Oregon at WSC, UCLA and USC Are Idle

Undated PCC Basketball By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Northwest giants of the Pacific Coast Conference basketball race meet Friday night and Saturday at the Washington Huskies play here to the Oregon State Beavers.

And at Palo Alto, the conference leading California Beavers have a date Friday night with the uncreditable Stanford Indians. (P) has an open date Saturday when Stanford hosts Santa Clara.

UCLA, like California undefeated in conference play but with one less victory, is idle this week-end. So is USC. Another series sends Oregon to Washington State.

Most Step Gambee Both Washington and Oregon State split series with Stanford. The Huskies have a 3-1 conference mark; the Beavers 2-2. The Huskies have the advantage of their home court and a pair of big fellows in Bruno Boin and Doug Smart who could put the Beavers virtually out of contention should they win the pair.

Washington's big job will be stopping Dave Gambee, who has a conference scoring average of 19 points per game. Boin has a 19.7 mark while Smart isn't far behind with 17.8.

Leading the scoring parade in the PCC is Washington State's Larry Beck with 21.2 although his team has only one victory in five outings.

California beat Stanford once this season, 59-45. Since that time Carl Isaacs, a star end in football who played in the East-West game, has rejoined the Stanford basketball squad and won the starting center spot.

His return, plus the home court advantage could make a difference. Isaacs scored 17 and 10 points in the two games against Washington.

California's biggest job, however, will be to curb Stanford's forward Bill Bond, twice voted the player-of-the-week in Northern California. He scored 45 points in the pair against Washington.

The assignment of guarding Bond probably goes to Cal's Capt. Larry Friend, who has averaged 19 per cent, and held Bill to 11 when they met.

Fighter of the Year

NEW YORK—Floyd Patterson, 22, the world's heavyweight boxing champion, holds the Edward J. Neil Memorial award presented him as the fighter of the year at last night's Boxing Writers association dinner. The plaque is awarded annually in memory of the former Associated Press boxing writer who was killed in 1938 while serving as a war correspondent in Spain.

'I'll Get Him,' Says Hurricane of Floyd

NEW YORK (AP)—On the surface everything was sweet and peaceful at the annual dinner of the Boxing Writers Assn. last night. Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and sports columnist Frank Graham of the New York Journal-American received the main awards. Even Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, was contented to hand Patterson the Edward J. Neil plaque as Fighter of the Year without putting the rap on anyone or anything.

But in a far corner of the grand ballroom of the Roosevelt Hotel, a tall, broad-shouldered fellow sat and burned.

"I'll get him next time. I'll show him. I'll chop him up something awful. You wait and see." The words came slowly at first, then in a torrent from Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

"He was my friend," said Tommy, "but he ain't any more. I'll get him in June. That's my next fight. Him and me for the title."

What was it that was upsetting him?

"I beat him the last time and he knows it," replied the Hurricane. "I made the fight. He didn't do nothing to me. He only fought a couple of seconds each round. So he got the decision and he won the title. It should have been me. But I'll get him. He ain't my friend any more. I ain't been mad at anyone before but now I'm mad."

No Fight Signed Patterson won a split decision over Jackson at Madison Square Garden last June 8 to earn the shot at Moore. He then knocked out Moore in the fifth round. No. 30 to succeed the retired Rocky Marciano as heavyweight champion.

Patterson-Jackson title fight for June has not been made yet but everyone seems to think it will.

The Neil award is named in memory of the former Associated Press boxing writer who was killed in 1938 while serving as a war correspondent in Spain.

Tabori to Make U. S. Mile Debut Tonight At Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Laszlo Tabori, sandy-haired and spindly-legged Hungarian runner, makes his American indoor mile debut tonight, still a little nervous about the short straightaways and sharp turns on the boards.

Tabori, who left his native land for the Melbourne Olympics and chose not to return because of the Communist oppression in Hungary, arrived here last night to take part in the 12th annual Philadelphia Inquirer Games.

A firm believer in rigid training, Tabori has been working out at the University of North Carolina, running almost four hours every day. He even planned a workout today before tonight's race.

Tonight's events will be the second indoor appearance for Tabori. He finished second to Fred Dwyer in a two-mile contest in the Boston K. C. games last Saturday night. He's hoping to do better than that tonight, since he prefers to run the shorter distance.

Tabori said he isn't shooting for a record in the Inquirer Mile. Like many European runners, he runs against the field, not against the clock.

However if his competitors, Big Ten mile champion Tee Wheeler, West Coast champ Bobby Seaman, Phil Coleman of the Chicago Track Club, NYU's George King and Villanova's Johnny Knoll, really open up there's no telling what might happen.

It was that way in London. Tabori ran the mile in 3:59 against Chris Chataway and Brian Hewson in a race in which all three finished under 4 minutes.

They will meet in the final on Monday.

Gibson and Neale Fraser teamed for the first time to win the national doubles title from countrymen Ashley Cooper and Malcolm Anderson 6-3, 8-6, 6-4.

Wilman's Toughest Pin Match Knocked General Off Chair

By OSCAR FRALEY United Press Staff Correspondent NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Wilman has been in many tough matches during a 38-year career in which he has won seven national match game championships and rolled his way into the bowling Hall of Fame, but the toughest of them all was a command performance for a general.

Wilman ranks as one of the nation's top tournament stars. In between matches, he currently is a bowling professor, who is "teaching teachers" so that bowling can keep pace with a tremendous upsurge which has boosted its participants over the 20 million mark.

Yet the pressure of the largest tournaments never can match one-time game which Joe rolled when he was "the best bedpan" in a m. and n. in Uncle Sam's Army.

Close To Home Wilman recalls with a chuckle that, after receiving his greetings in 1943 "they found my body was warily so they put me in the medical corps at Camp Grant, Ill." He was given charge of the camp bowling alleys and enjoyed life only 90 miles from home.

But the next year he was shipped to Fort Lewis, Wash., and quite naturally ended up on the camp bowling team. Ultimately Joe's team and the McChord Air Field team met for the Ninth Services Command championship and Joe's commanding general was on hand for the roll-off—occupying a camp stool on the adjoining approach.

Each team won one game and then, in the final game, Wilman rolled 11 straight strikes.

The general has never seen a 300 game," whispered one of the general's aides. "If you strike out, he'll give you a two week furlough with full travel time."

Away From Home Joe hadn't been home in nine months. All he needed was three straight strikes to win the match and the trip.

"Well, I got two of them," he recalls ruefully. "The final hit was as good as any of them—but the 10 pin stayed up and I rolled 'only' 299."

As the 10-pin teetered, however, the general leaned forward so far that he fell off the camp stool on his back.

"I didn't get the furlough," Joe says. "But the general sent me a letter saying I was the only PFC who ever knocked a general off his chair and didn't get court-

Big 7 Confused, Missouri Upsets Fearless Iowa State

Another Surprise When Wichita Tops Apts

By ED WILKS The Associated Press That's a cozy merry-go-round they have going in the Big Seven conference basketball race. Kansas is "unbeatable" except against Iowa State — and Missouri can't beat anyone BUT Iowa State.

It was Iowa State's Cyclones who put an end to all that. Will Still's response by junking Kansas's unbeaten record and No. 1 position in the Associated Press poll last Saturday.

Then Missouri up and bopped the Cyclones, who had scooted away up to No. 3 in the national ranking this week, 63-66 in overtime last night. Upset? Not for Missouri.

Those were the only two stand-out games in yet another night of meager action due to midterm examinations.

John Stephens, Lionel Smith and Bill Ross got the job done for Missouri. Stephens and Smith each earned three free throws and Ross added a field goal for all of the Tiger scoring in the overtime, blew an eight-point lead at the end of regulation time.

Blew 8-Point Lead Wichita, now 4-1 in the conference behind leading Bradley's 6-0 mark, didn't get the lead for good until the last 5 minutes at Stillwater. Joe Stevens sank a field goal and foul shot to do it. The Aggies, now 1-3 in the conference, blew an eight-point lead in the first half.

Elsewhere on the thin schedule, Marquette defeated North Dakota 72-57 with Mike Moran scoring 25 points; Miami (Fla.) almost immediately wasted a 19-point lead in defeating Kentucky Wesleyan 100-95; and Toledo, of the Mid-America Conference, rapped Delaware 91-70 in a nonleague game.

Stetson U. to Drop 1957 Football Schedule

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Stetson University of Deland, Fla., has dropped intercollegiate football for 1957 but hopes to pioneer a "Southern Ivy League" of "unsubsidized football."

TABORI TO RUN CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—Laszlo Tabori, Hungary's self-exiled distance runner, plans to leave here today for Philadelphia where he will compete in the Philadelphia Inquirer Track meet Friday night. Tabori also is entered in the Washington Star Games at Washington Saturday night.

EAGLES SIGN LINEMAN PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Linemen Alie Gibson and Ken Huxhold have signed their 1957 contracts with the Philadelphia Eagles. Gibson joined the Eagles late last season after a seven year tenure with the Cleveland Browns, while Huxhold has played three seasons with the Eagles.

Fishing Report

NORTHWEST North coast streams are in good condition but water still cold. Steelhead angling prospects are only fair for the week end unless water becomes warmer. Streams in the Tillamook area are low and clear. Steelhead are biting fairly well for drifters. Some good catches have been made on the Klaskan and Miami rivers near tide and in upper river holes. The Neskahalem has been fair, but lots of boats have been plugging the river and may have skimmed fish's cream of the non-moving fish. River levels before the run of fish. A good trasher is needed to raise appear.

SOUTHWEST Steelhead angling is generally spoils to poor in the center. Douglas county streams, The North Umpqua is very cloudy and the south and upper reaches remains fairly warm. Levels and temperatures are low. The north fork of the Smith river and the outlet of Tenmile lakes are both in good shape for weekend steelhead angling. Steelhead angling is good and fair in the east and the west forks. Unless the Coquille river clears, steelhead angling will be poor this week. If the weather turns cold, fresh or cluster eggs used in deep water holes will be best, but if the weather remains fairly warm, best fishing will be found in faster moving water with the use of cherry hobs or Oaki cluster type lures. Few fish have shown up in the Applegate river, but some steelhead should make their appearance soon.

The waters of the Applegate are clearer than other streams in the head is still on in the Illinois river. Rogue basin. The big run of steelhead catches continue to be made in the Illinois falls area where fishing was interrupted for only a day week end. Fresh eggs are about following the heavy rains of this past week but are not producing any catch.

Huskies Say Allord Is Beaver to Stop

Study Given Job; Boin to Guard Gambee

SEATTLE (Special) — Bill Study, Washington's 6-3 junior forward from Silverdale, may hold the key in the important basketball series this week-end with Oregon State.

That's the belief of Tippy Dye, the Husky mentor. Dye has assigned Study the task of defending against Bob Allord, OSC's talented senior forward, in the Friday and Saturday night games at Edmondson Pavilion.

Job of handling Dave Gambee, Oregon State's scoring ace, goes to Bruno Boin — but Dye has reason to fear Allord even more
