UCW Assist With State Meet Here

Salem United Church Women will entertain the annual meeting of the state organization at the First Methodist church, Monday and Tuesday of next week. The sessions will get under way at 9 a.m. Monday with a coffee hour for visiting delegates from the 31 councils throughout the state. Registration and housing will be cared for in the carrier room of the church in charge of Mrs. J. P. Smart and Mrs. Harold Jones. The first business session will begin at 10 a.m. with worship conducted by Mrs. Brooks Moore. Betty Starr Anderson will be the soloist.

Is Engaged—The betrothal of Miss Joreen McDonald, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. McDonald, to Elvin E. Goode, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery J. Goode, has been announced.

Religious Weekends On Campus

By CAROLYN MADSEN (Capital Journal Correspondent) UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene (Special)—Religious emphasis week began on the U of O campus last Sunday night with a kickoff dinner. The event goes on until Thursday night. Five speakers were on campus representing Catholicism, Judaism, Lutheranism, and Presbyterianism. Each speaker gave a major lecture, participated in panel discussions, and presented information about his faith at informal gatherings in various living organizations. Many Salem students were on hand for the informal talks. Some of them were Betty Lou Boehm, Gerry Wright, Phil Chadsey, Sally Jo Greig, Karlene Quistad, Bob Prall, Sandra Pearson, Bob Lyons, Jan McAlpine, Ted Leonard, Lynn Lockenour, Nancy Lidbeck, Jan Woodruff, and Nadine Small.

Last Monday the different sorority pledge classes presented their skits for the Associated Women Students auction. After the pledge classes had appeared before a panel of judges, four acts were chosen to be presented this Friday at Four (the weekly talent show which is presented in the Student Union). The winning skits are then auctioned off to the highest bidding member of the Associated Women. The proceeds go into scholarships for deserving girls. A number of Salem co-eds participated with their pledge sisters Monday night. Some of them were Nancy Denton, Elisabeth Walton, Jeanine Ray, Sally Merrill, Linda Davis, Sandy Hill, Debbie Lamb, Jennifer Sercombe, Joyce Stettler, and Pat Whelan.

This year for the annual Frosh Sno-Ball, which is to be presented January 26, the chairmen decided to try something different. Each men's dormitory is selecting a candidate for Snow Princess and each women's dormitory is selecting a candidate for Snow Prince. Congratulations to Bob Carr for being chosen the representative from Susan Campbell hall.

This Friday and Saturday night the U of O Ducks meet the Idaho Vandals on our home court. Since the game has all the earmarks of a thriller, many students, including Salemites, will be on hand to cheer the Duck squad. Some of the students who are thinking about attending are Barbara Bacon, Julie Astrup, Jerry Walling, Dick Baxter, Richard Castle, Sandy Carter, Bill Cook, Sharon Johnson, Dick Endahl, Kaye Tomlinson, Phil Goulet, Chuck Huggins, JoAnn Hoover, Jean Kleinke, Courtney Kurtz, Ron Wittaker, and Bev Lockard.

Anniversary Observed

Open house on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons marked the celebration of the 53rd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Wood. Guests called both days to extend greetings to the couple at their home at 1009 South High street.

Joining in their parents' celebration were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leylan Wood and their three children of Stayton; and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page, of New Dayton, Alberta, Canada. Another son, Dr. Joe Wood, of Prosser, Wash., was unable to be in Salem for the occasion but will visit his parents this weekend.

Spring flowers provided bouquets throughout the rooms. On the mantel were white candles with gold ribbon bows and white bells entwined.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Howard Huseby poured, assisted by Mrs. Page and Mrs. Leylan Wood, and the latter two served on Wednesday. Mrs. Wood modeled a dress from Mrs. Joe Wood's trousseau of 55 years ago.

The honored couple are members of Hal Hibbard camp and auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, and many of their fellow members called during the two open houses. The Woods were

SUGAR AND SPICE COOKIES
Ingredients: 1½ cups sifted flour, ¼ teaspoon baking soda, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon allspice, ½ cup butter or margarine, ½ cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup mild light molasses, 1 cup finely chopped walnuts.
Method: Sift together the flour, baking soda, salt and allspice. Cream butter and sugar; beat in eggs thoroughly, one at a time. Beat in molasses well. Add dry ingredients; stir well. Stir in about two-thirds of the chopped walnuts. Drop by teaspoonsful on greased baking sheet about 2 inches apart. Sprinkle tops with remaining chopped walnuts. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until baked through and lightly browned—about 13 minutes. Remove from pan at once with wide spatula to wire rack to cool. Makes 4 to 5.
