

Dance Parties Set

Several St. Valentine's day dances are on the calendar for next weekend, local dancing clubs scheduling their parties at that time.

Wisteria Party
Wisteria club's Valentine dance will be on Friday night at Knights of Columbus hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorenz are chairmen and on the committee with them are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baler, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Hueneke.

Cama Club
The Cama club dance is to be Saturday night at Knights of Columbus hall, the semi-formal affair to be between 10 p.m. and 1 a.m. with Urs Woller's orchestra playing.

On the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Donzel Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Reubin Hiffner, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Enger, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Guthrie.

Subscription Club
Subscription club's February dance is arranged for next Saturday night at the Marion hotel. The social hour will be at 7:30 o'clock, the dinner at 9 o'clock, followed by dancing.

On the decorating committee are Mrs. F. M. Sercombe, chairman; Mrs. Bruce F. Pickett, Mrs. Wheeler English, Mrs. William H. Hammond, Mrs. Robert B. Ebersole, Mrs. John J. Griffith.

Candlelite Event
Also booked for Saturday night is the Candlelite club's dance, in Four Corners Community hall at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Houck, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olson are on the committee.

Among parties for legislative groups will be the coffee for which Mrs. Pat Dooley, wife of the speaker of the house, and Mrs. Robert Steward, wife of Representative Steward, will entertain next Thursday morning.

The party will be at 9:30 o'clock in Meier & Frank's Salem Oregon room. Guests will include wives of all house members, wives of state officials, and senate wives with whom the two hostesses have worked in past sessions.

Other events of interest to legislative groups are being announced. On February 13 comes the tea for which the Oregon State Medical society auxiliary and the Marion-Polk Medical society auxiliary will entertain to honor the wives of legislators, the event to be at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Vern W. Miller. On February 19 comes the "legislative day" for Oregon Federation of Republican Women; and in March the newly organized Jane Jefferson club for Democratic women here is planning a tea to honor the wives of legislators.

Oregon Music Teachers association is meeting for its February luncheon Monday noon at the Golden Pheasant. There will be a short business session, also.

For the program on music as therapy, Dr. Eleanor B. Guttman, who is in charge of the tuberculosis unit at Oregon State hospital, will discuss use of music in treatment of patients.

Planned for the morning of Saturday, February 16, is the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Studer of Salem and John Orin Inlow of Canby. The service will be at 10 o'clock in Sacred Heart church in Gervais with the Rev. Francis Hanley officiating.

Miss Betty Lanning of Gervais is to be the bride's only attendant.

The reception following is to be in the church parish hall.

Miss Studer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Studer of Gervais and Mr. Inlow is the son of Mrs. Olivia Inlow of Canby.

Delta Zeta alumnae will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock for a dessert at the home of Mrs. M. C. Buchanan, 960 Grand street, Mrs. Emmett Kleinke will be assistant hostess.

Mrs. L. L. Sanders will show colored slides of her European trip.

Announced for February 23 is the date for the wedding of Miss Theresa B. Tugate and William H. Walsh.

The ceremony will be at 11 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic church, the reception following to be at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Billy G. Kelso.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tugate and Mr. Walsh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh of Sioux City, Iowa.

Mrs. Ronald Blundell is to be hostess for her bridge club on Wednesday night.

Bethel 48, Job's Daughters, will conduct inspection and initiation services at the regular meeting Thursday evening, February 7, at 7:30 o'clock at the Scottish Rite temple.

St. Joseph's Altar society will meet for a regular business session Wednesday, February 6, in the rectory meeting room at 8 p.m. A social hour will follow.

Yomarc group of the First Methodist church will meet with Mrs. George Penson, 1340 Park avenue, Tuesday afternoon, February 5, for dessert at 1:15 o'clock.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. H. G. Carl, Mrs. Carle Abrams and Mrs. Ray Waltz.

Election of officers will be the principal business for the meeting of the Young Mothers club on Thursday evening, February 7, at 8 o'clock. The group will meet at the home of Mrs. Jack Morrison, 625 North 13th.

A white elephant sale will provide entertainment during the evening.

Kingwood unit, American Legion auxiliary, meets Thursday evening, February 7, at the Kingwood Legion hall, with Mrs. David Williams, vice president, in charge of the session.

City council of Beta Sigma Phi is meeting next Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Don Parker.

Plans will be discussed for the benefit party and style show the group is sponsoring with Capital unit of the Oregon Beauticians association on Wednesday night, February 13, at the American Legion club. Proceeds go to the Haven School, Inc.

Visitor in the capital next week will be "Miss America of 1957," Miss Marian McKnight of South Carolina. She will be guest at a press breakfast Monday morning at Meier & Frank's Salem store, then will leave for Portland to return here Wednesday.

Wednesday morning, Miss America will meet with the store community council at coffee at 11 o'clock in the Meier & Frank's Salem Oregon room, will be guest of the Rotary club at noon and will participate in the fashion show at Meier & Frank's Salem in the afternoon.

THEY CO-CHAIRMEN IN MEMBERSHIP EVENT

CHAIRMEN for the annual membership drive of Salem Memorial Hospital auxiliary, now underway, are pictured above, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr., at left, and Mrs. Robert Schneider.

By MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

(Capital Journal Staff Editor)

HIGHLIGHTING news of social interest for the coming week will be the first at home afternoon by Oregon's first lady, Mrs. Robert D. Holmes, on Tuesday, February 5.

From now on, Mrs. Holmes plans to reserve each Tuesday afternoon as an at-home time for all women interested to call, except during those periods when she may be out of town.

Hours for the at-home time will be between 2 and 5 o'clock at the governor's residence, 2745 Alvarado Terrace. All Salem women and visiting ones in the capital wishing to meet Mrs. Holmes are invited to call during those hours.

Pouring at this first at-home afternoon will be Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, Mrs. Boyd Overhulse, Mrs. Hall S. Lusk, Mrs. Pat Dooley, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Mrs. William C. Perry, and assisting during the afternoon will be Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Thomas G. Wright, Jr., Mrs. Miss Echo Yeater, Miss Hazel Campbell of Portland, Miss Betty Horn, Miss Ann Robinson.

Governor and Mrs. Robert D. Holmes will be in Portland tomorrow for two events. He is to be on a live TV show there and in the evening the Holmeses will attend a reception at the Multnomah Athletic club.

Social studies group of the American Association of University Women will meet next Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Thomas W. Churchill, 2640 Doughton, Mrs. Roger C. Pederson will be co-hostess.

The program for the evening will feature a panel discussion on mental health. Topics to be discussed are: Religion and good mental health, signs of more than normal anxiety and stress, and family services rendered by the Marion county health nurse. Those serving on the panel will be Dr. Ruth Jones, Mrs. Dennis Patch, and John Humphrey, and Mrs. Harmon Yeary will serve as moderator.

Regular business meeting and luncheon for Salem Soroptimist club will be Wednesday noon at the Golden Pheasant. Mrs. F. G. Rankin is program chairman for the month.

Women's Fellowship of Knight Memorial Congregational church has arranged a tea at the church for Wednesday afternoon, February 6, at 2 o'clock.

Child study group of the American Association of University Women will meet Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Thomas W. Churchill, 2640 Doughton. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Richard Fry and Mrs. Carl Hawkes.

For the program a film, "Human Heredity," will be shown.

Salem unit of National Association of Parliamentarians is to meet Wednesday night at the City library at 7:30 o'clock, Wednesday. Mrs. Harry Sapowitfield, registered parliamentarian, will give the lesson on "Previous Question" and "Lay on the Table." Mrs. Ferris White will preside at the drill.

Mrs. Kenneth Bell is entertaining her bridge club on Tuesday night, inviting the group for dinner at Meier & Frank's Salem Oregon room with cards following at her home.

On this coming weekend Mrs. Bell will be moving into the Lee apartments to make her home.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Travis Cross, who recently returned to make their home in Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Gurner Fleisher are entertaining Sunday evening at an informal men's house. Guests are invited to call between 5:30 and 6:30 o'clock.

Hostess to her bridge club for luncheon and the afternoon on Wednesday will be Mrs. Sam R. Haley.

Date for the benefit bridge affair announced earlier by Salem Panhellenic alumnae groups is set for Friday, March 1, in the afternoon.

Four parties will be conducted simultaneously in the four Panhellenic sorority houses on the Willamette university campus, Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma and Pi Beta Phi. The party will be between 1 and 4:30 o'clock.

Proceeds go to the Haven School, Inc.

Mrs. Wilmer H. Page, Mrs. Lawrence Hogue and Mrs. Bruce Crandall are on the committee for Panhellenic for the event. Individual groups holding membership in Panhellenic will be contacted for their members and friends to attend the benefit series.

Membership Drive

Members of Salem Memorial Hospital auxiliary are in the midst of their annual membership drive, notices being out to members and prospective ones.

The campaign continues through the month. Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr., and Mrs. Robert Schneider are co-chairmen for the drive and have been assisted by Mrs. E. F. Kirkwood, Mrs. Harmon Harvey, Mrs. A. C. Newell, Mrs. James G. Watts, Mrs. Charles H. Heltzel, Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee and Mrs. Emery Hobbs, the latter president of the auxiliary.

Proceeds from the membership fees will go toward purchasing a new oxygen tent at the hospital and equipment for the therapy department.

Junior choir of St. Paul's Episcopal church, including more than 70 members, has arranged a Valentine party for next Friday night in the parish hall between 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock.

The choir mothers, Mrs. Carl P. Armstrong as chairman, are in charge of arrangements, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Charters are in charge of games and the entertainment.

Alpha Xi Delta alumnae will entertain their province president, Mrs. Earl T. Newberry of Portland, at their meeting next Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Rollin O. Lewis, Mrs. William D. Galloway, Jr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kerns are to be co-hostesses.

New officers will be elected by the local group and the program will feature the national philanthropy, the Save the Children's fund, and the local philanthropy, the child guidance clinic.

Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae are meeting for their February social next Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Gordon, 585 Rose street.

A panel of teachers will discuss "Schools at Home and Abroad" at the Monday evening meeting in the McKinley School Mothers and Dads club in the Coral room of the school at 8 o'clock.

Participating in the discussion will be Miss Joanna Clemenson, Mrs. Lucille Wardle, Miss Elizabeth Hoysler and Miss Muriel Benson. Ernest Savage will preside.

Hostesses from the room of Mrs. Marie Wood will be Mrs. C. L. Mink and Mrs. Stuart McGilchrist, and from Mrs. Charles Martin's room, Mrs. Raymond Beard and Mrs. J. Al Head.

St. Agnes guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church is meeting on Tuesday at a no-host supper in the guild room at 6:30 o'clock.

Members of St. Paul's guild, St. Paul's Episcopal church, will meet for a no-host luncheon at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the church.

Salem General Hospital auxiliary is meeting for its regular monthly session next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the hospital.

Announcements are out for the meeting of the board of Oregon Federation of Women's clubs in Portland on February 11 and 12, at the Mallory hotel.

Mrs. George Rossman of Salem, state president and several others from here will be attending the meeting.

AN League Event

Salem Women's Army and Navy league announces its February meeting for next week will be on Thursday instead of the usual first Tuesday.

The members are to gather for an informal coffee in Meier & Frank's Salem Oregon room at 9:30 o'clock. An informal fashion show will be presented, Mrs. H. C. Saalfeld and Mrs. H. G. Malson making the arrangements. Among the models will be three of the league members, Mrs. Harry Logan, Mrs. Logan C. Berry and Mrs. Maylon E. Scott.

Taking reservations for the coffee are Mrs. Raymond Olson, Mrs. George Bagnall, Mrs. Ralph Solum.

Salem Symphony society board is to meet Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Sydney Kromer.

Next concert of Portland Symphony orchestra here will be on March 12.

On the calendar of benefits for late February is the bridge party to be given by St. Mary's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church on February 26, at the parish hall. Dessert will be at 1 o'clock, followed by cards. Co-chairmen for the benefit are Mrs. John McCullough and Mrs. Ross Lewelling. Mrs. Joseph M. Devers is ticket chairman. Invitation is extended to all women of the parish and friends of guild members to attend.

Mrs. John Steelhammer is to entertain for her bridge club next Wednesday night. A late dessert will follow the card games.

A heart fund benefit card party is being planned by Alpha Phi alumnae for the evening of February 11.

The affair, which is an annual project of the group as a phase of the national cardiac aid program of the sorority, will be at the home of Mrs. Bruce F. Pickett, with Mrs. Richard W. Scandling as general chairman.

Mrs. Sam R. Haley is to entertain Theatre Arts groups at luncheon on Tuesday at 12:30 o'clock at her home, 1590 Fairmont. Miss Alice Cray Brown is to read Eugene O'Neill's "Long Day's Journey into Night."

Hostess to her bridge club for luncheon and the afternoon on Wednesday will be Mrs. Kenneth Perry.

Board of Salem branch of the American Association of University Women is meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Virgil Golden with Mrs. C. A. Fratzke as co-hostess.

Plans will be made for the February 16 luncheon at the Marion hotel when Willamette university senior women will be honored at a program.

Salem Writers club meets on Tuesday, February 5, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. N. F. Anderson, 1145 Belaire drive.

Chapter CQ of the P.E.O. Sisterhood will meet at 1 p.m., Tuesday, for dessert and business session at the home of Mrs. John Muir, 561 River View Drive. Mrs. I. T. Kvale will be co-hostess.

Among those entertaining preceding the Subscription club dance next Saturday night will be Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Goulet and Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Allen, the three couples entertaining at the Stone home on Crestview drive.

South Salem Lions club auxiliary is meeting on Monday night at the home of Mrs. Daryl Jones with Mrs. Clayton Jones and Mrs. Toni Martin as co-hostesses.

Delta Delta Delta alumnae of Salem will meet Monday night for dessert at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles Clarke.

Co-hostesses are Mrs. John R. Caughell, Miss Josephine Baumgartner and Mrs. D. C. Moore.

Visitors from various parts of the state will be in Salem for the friendship night program of Hanna Rosa court. Order of Amaranth, Monday evening. Charter members of the Salem group will be honored also at the meeting which opens at 8 o'clock at the Masonic temple.

The committee in charge includes Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Heckinger, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Aston Jr. and Mrs. William Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Horton Hughlett, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Archibald, Mrs. Mary Crawford and Percy Byers.

Senator Jean Lewis of Multnomah county will discuss legislation of the current session at a meeting of Westminster guild of the First Presbyterian church at its meeting Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the church.

Members of Lydia guild of the church have been invited as guests of the host guild for the program.

Announcements are out for the meeting of the board of Oregon Federation of Women's clubs in Portland on February 11 and 12, at the Mallory hotel.

Mrs. George Rossman of Salem, state president and several others from here will be attending the meeting.

MISS CAROL JEAN FUSSELL

ANNOUNCED recently was the engagement of Miss Carol Jean Fussell, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Fussell, to Clifford E. Yost, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Yost.

MISS WILMA RUTH GLIDEWELL

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Wilma Ruth Glidewell, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Glidewell, to Dwight Allan Shelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle T. Shelton, has been announced.

MRS. BOYD OVERHULSE AND DAUGHTER

WELCOMED to the capital this week was Mrs. Boyd Overhulse, left above, wife of the new president of the state senate, Senator Overhulse. She and the elder daughter, Miss Emilie Overhulse, are shown here entering the capitol. The Overhulse home is in Madras. The daughter is serving as her father's secretary.

AN AFTERNOON meeting is planned this month by Nancy Black Wallace club, Pi Beta Phi alumnae, at the home of Mrs. Vern W. Miller at 2 o'clock, Thursday.

Mrs. Charles H. Huggins is chairman of hostesses and is being assisted by Mrs. Floyd Thompson, Mrs. James R. Humphrey, Mrs. James Clayton, Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren.

The alumnae are sponsoring their rummage sale on February 8 and 9 over Greenbaum's with Mrs. E. D. Bartruff as chairman.

Anticipated event for February 12 will be the Community Concert association program presenting Cesare Siepi, noted Metropolitan Opera basso.

The concert will be in North Salem High school auditorium at 8:15 p.m. and is for association members only.

The Milan born artist, who sings in four languages, was launched in America by another celebrated Milanese musician, the late Arturo Toscanini. Toscanini presented his compatriot as soloist with the NBC Symphony in a performance of the Manzoni Requiem in the Verdi memorial concert in Carnegie hall in 1951.

Final concert of the Community Concert series comes March 15, the performance of the Chicago Opera ballet.

Membership in the association may be obtained during the annual membership sale in the early spring.

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae plan their monthly supper for Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William H. Hammond.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Garlen L. Simpson, Mrs. Betty Templeton and Miss Alice Lehman.

February and March are the "benefit months," several organizations dating their annual benefit festival or bridge parties then.

On February 13 comes the Beta Sigma Phi Oregon Beauticians association benefit hair show and hat event at the American Legion club, proceeds to assist Haven School, Inc.; February 14 brings the annual fashion show of West Salem Woman's club.

Y-Wives plan their benefit affair on February 20. On February 23 comes the Spinners' club big spring style show at Meier & Frank's Salem store. St. Vincent de Paul mothers group has set its benefit fashion show for February 25 and on February 26 St. Mary's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church gives its benefit bridge.

On into March, Salem Panhellenic alumnae groups have set their benefit card parties for the afternoon of March 1, and Salem Soroptimist club plans its annual spring style show on March 12, a late Easter giving a greater length of time to display the pre-Easter finery. Junior Woman's club has set its annual Easter bonnet bridge benefit on April 2.

Valentine emphasis will be given to the party for prospective members for the new Nu Phi Mu group of Beta Sigma Phi which will be organized at the home of Mrs. Thomas L. McVicker, Monday evening.

Elaborate decorations of red and white have been arranged by Mrs. John Cockerham and special gifts have been planned also by the decorations chairman. Red hearts and kespie dolls will be suspended from the chandeliers and a tree on the mantel will be decked with fringed white tissue with red hearts as ornaments. Individual heart shaped sachets rimmed with net and spangled with ornaments and flowers will provide favors for each of the prospective members and the members of the sponsoring Xi Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, and specially designed Valentine aprons will be presented as game prizes.

Those who have been invited to the rushing party are Misses Donna Haugen, Marjorie Dyck, Barbara Lantz, Beverly Aebischer, Mildred Veer, Jan Dahl, Mary Arnold, Henni Herring, Lonnie Pearson, Leslie Kline, Sandra Graham, Betty Pressley, Patricia Corrigan, Audrey Neuharth, Jeanie Lankins, Ann Bjorkman, Sharon Shafer, Joan Seamer, Kay Lindsey, Jova Thurwell and Barbara Sharp, and Mesdames Richard Pearson, Clyde Fladwood, Ray Wilcox, and James Bagley Toole.

Mrs. McVicker, who will serve as extension officer for the new group, is being assisted in the party by Mrs. Elton McGilchrist, Mrs. Jack Kaley, Mrs. Raymond Hart, Mrs. John Bone, Mrs. George Donaldson, Mrs. John Ellis, Mrs. Don Parker and Mrs. Larry Fitzgerald, in addition to Mrs. Cockerham.

DATES of parties in the new year for Cirque Dance club are being announced.

The schedule is as follows:
March 9, May 18, September 21, November 2, and December 31.

The parties are to be dinner dances at the Senator hotel.

Chapter G of P.E.O. Sisterhood is meeting next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Paul A. Fugate, at 1:15 o'clock with Mrs. Frank Voigt and Mrs. William Cole as co-hostesses.

Hosts for a dinner this evening at their home, one of a series they are planning, will be Mr. and Mrs. Elmer O. Berg.

Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fitts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Test, Attorney General and Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wirth, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nelte.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Fry were in Portland on Wednesday evening to attend the 25th wedding anniversary dinner for Mrs. Moore's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Malo. The party was at the Columbia-Edgewater Country club.

The Malos formerly lived in Gervais. About 200 attended the party.

Monthly social meeting of Hal Hibbard auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, was preceded with a luncheon in Meier & Frank's Salem Oregon room Friday noon.

Mrs. Johanna Perry and Mrs. Madge Maywood were in charge of arrangements for the affair. Next meeting of the group will be February 21 for a business session.

Three Willamette university sororities have elected new officers.

Alpha Chi Omega has named Miss Nancy Groth, Delake, president for the coming year.

Other newly elected officers are: First vice president, Miss Gerry Brackins, Seattle; second vice president, Miss Elaine Gustafson, Eugene; corresponding secretary, Miss Ann Yoder, Salem; recording secretary, Miss Arlene Pohl, Portland; assistant treasurer, Miss Barbara Dennis, Portland; warden, Miss Karen Engberg, Portland; rush chairman, Miss Martha Engelson, Tigard; social chairman, Miss Mary Lou Hastings, Salem assistant social chairman, Miss Peggy Cooper, Salem; house manager, Miss Jeanne Peasley, Menlo Park, Calif.; assistant house manager, Miss Ruth Mainwaring, Salem; student council representative, Miss Ann Bercaw, San Mateo, Calif.; scholarship, Miss Margaret Morton, Portland; assistant scholarship, Miss Phyllis Thompson, Walla Walla, Wash.; song leader, Miss Gail Boden, San Mateo, Calif.; historian, Miss Nettie Hansen, LaCenter, Wash.; alumna editor, Miss Stephanie Ryer, Dorris, Calif.; chaplain, Miss Sandra Wagner, Portland; a d activities, Miss Carole Warren, Salem.

Miss Marilyn Morton of The Dalles was named new president of the Chi Omega chapter on the Willamette campus. Assisting her will be: Vice president, Miss Mary Turner, Weiser, Idaho; secretary, Miss Joan Roberts, Reedsport; treasurer, Miss Suzy Platt, The Dalles; corresponding secretary, Miss Lola Lane, Cleveland, Ohio; and pledge trainer, Miss Lorraine Munding, Salem.

Miss Connie Clark of Medford has been elected president of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Other officers are: Vice president and student council representative, Miss Diane Wickstrom, Menlo Park, Calif.; corresponding secretary, Miss Mary Kramer, Balboa Island, Calif.; recording secretary, Miss Angela Cesario, San Mateo, Calif.; treasurer, Miss Sandra Roark, Portland; assistant treasurer and publicity chairman, Miss Barbara Duncan, Burlingame, Calif.; pledge trainer, Miss Alberta Nichols, Menlo Park, Calif.; program chairman, Miss Margaret Lowe, Kelso, Wash.; song leader, Miss Mary Jo Smullin, Parkdale; scholarship, Miss Mary Swanson, Portland; activities, Miss Lynn Schrock, Bend; social chairman, Miss Sharon Allen, Walla Walla, Wash.; assistant social chairman, Miss Dianne Jones, Vancouver, Wash.; settlement school, Miss Joan Clark, Portland; magazine and gift chairman, Miss Nancy Lee, Portland; house manager, Miss Linda Berry, Salem; assistant house manager, Miss Sandi Harris, Redwood City, Calif.; standards, Miss Mary Beth Van Cleave, Silverton; and fire warden, Miss Myrna Hoy, Newberg.