually.

Russell missed a free throw early in the fourth period to break a string of 24 straight that extended back for four games.

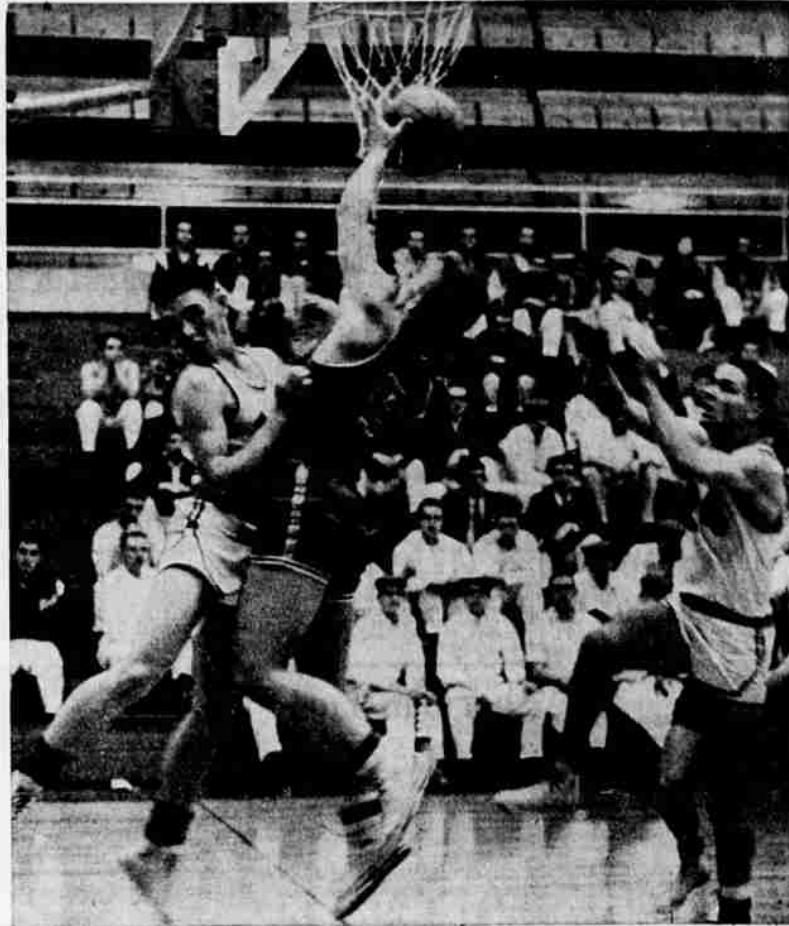

Out-Rebound Visitors
The Saxons, although shorter, out-rebounded the visitors by getting 29 rebounds to 24 for Milwaukie. Milwaukie outshot the Saxons from the floor, hitting on 18 of 28 for a .643 average. The Saxons had a .433 average, connecting on 26 of 60.

The South Salem junior varsity were edged 35-34 in the preliminary game by the Milwaukie JV's. The loss broke a four game winning streak. Jerome Goertzen led the losers as usual with 12.

Saxon, Mustang Clash in Mid-Air

This collision between South Salem's Don Watkins (5) and Milwaukie's Dick Schneibel was only a small part of what the Saxons had to go through to win a non-league game at South Tuesday night. Watkins missed the basket and was

Albany Edges Dallas, 52-45

ALBANY (Special) — With dependable Buzz Wilfert and John Wilson showing the way, the high-geared Albany Bulldogs sneaked past the rugged Dallas Dragons, 52-45, in a non-conference basketball game here Tuesday night. Wilfert and Wilson hit 15 points apiece to pace the Bulldogs. John (Sign Here) Henry led his Dragon mates with a similar total. The Dallas Jayvees won the curtain-raiser, 25-19.

Brenner Due to Tell His Decision Today

Salem Senator Managership At Stake

A call from Seattle at noon today was expected to inform the Salem Senators' operating committee about whether it has hired a combination field manager and business manager.

Bill Brenner, interviewed Tuesday afternoon for the open positions, was to call George Paulus, committee chairman, about his decision.

Brenner is the one wanted most from a list of 10 applicants and the only one to be interviewed so far. He was a pitching coach for the Seattle Rain-iers last season, finishing the season as manager when Luke Sewell was fired.

He played or managed Bellingham, Lewiston and Vancouver in the old Western International league as pitcher or catcher, winning 21 games in 1952 with the Bronces, 22 in 1953 with the Bronces and 21 in 1954 with Vancouver.

Brenner also was mentioned as a prospect for the job at Weatchee. The Salem position would be year-around work.

Serra Braces To Nip Saints

Sabers Seize 49-37 Win After Losing Early Lead

St. Boniface put on a tremendous third-quarter drive but wilted in the stretch as the Serra Sabers raced to a 49-37 non-conference basketball victory Tuesday night at St. Joseph's gymnasium.

Behind 22-23 at the end of the half, the Saints of Sublimity tightened their defense and unleashed their offense to earn a 27-27 tie shortly before the end of the third quarter.

But Serra's high-scoring Denny Frank popped home a field goal to give the Sabers a 29-27 bulge at the period's end, and his team took up the cudgels from there, pouring in 20 points in the final quarter.

St. Boniface was limited to ten points in the last period.
Bill Hamilton led the winners' fourth-quarter surge and netted 11 points for the game. High-scoring honors were divided by Frank and Tom Christiansen of the Saints, each of whom had 13.

Joe Moorman and Jim McDonald tallied 11 points each to lead the Serra Jayvees to an easy 59-29 win over St. Boniface in the preliminary game.

Three Bearcats Top 100-Points So Far

Hoy Ranks High; Pacific Next Opponent

Three Willamette university basketball players are above the 100-point mark for the first 10 games, according to statistics released today by Coach John Lewis.

Don Hoy has a king-sized grasp on honors in four departments. The senior guard from Newberg has 133 points for first place, is second in rebounds with 101, is second in free throw accuracy among the regulars, .845 and second in field goal accuracy among the first teamers, .378.

Willamette, splitting its first Northwest conference series with Lintfield, will go into action again Friday night at home against Pacific, then will return the favor by playing at Pacific Saturday.

Neil Causbie, seven inches taller than Hoy, is second with 121 points and has claimed the most rebounds, 164. The senior center has attempted the most field goals, 170.

Eagle-eyed Eddie Grossenbacher, freshman guard from Milwaukie, holds the best free throw mark with a smart 39 out of 54 (.833). He has scored 112. Keith Driver, reserve guard, actually has the best charity percentage, 10 for 10.

As a team, Willamette, with a 6-4 record, has a per-game average of 69.3 compared to opponents' 66.5. Opponents have been outshooting the Bearcats from the floor, 350 to 348, but Willamette free throw shooting is tops, 725 to 624. Personal fouls are about even, 180 to 181.

SBC Will Host Hot Stove Grid League Tonight

The "hot stove" football league argument over whether Iowa was too good or Oregon State was particularly bad in the New Year's Day Rose Bowl game may be renewed tonight during the first 1957 meeting of the Salem Breakfast Club.

Color motion pictures of the clash, won by Iowa 23-19, will be shown at the Senator Hotel following smorgasbord dinner at 7 p.m. John Eggers, athletic news bureau director at Oregon State, will narrate the film.

Eggers also will speak on the game, as will Oregon Journal sports editor George Pasero and Oregon Statesman sports editor Al Lightner.

Any men in this area, whether members of the club or not, may attend the meeting, and tickets will be on sale at the lobby desk of the hotel.

That left Jefferson, Roosevelt and Benson deadlocked at 3-1. Lincoln and Grant are close behind at 2-1.

Brown Hits 27 as Foxes Beat Canby

SILVERTON (Special) — With versatile Rex Brown chipping in with 27 points, the Silverton Foxes eased by the Canby Cougars, 53-43, in a non-league basketball game here Tuesday night.

Brown's total was good for game honors. Clarence (Nobody's) Darling connected for 12 to top the losers.

Silverton owned a 25-18 halftime lead.
Silverton also swept the Jayvee opener by a narrow 38-37 count.

Canby (43)
D. Darling (6) F
Zachow (4) F

Reserves scoring: Canby—Inlow 6, Anderson 2, Silverton—Lynch 2, Hensback 2, Omer 2, Zetterberg 2.
Officials: Beard and Donovan.

Cascade JV Whips North Salem Sophs

Scoring honors were divided between individual stars on the two teams, but Cascade's junior varsity used its all-around strength to good advantage to capture a 41-33 basketball victory over the North Salem sophomores Tuesday on the losers' court.

Gene Gilbertson of North Salem and Ron Younger of Cascade tied for scoring honors with 13 points each.

North Salem Delays Game

North Salem earned a rest Tuesday night when its basketball game at Beaverton was postponed because of icy roads in the Portland area.

Clay Egelston, athletic director, said it will be made up Jan. 29, an open Tuesday night.

Last night found two Vikings ill with the flu—Jim Litchfield and Val Barnes—and another needing rest for a foot injury—Dennis McKee. This had no bearing on the postponement, Egelston added.

North's next game is here Friday night against South Salem, an important 8 A-1 battle.

Willamette JV To Play Tonight With Clark Juco

The Willamette university junior varsity basketball team will try to win its fifth game at 8 p.m. today against Clark Junior college. The game will be played in the Hudson's Bay high school gym at Vancouver, Wash.

Coch Jerry Long's greenies have lost only to the Surroz Motors Ramblers, current leaders in the Salem City league, by two points.

Long said his starting lineup will be as follows:
Forward—Larry Lynn, from Washington high school, Portland.
Forward—Leon Nilsen, Sandy Center—Lee Weaver, North Salem.

Guard—Bob Tom, North Salem.
Guard—Dick Walsborn, Seaside. Walsborn is the only sophomore. Others are freshmen.
