When Cupid readies himself for action February 14 at South Salem, Girls League members will be close at hand to help the chubby little matchmaker "hit the bull's eye". Cupid's helpers will handle the typing and distribution of hundreds of Valentines, romantic and humorous Valentine greetings styled like a telegram.

Viv Greider, senior, is chairman of this year's Valentine exchange. Potential message senders will have Monday and Tuesday to turn in their Valentines. "Long fellows" who have managed to compose a rhyme will be able to have it typed for a nickel and sent to any student at South or North Salem. Money from the project will go into the Girls League treasury.

The boy who receives the most Valentines will be crowned "King of Hearts" at the annual Valentine assembly which is being planned by Marilyn Zeller, with assistance of the rally squad.

Sweetheart Dance
St. Valentine's day will also be celebrated in Saxonville by the Home Ec club "Sweetheart Dance" which is to take place Thursday during noon hour and home room. A couple from each grade have been elected by the Home Ec club members to hold the title of "Sweethearts of South Salem". Those attending the dance will cast a ballot for their favorite pair.

Senior candidates are Ted Foxley and Delores Dallas; juniors are Al King and Judy Atwood; and sophomores are Pete Melin and Barbara Glodt.

By playing such selections as "St. Louis Blues", "Go", "Rip It Up", and "Hound Dog", the Saxon Pep Band, under the direction of Wally Johnson, won an honorary first place award of $25 in the Oregon Hi-Club Jamboree in Portland, February 2. The 18 member band was competing with talent from 19 Portland and Salem schools. The prize money will be used to help pay the debt on uniforms and buy new sheet music for the group. Later in the spring the Pep Band will appear at the Portland Civic auditorium with Eddie Fisher.

Traffic Meeting Conducted
Student representatives and faculty advisers met Tuesday with Dr. George Martin, assistant superintendent of Salem schools, to discuss safety in student driving and the possibility of starting a course in driver's education at North and South Salem high.

Seemless to Act
"Wurzel-Fummery", an English comedy, will be dramatized by members of the Scenic club, under the direction of Miss Margaret Burroughs, on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week in the Little Theater. The six member cast includes Jim Walls as Robert Crawshaw, a member of parliament; Marilyn Carr as Margaret Crawshaw; Peggy Coe as Viola Crawshaw; Herb Bara as Richard Meriton, also a member of Parliament; Danny Quinn as Dennis Clifton; and Bettie Fucii as the maid.

The Announcers club, a service organization which operates the public address system for school games, dances, and public performances, sponsored a noon dance, the "Announcers' Bounce", Thursday, to raise money for tools. The tools will be used to complete a kit so that club members will be able to do their own repair work on P.A. equipment.

The committee for the dance consisted of the club officers, Tom Brown, president; Ed Griffiths, vice president; Don Norris, 2nd vice president; and Bill Jacobson, secretary.

N.A.S.S. to Induct
The induction of new members from the junior class was discussed Tuesday at a meeting of the National Athletic Scholarship Society. This organization is made up of athletes and scholars from high schools across the nation. In order to be considered for membership, a boy must be a varsity letterman with a grade point average of 3.0 or above for three consecutive semesters and must be able to meet certain standards set by the club members.

Forum club officers met at the home of club adviser Don Empey Monday night to plan a calendar of events for February and the first week of March. Several meetings were scheduled featuring speeches by state government officials.

Barbara Henken, recently elected secretary of the Oregon Youth Council, briefly outlined for student council members Tuesday the main points of the Youth Code which is being made by the Oregon council. The code is a pattern of living which the council feels the teenagers in Oregon should follow, and it includes basic rules for home entertaining, parent- youth planning, general dating, driving, drinking, and smoking.

Also at the council session, Karen Ringolda was appointed building and grounds committee chairman for the second semester. Valentine festivities will begin early for Salem high schoolers with the Hi-Y Sweetheart formal Saturday night in South Salem's east balconies. Both South and North have nominated three candidates for Hi-Y Sweetheart, one representing each Hi-Y club. Sara Allen, Marcia Humphrey, and Beverly Bishop are South's candidates; and Kathy Evans, Judith Larsen,

A poster in the front hall at North heralded the Associated Student Body movie, "Daddy Long Legs", which was held yesterday. Proceeds from the film went into the A.S.B. treasury for their various projects.

The movie was the last in a series of four shows presented by each of the classes as well as the A.S.B.

Russell Wilmer was named "Teacher of the Month" last week by the Future Teachers of America Club. He is the instructor of the band class, conducts the pep band, and assists with the drill team.

Student Body President Steve Jackson, opened the March of Dimes campaign last Tuesday when he related the importance of the drive to the students. Collections were taken in the home rooms Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Mills College Representative
A representative of Mills College was at the school Wednesday morning to talk with interested Junior and Senior girls. She told about the requirements and curriculum as well as the functions and activities of the college.

The Sophomore class held a special council meeting last Tuesday to discuss plans for the coming Sophomore class Talent Show, to be held March 8. President Jody Bourne informed the council representatives that they should begin recruiting talent in their home rooms. The Junior and Senior classes will present their separate shows later in the spring.

Sponsor Skating Party
The Junior class went against tradition Tuesday evening when they sponsored a skating party for themselves. Each of the classes are allowed one party during the year which is usually a dance but, according to class president Joy Brown, they wanted to do something different.

About 125 juniors and their guests attended the affair which was held at Skateland.

The Sigma Lambda chapter of the National Honor Society recently held elections and chose Dick Buchanan as the new president. Officers serving with him are Jim Hedden, vice - president; Sharon Jensen, secretary; and Ralph Morgan, treasurer.

Faculty Tea Given
A faculty tea was given Wednesday in honor of Prabhakar Pendharker, an exchange teacher from Negpur, India, who concluded his visit at North this week. He has been here this past month observing the school curriculum and teaching methods. A gift was presented to him as a token of remembrance. In turn he gave the school several of the oil paintings he had done during his stay. One of these is a portrait of Miss Mary Eyre, a history teacher.

Chairman of the committee which arranged the tea was Mrs. Hope Edwards. Assisting her were Miss Margaret Simms, Robert Sanders and Stewart Leek.

The Girls Letter Club held a potluck dinner in the cafeteria Wednesday evening.

Girls who received the required number of points awarded for participating in the Girls Athletic Association sports were initiated. They included Pat Braden, Edith Brown, Mary Campbell, Betty Caples, Martha Creighton, Joyce Cheney, Karen Day, Jo Ann De Sart, Bev Frey, Gail Galely, Annabelle Gordon, Judy Harold, Helen Hewitt, Loydonna Hollen, Sylvia Jessup, Carol Johnson, Karen Kingston, Belle Lappen, Billie Lapschies, Sandy Lloyd, Beth Lockenour, Janet Mesmer, Colleen Pauly, Linda Pope, Margaret Stout and Ann Yost.

Leslie Jr. High
Rehearsals for the first talent show of the year were begun this week by a cast of ninth graders. As in past years, each grade will present a talent show during the second semester, and late in the spring the best acts from all three shows will be chosen to entertain at Parrish in the annual exchange talent show.

Featured as the setting for the ninth graders' parade of talent will be a night club, with an impersonator of Desi Arnez as master of ceremonies. Members of the art classes are making the backdrops. The first talent display is scheduled for February 15, and is under the supervision of Miss Helen Fletcher. Eighth graders are already beginning to make plans for their show.

Girls Beat Faculty
An eight year winning streak was broken Monday when the Leslie Girls upset the faculty team 20-18 in a see - saw two minute overtime. Students cheered with growing enthusiasm throughout the close battle, their excitement being climaxed by the Girls' surprise victory. Not since 1949 has a varsity team been able to top the faculty in any of the annual exhibition games, staged to raise funds for the March of Dimes.

Approximately $150 was collected from the three faculty - varsity games for the march against polio. Carol Robb was elected second semester president of Leslie's Junior Red Cross council at the first meeting of the group Tuesday. Assisting her will be Penny Powell, vice president; Jacquie Graber, secretary; and Glenn Knickerbocker, treasurer.

Magician Entertains
Is there such a thing as sorcery? Some students were skeptical some believing Tuesday when Paul Kerr, modern magician, demonstrated "elevator vision", made a rope stand up, and pulled scarfs from an empty tube. Mr. Kerr's skill in supernatural art enter-

Lights! Camera! Action! A make-believe television stage came to life today as the second of the four class plays was staged by the senior class.

The scene of the play takes place in the home of two television fans, Jim Fillet and Gene Gruchalla, who fight over the different TV programs. As the scene opens "Gunsmoke" is tuned in. Jim Ritter plays Matt Dillon, and Larry Hamilton plays Chester. Cass Hershfeld and Dave Kremer act as the villains. As the scene ends, a fictitious product is advertised by Don Nordone and Mickey Earls.

As the viewers to a different channel they get "What's My Line?" Dick Lefor acted as moderator. On the panel are Glen Morris, Torban Coffey, Don Wornli and Jim Kudna. Guests on the show were Dale Rock, a Swedish logger, and Jim Demers as "Little Richard."

Again the channel changed to the Gillette Cavalcade of Sports, with Tom Bischoff, the announcer, and the heavyweight fighters were Joe Endres and Dave Guzman. Jerry Moorman and Melvin Lulay were seconds. Jerry Nash and Tom Heinzl were ring managers. Stage manager for the acts was Gene Griepentrog.

Movie Staged
Last Monday, all Serra students saw "War and Peace" at the Hollywood theater. The special showing for Serra and Sacred Heart students gave a historical story on the invasion of Russia by Napoleon.

Annual Work
The annual staff is working overtime to meet its deadline by the weekend. Jim Fillet, Tom Hiroons and Eddie Archer report that they hope to have 30 per cent of the annual done by that time. The advertising and patron drive neared its mark with Don Nordone as the outstanding salesman of the drive.

The Alpine Ski club of Serra saw the ski country of Canada last Wednesday during lunch hour, when the club showed a movie to all club members. President Mickey Earls said that they are planning another ski trip soon.

Students to Attend Portland Confab
Old and new officers and representatives to Willamette university's panhellenic organization will meet in Portland Sunday morning for a conference on rushing procedures and problems particular to the university's panhellenic system.

Speaker at the day-long conference, which will be held in the Campbell Court hotel, is Mrs. Gertrude Hauk Fariss of Portland, national chairman of college panhellenic organizations.

The student body in two separate assemblies.

Girls gym classes elected basketball team captains this week and the teams entered the round robin tournament bearing titles of everything from "Laurie's Lollipopsters" to "Little Mona Nucleosomes."

The winning team from each class will play off at noon with teams from the same grade, then the grade champs will play against each other to determine the all-school girls' basketball champions.

In another phase of girls' sports, members of all three grades have been participating in intramural bowling for the past four weeks. This sport, which lasts ten weeks, will count toward G.A.A. points for ninth graders and intramural award certificates for the seventh and eighth grade bowlers.

Highest bowler last week was Carole Krueger, 8th, scoring 133. Judy Drager was top for the 9th graders and Raechal Asberry for the 7th.

A play night was held in the school gym Saturday night Jan. 19, for the entire student body. Mr. Tows, Mr. Funk, Mrs. Jones, and Mrs. Hedberg were in charge of the evening. A time of playing volleyball, shooting baskets, and playing ping-pong was concluded with devotions.

Honor roll for the first semester has been announced with Larry Merk topping the list with 3.52 average. Others who made at least a 3.5 average were Evelyn Lowen, Darlene Berg, Stan Olsen, Evadeane Rupp, Elise Steingrube, Jackie Kight, Jerry Dick, Alice Friesen, Ronnie Goertzen, Sharon McClannahan, Susann Miles, Judie Brooks, Marilyn Collett, Verda Wall, Shirley Wiens, Betty Kopp, Vi Ruby, Sharon Goertzen, Howard Ediger, Elvera Wall, Adele Welty, Joan Ediger, Shirley Neulefeld, Carol Ratzlaff, and Jeanie Super.

Annual Progresses
The annual staff has announced that 50 pages will be completed by February 15. This will make the annual half complete. Jim Dalke, editor, and Adele Welty, assistant editor, and the entire staff have been working feverishly to complete the annual and so far all deadlines have been met.

Coming soon will be the annual sweetheart banquet. This year it will be held at Pine Inn, 6:45 p.m. February 15. Tickets are on sale in the office this week.

Each year near St. Valentines day the Pep club sponsors the sweetheart banquet, which is a formal affair. Several pep club girls will be nominated by the letterman's club for queen and princesses. The pep club will nominate the king and princess from the letterman's club. The student body will then make their choice as to whom they want to reign over the Sweetheart Banquet of 1957.

Skating Party
Junior-high students have been enjoying various activities. A skating party was held at Skateland, Jan. 18. Fifty-seven students attended the party and they were all invited over to Earl Beckers house for refreshments following the skate.

Junior high students and advisers toured the Capitol building. They visited the legislative meeting that was in session and were honored by being able to visit the Governor's office.

A 4-H forestry meeting was held January 25. Flag Salute was led by Wilma Jantzen. Leonard Cook was introduced as assistant leader. Leader of the club is Mrs. Hassler, junior high teacher. Officers of the club are Lois Hiebert, president; Elaine Heinrichs, vice president; and Jimmy Becker, secretary. A different leader is chosen for each meeting. This meeting's leader was Jeanette Becker. There are 39 members enrolled in the club.

The senior problems classes with their instructor Mr. Fadel visited the legislature in action February 1. House of representatives was observed in session after which Rep. Joe Rogers explained different procedures and answered questions. Senator Walter Leth also spoke to the class and answered questions concerning the senate.

A guided tour was made of the state Capitol building including explanations of the paintings.
