

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

Wedding Dated for Feb. 16

Announced for Saturday, February 16, is the date for the wedding of Miss Rosalie Schnerber and William F. Schmidt.

The ceremony will be solemnized at 10 o'clock in the morning in St. Louis Catholic church at St. Louis, the Rev. G. Scheffold officiating. The reception following will be in the parish hall.

Miss Mary Manion of Mount Angel is to be maid of honor. Miss Joann Michels of Mount Angel is to be bridesmaid and young Miss Mary Schnerber will be junior bridesmaid for her sister. Alan Schmidt is to be best man for his brother.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schnerber of Gervais and Mr. Schmidt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schmidt of Mount Angel. The engagement of the young couple was announced last spring.

Chairmen Listed for St. Vincent de Paul Benefit on Feb. 25

Chairmen for the annual benefit style show of St. Vincent de Paul Parents' club on February 25 are being announced.

The show will be at 8 o'clock that evening in the Knights of Columbus hall, Johnson's to show the fashions. Cards will be played after the style show.

Reservations may be telephoned to either Mrs. Edward Salsstrom, EM 2-0643, or Mrs. D. Robertson, EM 2-1010.

The chairmen include: Mrs. Al Schroeder, programs; Mrs. Conrad Prange, publicity; Mrs. Leo Deutsch, decorations; Mrs. Thomas Leluck, Mrs. Lilla May O'Connor, refreshments; Mrs. Van Bean, kitchen; Mrs. Al Pierce; Mrs. Robert Pitzer, prizes; Mrs. Edward Salsstrom, Mrs. D. Robertson, tickets; Mrs. Robert Schriener, models.

Van Dells Are Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Van Dell were honored on their 14th wedding anniversary at the Home-standers Square Dance club "hoedown" last week at the Izaak Walton League hall. The third annual hoedown of the club brought visitors from Portland and from cities in Lincoln, Yamhill, Polk and Marion counties. More than 200 square dancers participated in the event.

Vale Priest, club president, presented the Van Dells with a tiered wedding cake and a tablecloth in the club's colors of tan and brown on which was embroidered the club's emblem, a log cabin. Names of all members were embroidered around the edge of the cloth. Mr. Van Dell is caller and instructor for the club.

A new square dance class is being sponsored for beginners at the Izaak Walton hall, starting February 7. The Van Dells will instruct the new class and all interested couples are invited to join the group.

Shrine Conducts Initiation Rites

Initiation ceremonies were conducted by Friendship shrine of White Shrine of Jerusalem Saturday evening at the Scottish Rite temple. Initiates were James W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Martin and Mrs. Leona B. Ballou. Mrs. James W. Brown became a member through affiliation.

Guests of the shrine were Mr. and Mrs. William Lessard of Shedd.

Mrs. Leslie Wadsworth was in charge of decorations which were of red and white carnations, hearts and red candles for the Valentine season.

The dining room committee included Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wilson, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Conner, Merle Travis, Mrs. Mildred Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tueski.

Marriage Event of Jan. 25 at Stevenson

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Merth of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Darla Rose Merth, to Robert Lee Cross, son of Mrs. Susie Cross and of Woodford Cross, all of Salem.

The wedding was an event of January 25 at Stevenson, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Merth attended the wedding.

The couple will live in Salem.

SHERIDAN (Special) — Mrs. Fred Spooner entertained her bride club, Thursday, when Mrs. Harold Burch and Mrs. Sam Houser held high scores. Mrs. Charles Cinnamon, the slam prize. Guests were Mrs. Clarence Burdick, Mrs. Fern Eberhart and Mrs. Sam Houser.

Design for Spring—A silk muslin in pink and green apple blossom print on a white background made its debut in Paris fashion show, presented by Chanel. (AP Wirephoto)

Spring Fashions—These are two offerings from the 1957 spring collection of Parisian fashion designer Chanel. At left is a pink woolen suit with a multicolored printed silk blouse. At right is a golden brocade suit, the jacket for which is hemmed with a navy blue velvet ribbon. (AP Wirephoto)

Millinery Class at YWCA Is Planned

A millinery class is being organized at the YWCA to enable women to make new hats for spring.

Mrs. Lenamie Schimenek, who was a milliner in San Francisco preceding her Salem residence, will be the instructor.

On Tuesday evening, February 5, at 7:30 o'clock, Mrs. Schimenek will give a free introductory lesson at which she will show designs which may be copied and discuss materials. Any woman may attend this meeting without obligation.

The class will start the following Tuesday, meeting weekly for six weeks.

SHERIDAN (Special) — Mrs. Fred Boreman began a series of coffee chats in Sheridan last week, when she had as guests, Mesdames Kenneth Knutson, Robert Hughey, Bert Webster, Hugh Cooley, Lois Tatom, Harold Fuller, W. I. Wilbur and Fred Spooner. Each one present is to serve coffee to several guests to continue the chain.

SHERIDAN (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Lulu Bockes and Mrs. Rose Thompson were honored last week on their birthdays with a no-host dinner at the home of Mrs. Walter Sohrweid. Other guests were Mrs. Ed Sohrweid of McMinnville, Mrs. Elmer Sohrweid of Lafayette, Mrs. Tony Bromone, Mrs. Leon French of Rickreall, and Mrs. Earl Evans.

Betrothal Told

SHERIDAN (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McKenny of Hopewell have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Sharon Lee, to Roland Simantel of Sheridan, son of Mrs. Agnes Morrison of Tigard and Ernest Simantel of Newberg.

The bride-elect is a senior at the Amity high school, and Mr. Simantel is employed at U. S. Plywood in Willamina. No date has been set for the wedding.

SHERIDAN (Special) — Plans were made last week by the Sheridan Eastern Star chapter to entertain the residents of the Masonic home in Forest Grove on March 3. The Masons will join the group to help entertain.

Miss Carothers Is Bride

The Valentine theme marked the wedding of Miss Carol L. Carothers and George H. Robinson, Sunday afternoon, the couple exchanging their vows at a service in the First Methodist church at 3 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh F. Carothers and Mr. Robinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Robinson.

White chrysanthemums and stock, red carnations and red bows were used in decorating, along with white candles and hearts.

Dr. Brooks H. Moore officiated at the service. Mrs. Laird Sutton and Miss Shirley Spotts sang. Prof. Josef Schmecker played the organ.

The bride wore a dress of Alencon lace and satin, styled in princess lines. The bodice was of lace with scalloped neckline and long sleeves, and there was a large satin bow at back. There was an overtrain of lace on the chapel train. The headdress of satin, lace and pearls held in place the fingertip illusion veil. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of red roses with a shower of white satin ribbons and silver hearts. Mr. Carothers gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Loretta Horsley was honor attendant. She wore a princess dress of red taffeta, fashioned with cowl neckline, empire waist and flared skirt. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white carnations centered with red ones, and falling from it streamers of white satin with red velvet hearts.

Mrs. Lyle Bruff and Mrs. Gregg

Ginther, twin sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Both wore princess style dresses of red taffeta and carried bouquets like that of the maid of honor.

Catlie Smith, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a full skirted taffeta frock. R. Dale Carothers, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Peter Meyers, Gregg Ginther and Vilas Royce, Jr.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with large white collar, white accessories and corsage of red roses and white hyacinths. The bridegroom's mother wore a light brown suit with pink accessories and corsage of pink roses and hyacinths.

The reception following was in the church parlors. Red and white flowers, again in the Valentine theme, were used in decorating. Mrs. Wilbur Hobart of Woodburn and Mrs. Irvin Hobart of Nashville, both aunts of the bride, cut the cake and poured. Assisting were Mrs. Roy Smith, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Joe Hains of Lebanon, aunt of the bridegroom; Miss Betty Simral, Miss Carol Brandt, Miss Katherine Brandt, the latter two cousins of the bride, Miss Gail Richardson, Mrs. Henry Branson, Mrs. Francis Rawlins.

For traveling the bride wore a turquoise sheath dress with white coat and accessories and corsage of red and white carnations.

Following a trip to the Oregon and California beaches the couple will be at home at 330 Division street while building a new home in the Hayesville area.

Are Newlyweds — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lee Howard (Della May Schindler), above, were married recently at Dallas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schindler and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Howard. The couple will reside in Dallas. (McEwan studio picture)

Betrothal Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boedigheimer have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Darlene Boedigheimer, to Donald Gescher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gescher.

All are of Stayton.

No date has been set for the wedding.

FROM Portland comes news of the birth of a daughter, Sarah Ann, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weidmayer, born on January 21. Mr. Weidmayer is a former Salem resident. Also welcoming the little miss are two brothers, Rickie and Brad.

SHERIDAN (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Lester Oldham were honored last week when a group gathered at their new home for a housewarming. They were presented with a gift by the group. Cards were played during the evening and refreshments served.

SHERIDAN (Special) — Mrs. Francis Thompson was installed as president of the FL club, at the January meeting. Other new officers are Mrs. Eugene Small, vice president; and Mrs. Frank Pratt, secretary-treasurer.

Guests were Mrs. Doris Hopson, Mrs. Melvin Bockes, Mrs. Roy Ellis and Mrs. Paul Pershall.

At the February meeting, a no host supper will be served and "secret pals" will be revealed. Mrs. Roscoe Neely and Mrs. Perry Newton will be hostesses.

Sewing Class Dated

GERVAIS (Special) — The adult education program at the Gervais Union High School under the supervision of Leonard Kunzuan, is offering a beginners sewing class starting Tuesday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Ethel Brethaupt will teach the course which consists of 10 classes for the fee of $5. Students should register before Tuesday evening by phoning the school. Registration also will be at 7:30 p.m. the evening of the class.

To Wed Soon—Miss Patricia Ann Ramseyer, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Ramseyer, has announced her engagement to Donald L. Chappel, son of Mrs. Merle L. Chappel of Seattle. The wedding is to be February 24. (Donn's studio picture)

100% NYLON JERSEY

Rite-Fit Stroller

in Our Honeycomb Print

only $12⁹⁵

Sizes 14 1/2 to 24 1/2 and 12 to 20

The dress that's all things wonderful! Mallinson's rich nylon jersey, that washes quickly, sheds wrinkles while it drips-dry, needs no ironing (packs in the tiniest space, too). The long front zipper, that's such a blessing when you're in a hurry to dress. It's your happiest, prettiest fashion—anywhere you go.

Just received! This "exclusive with Miller's" Rite-Fit Stroller dress just arrived and will be on display in the fashion department Monday.

You'll find your Rite-Fit Stroller only at

Miller's
"THE BEST PLACE TO SHOP . . . AFTER ALL"

School Colors — Make the blazer of denim-stitch on rickrack braid in school colors. You can also make the teddy bear, dressed in school-color overalls.

Today's Menu

FAMILY SUPPER
A moist loaf of good flavor and texture; any leftover will be wonderful for ham sandwiches.
Smoked Boneless Pork Shoulder Butt
Sweet Potatoes Beverage
Homemade Mustard
Molasses Oatmeal Bread
Fruit Salad Beverage

MOLASSES OATMEAL BREAD
Ingredients: 1/4 cup boiling water, 1/2 cup rolled oats (regular or quick-cooking), 1/2 cup shortening, 1/4 cup light or dark molasses, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1 package dry active yeast, 1/4 cup warm (near 105 degrees) water, 1 egg, 2 1/2 cups sifted flour.

Method: Stir boiling water, rolled oats, shortening, molasses and salt together until shortening melts; cool to lukewarm. Sprinkle yeast into warm water; stir until dissolved; stir into lukewarm rolled oats mixture. Add egg; beat with a spoon until blended. Stir in flour gradually until blended and place in lightly greased bowl. Cover and chill 2 hours. Shape chilled dough into loaf; place in a greased loaf pan (9 1/2 by 5 1/2 by 2 1/2); cover. Let rise in warm place (90 to 85 degrees) until double in bulk (about 2 hours). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour.

First Communion Articles
Dresses & Veils
Religious Gifts For All Occasions
Mission Supplies And Etc.

THE ROSE GIFT SHOP
2005 Fairgrounds Rd. — Ph. EM 2-4943

The ideal overnight lubricant

Its name is Special Formula Emollient. It's the only lubricant your dry skin needs because it has synergistic action to increase its softening, smoothing benefits. It flows on and never leaves an oily trace behind. It's the ideal overnight lubricant as you'll agree once you try it. $5.00, $8.50, $15.00. All plus tax.

Charles of the Ritz
Miller's
The Best Place to Shop . . . After All