

Two Rescued, Two Missing In Jet Crash

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — A possibility that a canopy, released from a burning jet plane, struck another in flight and caused it to explode was reported here Tuesday.

Two crew members of the second Royal Canadian Air Force plane are missing. The two crewmen of the first plane were rescued by daring helicopter crews from a mountainside 40 miles north of here Monday. Both suffered burns before they parachuted. Previous reports indicated the two jets collided in flight and exploded "in a ball of fire."

The Canadian Broadcasting Co. quoted Flight Officer Ray Martin Tuesday as saying at the little lumber village of Squamish that there was no collision; that the first he knew of the loss of the second plane was when rescuers reached him.

The radioman quoted Martin as saying he and his passenger, Flight Officer Bernard McCormack of Burnaby, B.C., fired their seat ejectors after their own jet trainer caught fire Sunday. He said the released canopy might have hit the second plane and caused it to explode.

The two missing airmen are Lt. Burton Patkau of Vancouver and Toronto and Flight Officer Rodrick L. Atkins of Vancouver. They are listed as missing and presumed dead.

Driver Narrowly Escapes Burning, Drowning in Skid

GRANTS PASS (AP) — An O'Brien man, Robert Eugene Perry, 35, narrowly escaped both burning and drowning in an accident on Redwood Highway four miles west of Grants Pass Monday evening.

He was listed in fair condition at Josephine General Hospital Tuesday morning. Perry, alone in his car, was going south on Redwood Highway at 7:25 p. m. when the car, a witness said, started to sway, skidded on the wet pavement, and flipped upside down in an irrigation ditch. Perry was pinned by the legs in the smashed car, his head only inches from the rising water. As the car settled into the ditch it caught fire, but flames were extinguished by passersby before they reached Perry.

Perry suffered a fractured jaw and shoulder injuries.

FARES PROTEST EXTENDED
BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — A citywide boycott of municipal streetcar and bus service was extended Tuesday to subways and suburban trains. The action resulted from fare boosts. A threatened demonstration by housewives at city food markets was halted by a strong show of police force.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
