

Pilot 'Doesn't Know' Why Airship Crashed

Alters His Story About Failure Of Power

NEW YORK (AP)—Capt. Alva R. Marsh says he doesn't know what caused his airliner to crash 12 seconds after takeoff. The crash claimed 20 lives.

"I was looking at the instruments at the time. They were all working properly," he added. Marsh's Northeast Airlines plane, a giant DC-8A with 102 persons aboard, crashed and burned Friday night on Rikers Island in the East River after taking off from LaGuardia Field.

Haiti Expels 2nd Top Man In 2 Months

Pierre-Louis Bows Out As Prexy in Face of Strike Threat

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Bowing to demands of politicians, Joseph Nemours Pierre-Louis reportedly quit as provisional president last night in the midst of Haiti's colorful pre-Lenten carnival.

It was the second time in less than two months the post was vacated. Pierre-Louis' resignation followed radio broadcasts by two of the seven candidates for the presidency in this spring's elections threatening a general strike today if the Provisional President did not step down.

3rd American Reporter Out Of Red China

MOSCOW (AP)—The third American newsman to defy the State Department's ban on travel in Red China has returned to Moscow.

William Worthy of the Baltimore Afro-American declined to make any comment on his arrival by plane from Peiping. He was expected to spend several days in the Soviet capital before leaving for home.

The other two newsmen, correspondent Edmund Stevens and photographer Phil Harrington of Look magazine, returned in late January. The State Department had announced in December the passports of all three would be revoked. However, the American Embassy reportedly was instructed not to take any action on their passports.

Polygamy Ban Urged RABAT, MOROCCO (AP)—The weekly magazine of the powerful Moroccan independence party urged today that harems and polygamy be banned from Morocco.

Fumes Fell 12 in Church

ROBINSON, Ill. (AP)—Fumes from an oil heater in a church basement overcame a Sunday school teacher and 11 children yesterday and the incident was described by a pastor as "the work of the devil."

The Rev. William Frank Sipes, pastor of the Full Gospel Assembly Church, discovered the victims when he opened the classroom door. He summoned aid from others in the church and the children and teacher, Jack Wells, were taken outdoors.

Texas Indian Fighter Dies

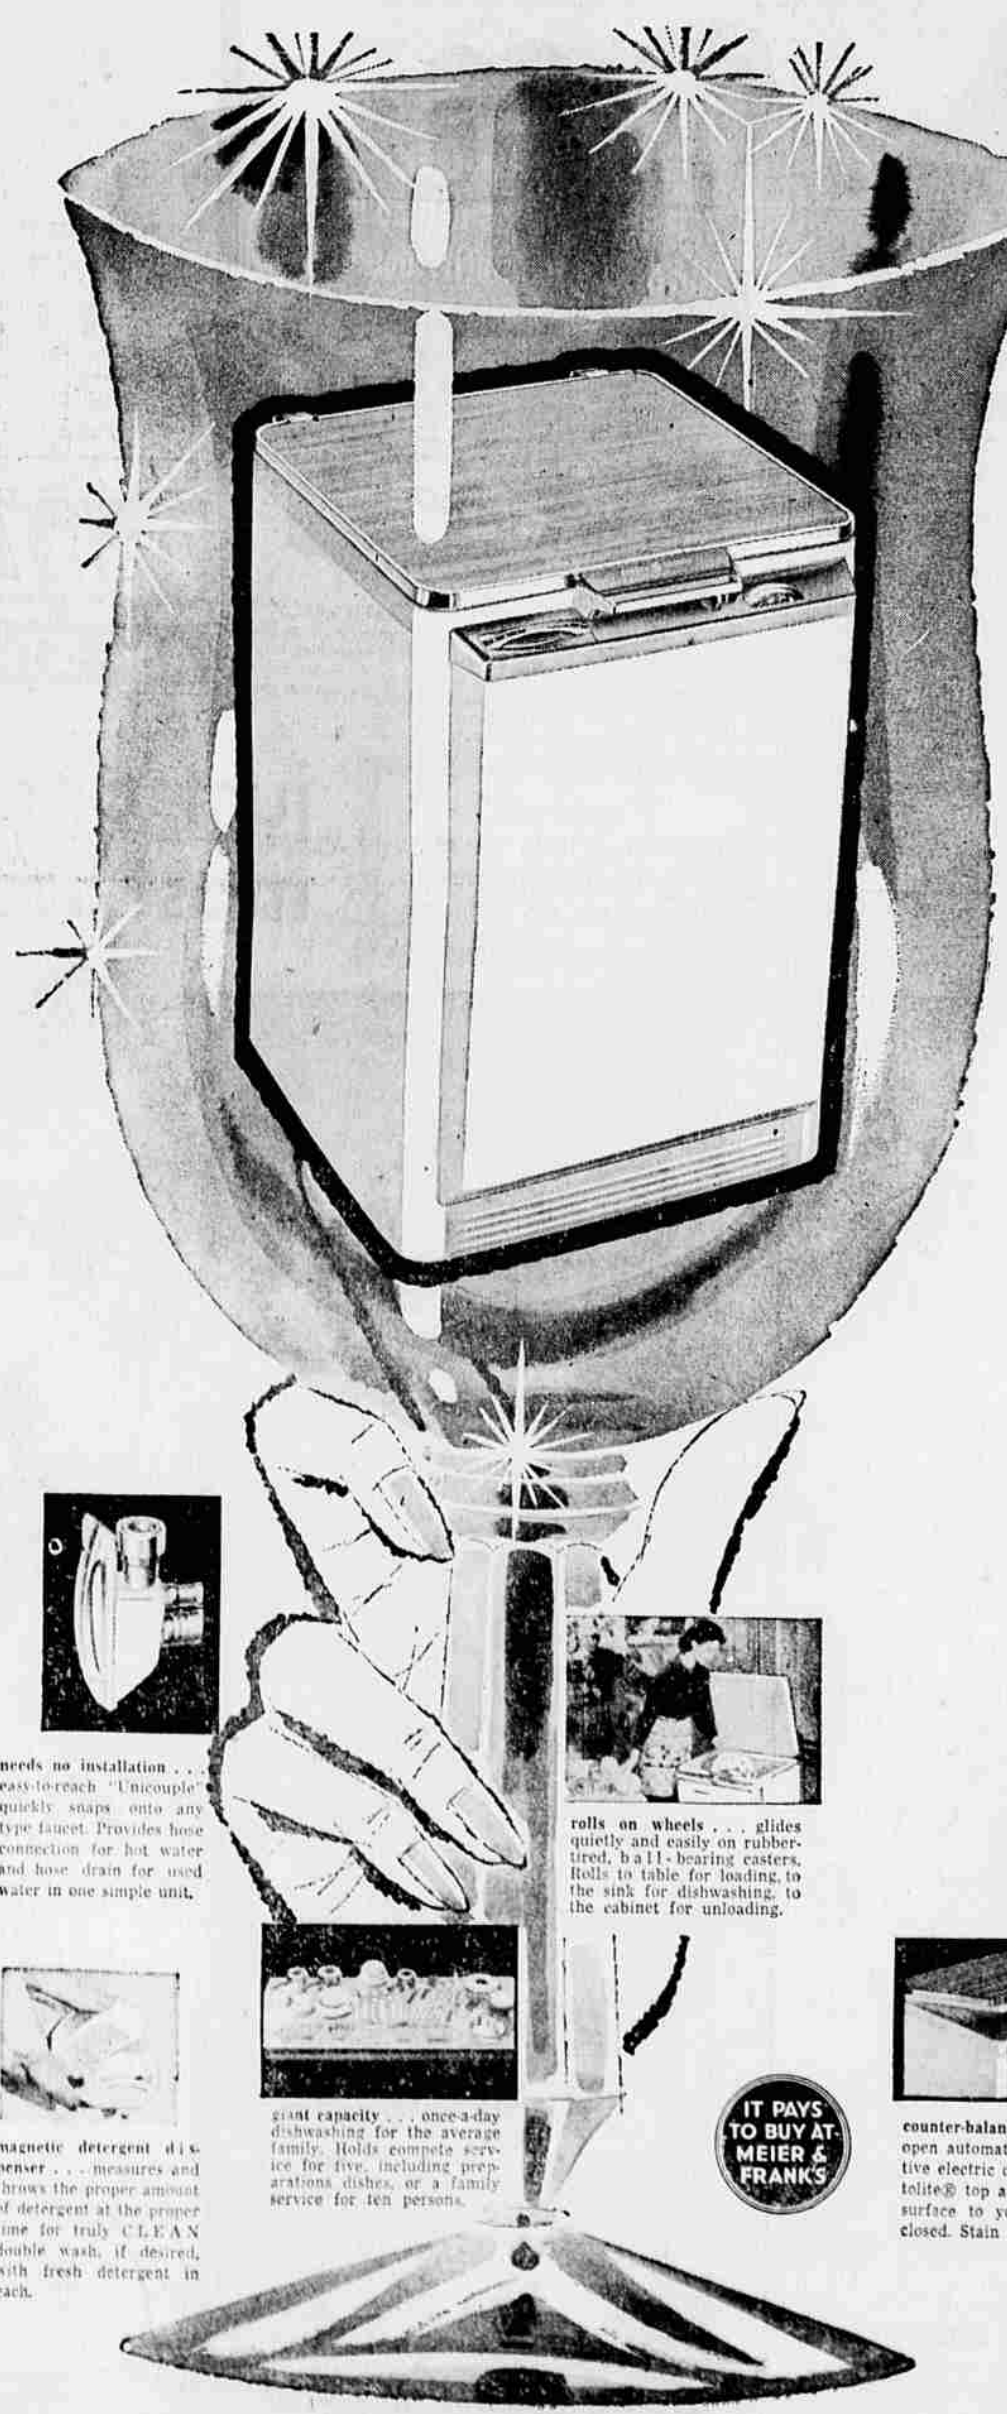

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Harry H. Halsell, 96, trail driver, Indian fighter, and author who credited his long life to numerous guns and the ability to use them, died quietly in his home here yesterday.

Halsell, who said he got his first six-shooter when he was 7, was born Oct. 1, 1860, in Clarksville, Tex., and ranched in Texas and New Mexico many years.

Later he became an author and wrote nine books, including an autobiography, about life on the cattle trails in the 19th century.
