Finals Time Brings a Campus Lull

By LUCY MYERS
(Capital Journal Correspondent)

With the exception of the fireside clothes drive this evening and the Distinguished Artists Series concert by Cesare Valletti January 24, all social activities have come to a complete stop until after finals and the beginning of the new semester.

This week conferences with professors and pre-registrations are offered for those who want to avoid the rush of registration day, February 4.

Last Wednesday in Student Council the problem of noise in the library was felt to be caused by a lack of a student meeting place. The question of the purchase of new Glee riser was also discussed and a motion was passed in favor of such a contemplated purchase by University authorities.

A series of 7 one-act plays presented through the combined efforts of the acting and directing classes will be given tomorrow and Friday at 7:15 in the Little Theatre on the second floor of the Fine Arts building. George Nelson, Lois Winkersham, and Maggie Malone will direct plays tomorrow and Mac Baker, Fred Chambers, Jean Snow, and Ken Renshaw will direct on Friday evening.

Mrs. Naguida K. Mahmood, an Egyptian school teacher, will speak at the meeting of Pi Gamma Mu, a national social science honorary, tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Waller Hall. Her subject will deal with Premier Nasser and the Suez canal question.

She is headmistress of a secondary school for girls in Cairo and is visiting in Salem with a group of five educators who are in Oregon under the 1956 International Teacher Education program. She will be a guest at South Salem high school for a month.

Sandra Edwards, Darr Johnson, and Rosalie Redekapp were named the three prize winners in the ticket sale contest conducted by the Distinguished Artist Series for the series sales manager, Wayne Carr, Meier & Frank's. Salem awarded a $45 gift certificate to Miss Edwards, and $15 gift certificates to the next two winners.

The men of Phi Delta Theta have chosen the following officers for the second semester: President, Paul Edwards, Woodburn; reporter, Lewis Bright, Medford; secretary, Earl Patrick, Reedport; treasurer, Ron Taylor, Corvallis; assistant treasurer, Keith Driver, Hubbard; secretary, Bill Long, Myrtle Point; rush chairman, Dean Bishoprick, Woodburn; social chairman, Del Cummings, Los Altos, Calif.; student council rep., Jack Jones, Astoria; librarian, Bob Fudge, Berkeley; chaplain, Herb Talabere, Walla Walla.

H. Pinter, mother adviser.

Board members installed were Mrs. Wallace Humphreys, Dr. H. A. Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Veray Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Carrick and Mrs. Faith Harding of Seio.

The DeMolay officers were installed by a team of past master counselors, including Ronald Chadwick as master counselor; Kenneth Phillips, senior counselor; Marilyn Shelton, junior counselor; and Robert Weddie, marshal.

The officers are Jun Urbanmer, master counselor; Bruce Headrick, senior counselor; Marion Schollian, junior counselor; Bruce Philippi, scribe; Kenneth Ware, treasurer; Elvin Martin, senior deacon; Douglas Hirt, junior deacon; J. A. Myers, senior steward; Bob E. Kiene, junior steward; Dick Wilt, chaplain; James Gulliford, stand-ard bearer; Kenneth Epperson, marshal; Ray Anson, almoner; Walter Thomas, Gene Poirtes, Dale Mitchell and Gary Bavierre, preceptors.

LYONS (Special) — Mrs. Floyd Craigville was hostess for a shower at her home honoring Mrs. Ronald Woodward. Games were played and after opening of the gifts, refreshments were served to the honored guest, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Joseph McDougal, Mrs. Willard Davenport, Mrs. William Carter, Mrs. Carl Anderson, Mrs. Frank Bailey, Mrs. Rose Woodward, Mrs. Daisy Bailey, Mrs. Kenneth Peterson and Mrs. Jerry Morris, all of Jefferson.

For Polio Coffees—These golden treasure cakes are supposed to help along the contributions at the benefit coffees now on under sponsorship of the March of Dimes campaign.

Tiny Cakes For Polio Coffees

With the coffee hours on in full swing for benefit of the March of Dimes campaign, it is timely to receive a suggestion for cakes to go with the coffee.

These cakes are called golden treasures.

There's a bit of hidden gold in the icing-orange flavor; and over the top of "gold coins." With cake mix the dainties are simple to make.

Golden Treasure Cakes

To make the cup cakes, use packaged cup cake mix according to directions on package, adding 1 tablespoon grated orange peel to the mix before adding liquid. Bake in small muffin pans (1 1/2 inches top diameter) lined with fluted paper baking cups. (1 pkg. mix will make 15 cup cakes of this size.) Cool, frost and top each with a foil-wrapped chocolate coin.

Orange Butter Frosting

1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 lb. confectioners' sugar
Few grains salt
1 tablespoon grated orange peel
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1/4 cup orange juice (about)
Cream butter or margarine to consistency of mayonnaise. Beat in sugar gradually and add salt, orange peel and lemon juice. Add orange juice a little at a time until frosting is fluffy and easy to spread. Makes enough to frost 20 small cup cakes.

EAST SALEM (Special)

The January meeting of the Merry-go-round club was at the Laneaster drive home of Mrs. Jack Lindeman. Miss Barbara Fessler from the home extension office was a guest. She discussed the extension project, "Fabric Coordination," which was given to units in the fall. Attending were Mrs. Harold Holler, Mrs. Clarence Arndt, Mrs. Darl Hansberry, Mrs. W. B. Buck, Mrs. Russell Proudfit, Mrs. Lyle Burnham, Mrs. Melvin LaDue, Mrs. William J. Petersen, Mrs. Keith LaDue, Mrs. Lloyd Laudie, Mrs. Clayton Gibb, a guest, Mrs. James Dawes and the hostess.

ABOUT HATS

Bonnets Go Back to 30s For Style

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (UP) — This spring's hats are old hat. Like the rest of milady's wardrobe, the new hats return to the 1930's for inspiration. The millinery industry promises we'll be seeing and wearing hats that remind us of Garbo, Dietrich, Harding, Lombard and other movie queens who prospered during the depression years.

The predominant shapes are the turbans, the "proflex" which are worn at a slant, the deep-crowned cloches, the slouch hats which the "Silent Swede" helped to popularize, and the mannish fedoras of Dietrich's heyday.

Hats are smaller—and saner. Gone from the racks are those out-sized, face-hiding numbers of last spring. Gone also is the theatrical exaggeration of the "My Fair Lady" hats.

Chiffon, tulle, veiling and sheer silk flowers replace the heavy velvets and ostrich plumes.

Off The Face

The Millinery Institute of America reported that although the industry was inspired by the 30's, this year's hats are different—they're worn more off the face. Even the widest picture hats go further back on the head. The deep cloches barely touch the front hairline.

Brimms are back. Some milliners show hats with double brims, and even what one called a "triple ripple" brim. The brim may extend all the way around the hat, or be just a hint of a visor or turned-back cuff across the front.

Milliner Sally Victor, who is Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower's favorite hat maker, provides a few exceptions to the 30's influence. She revives the small, head-hugging felts of the 1920's—most of them without trim.

Evening Hat

Designer Fred of John Fredericks likes the "uneven hat." He said that its broken-brim brim provides the change worn in want from the straight-on-the-head hats of previous seasons.

Straws as usual lead the hat parade, but there are more than the usual amount of fabric hats in printed silks, crisp cottons, linens and sheers. Colors include the whole range of beige tones; white, bright pink, red, daffodil yellow, pale blue, hot deep and pale grey and a wide variety of the violet tones.

Milliner Irene of New York features Persian purple, a deep shade which she recommends for wear with black, brown or navy.

Miss Howell Bride At Recent Ceremony

WILLAMINA (Special) — Miss Eleanor Louise Howell, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Howell of Terrebonne, formerly of Willamina, and Virgil Floyd Telford, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Telford of Redmond, were united in marriage in a late December wedding at the Redmond Free Methodist church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, who also performed the marriage ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Byron Jacobson, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a floor length dress of white satin, with a chapel train, trimmed with net and lace panels. A lace and seed pearl queen's cap held the illusion veil. The bride carried an orchid centered with feathered carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Gladys Howell was maid of honor for her sister, and wore a pink crystal-embroidered ballerina length frock, and carried pink and white carnations. Miss Marilyn Howell wore a similar dress in blue, and carried blue and white carnations. Sherrie and Sharon Telford lighted the candles, and David Howell was ringbearer for his sister.

Larry Peden was best man, and Roy Dale Edwards and Wilbur Woodhiser, Jr., of Redmond were ushers.

A reception was given in the church parlors following the ceremony. The couple will be at home in Redmond following a trip to Mt. Hood and Redmond.

MOLALLA (Special)

When Neighbors Pastime club met last week, members made plans for a Valentine party for club members and their families, Saturday night, February 9. Mrs. Kenneth Kraxberger was welcomed into the club as a new member. Mrs. Earl Ellis received an anniversary gift and Mrs. Adolph Kraxberger a birthday gift from their "secret pals."

Mrs. Adolph Kraxberger, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Kraxberger, served dessert.

Mrs. Oscar Kaylor will be hostess for the next meeting Thursday afternoon, January 24.

Miss Runions Wed At Turner Ceremony

TURNER (Special) — Miss Mary Lu Runions and Francis Smith exchanged their marriage vows at a 4 o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Assembly of God church. The Rev. Ethel Gutekunst officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Harold Wagner of Salem sang, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Boyer. The altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Runions and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Dallas.

The bridal dress was of white nylon and Chantilly lace with princess bodice, ballerina length full skirt and long tapered sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The double illusion fingertip veil was fastened to a white tiara adorned with pearls and sequins. The bride carried a white Bible with white bonbon chrysanthemums, white and silvered, threaded ribbons, and streamers knotted with lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Kenneth Logan, Hillsboro, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Joyce Reynolds of Salem, bridesmaid. The attendants wore blue nylon and lace ballerina length dresses and carried nose-gays.

Johnny Blocker of Salem was a best man and Ollie Runions, brother of the bride, an attendant. Mary Thomas, niece of the bride, groom, and Dale Runions, nephew of the bride, were ring bearers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Runions wore a midnight blue dress with beige accessories and Mrs. Smith chose a blue dress with black accessories. Their corsages were of chrysanthemums. At the reception at the wedding cake from Mrs. George Jackson assisted by Mrs. Ollie Runions presided at the punch bowl with Miss Joyce Sheets assisting.

They will make their home in Salem.

SCOTTS MILLS (Special)

A wedding reception at the city hall on Thursday, January 17, will honor Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Heusinkveld. A no-host lunch will be served. The reception, sponsored by the Jeans and Calico square dance club and the Scotts Mills grange, will begin at 8 o'clock and the public is invited.
