

Mothers to March on Polio Tonight

This scene will be repeated at the doors of thousands of Salem homes tonight when about 700 women make the annual Mothers' March on Polio. All home-owners wishing to contribute to the March of Dimes campaign should leave their porch lights on from 7-8 p.m. as shown by Mrs. Robert White (right), first vice-president of the polio board, here giving her contribution to Mrs. Burdette Owen, (Capital Journal Photo)

Bar Officials Plan Several Meetings Here

The members of the board of governors and officers of the Oregon State Bar are attending several important meetings in Salem this week.

Thursday evening, they will entertain Governor Robert D. Holmes and lawyer members of the House and Senate at a dinner meeting at the Marion Hotel. Among the subjects to be discussed at the meeting will be the reception and progress of the state bar's program of legal assistance to the legislature.

Under that program, the bar provides the full-time services of two lawyers in an office in the state capitol. The lawyers each serve voluntarily for a two-week period, without compensation and as a public service. The office of the service offers technical legal assistance to each member and committee of the legislature in the nature of legal advice, research and such other help as may be requested.

Plan Regular Meeting
Friday and Saturday, the board of governors will hold a regular meeting in the Hotel Marion to dispose of a lengthy agenda covering the administrative and disciplinary functions of the bar.

At 4:00 p.m. on Friday, the board will meet with the faculty and students of Willamette university college of law to discuss the work of the bar and its interest in and relationship to the law schools.

On Friday evening, the board will join the members of the Marion county bar association for a joint meeting and dinner. Members of the 12-man board will discuss and consult with the legislature concerning the more than 70 bills sponsored by the bar at this session.

Tokerud Leads Elks Tourney

Roy H. Tokerud stretched his lead in the winter series of 15 points as he finished third in a ten-table tournament of the Elks Duplicate Bridge club. His partner was Mrs. Bert Osburn. Other players among the leaders are Mrs. Don Huff, Mrs. Lloyd Jones, Mrs. A. I. Eoff, Mrs. Harry Wiedner and Mrs. Leona Taylor.

In Monday's event winners were Mrs. R. L. Park and Mrs. Eoff, and Mrs. Huff and Mrs. L. Jones. Others awarded points included Mrs. W. R. Newmyer, Lloyd Jones, Arthur L. Lewis, Mrs. Stanley Neuens, Mrs. L. J. Ahnenmacher, Mrs. Arthur W. Binegar, W. E. Kimsey, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Charnholm.

In the junior tournament at the Elks club, high went to Mrs. David Eason and Mrs. Charles McElhinny, followed by Mrs. Myrtle Watson and Mrs. A. O. Mueller, and Mr. and Mrs. Val Dare Sloper.

Man Held on Embezzlement Charge Bound Over

A former St. Paul man charged with embezzling more than $5,000 in cash from the lumber yard he managed there was bound over to the Marion county grand jury Thursday after waiving preliminary hearing in Marion county district court.

Willis Clark Fenton is charged with larceny by embezzlement of $5,719.11 from the J. W. Copeland lumber yard. He left St. Paul last July and the money was noted missing after he left, company officials said.

Fenton turned himself in at Reno, Nev., several days ago, telling officers he was wanted here for taking some money from the firm.

Yampo Farm Traded
AMITY (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Louis Buczynski of the Yampo district have traded their 77 acre farm where they have resided for the past 26 years to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reedy and daughter for their home at 410 Hankel street in Dallas.

League winners were Mrs. P. F. Burris and Mrs. C. B. Bentson, followed by Mrs. Clyde Mount of Oregon City and Mrs. W. A. Barsch, Mrs. E. E. Boring and Ellis H. Jones, and Mrs. Leona Taylor and Mrs. A. W. Binegar.

Thawing May Damage Roads

The Marion county court Thursday authorized the engineering department to place-load limits or close roads that might be damaged by heavy traffic during the thawing process of the recent freeze.

Engineer John Anderson and his assistant, Ted Kuenzi, said they did not know what roads would be involved. It is possible, they added, that "we might get out of this without much trouble."

The manner in which the frost disappears from the ground will determine the extent of the damage, both to paved and unpaved roads, the engineer said.

Light drizzling rains such as fell intermittently during the day or heavy downpours would permit the road surfaces to thaw with little or no damage.

A 10-ton load limit would be applied in most instances which would stop log hauling.

Willamette to Note 115 Years Of Existence

The oldest university west of Missouri, Willamette, celebrates its 115th anniversary tomorrow.

Willamette, a Methodist sponsored institution, had its beginning in 1834 when Jason Lee founded a mission school for Indian children.

On Feb. 1, 1842 a board of trustees was named and a constitution adopted for a new school, The Oregon institute, for white children.

From a beginning with one faculty member and five students, the university today has more than 1100 students enrolled and a faculty of 100.

Anna Nichols, director of women's physical education at Brandeis, also coaches the men's swimming team.

Hatfield, Unander Will Speak at Lincoln Event

PORTLAND (AP) — Secretary of State Mark Hatfield and State Treasurer Sig Unander will be principal speakers at the Multnomah County Republican Lincoln Day dinner here Feb. 12.

Phil Hitchcock, a member of the staff of Portland's Lewis and Clark College, is in charge of the affair.
