Quarterly Meeting of Altar Society Sunday

MOUNT ANGEL (Special)—More than a hundred members of the St. Ann's society of St. Mary's parish were in attendance at the winter quarterly meeting held Sunday afternoon in the meeting room of St. Mary's school.

In the annual election of officers those reelected were Mrs. Henry Geck, president; Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, secretary and Mrs. Albert Uning, treasurer. Mrs. E. A. Hammer was elected vice-president, succeeding Mrs. Joseph C. Schmidt, who was not a candidate for reelection.

Members discussed as their future project the financing of rubber kneelers on the pews in St. Mary's church. A number of kneelers will be purchased annually. The annual parish dinner on Sunday, March 31, was announced by Mrs. Delmar Lalay, general chairman for the dinner. Mrs. Lalay served as co-chairman of last year's dinner, and she will have Mrs. George Vachter as her assisting co-chairman this year. The Rev. Cyril Lebold, O. S. B. pastor, was the speaker at the meeting. Annual reports were submitted by the officers.

The secretary introduced the new members who were present, and reported the following had joined the organization during the year: Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Melanie Schleich, Mrs. George Vachter, Mrs. Blanche Norton, Mrs. Lawrence Zack and Mrs. LeRoy Aman.

The president, Mrs. Geck, appointed the following committees for the year: Sick-visiting: Mrs. Alois Keber, Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber and Mrs. N. M. Lauby. Members: Mrs. Charles Bochsler, Mrs. Clem Butsch, Mrs. Joseph Bell and Mrs. Joseph M. Wagner.

The Altar society will sponsor a series of card socials on the first and third Wednesday of the month, card playing to start at 8 o'clock. During the Lenten season of March and April the socials will be discontinued. Fifteen members, names drawn alphabetically, serve on the hostess committee.
