By A. C. JONES Capital Journal Sports Editor

Willamette university's basket-ball Bearcats enjoy the refreshing air up in second place so much today that they intend to whip College of Idaho again tonight to stay there a while longer.

Friday night's red hot shooting

NORTHWEST CONFERENCE

	STA	NDINGS
	Linfield Willamette Pacific Lewis and Clark College of Idaho Whitman Friday results lege of Idaho 5	W L 3 3 4 3 5 4 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5	Pet. .667 .571 .555 .444 .400 .200 .7. Col-
!	man 70.	,	117,000

(.492) rather convinced the prowling Coyotes that there are two halves to every game and that the second half bears an equal weight. The final score: 87-56 for Willamette. The halftime score: 38-37 for Willamette.

for Willamette.
With their fast break at its best of the season, the Bearcats shot
.543 in the second half, which found the sooring 49-19 against the visitors even though the Willamette reserves played the last eight minutes.

minutes.
Can Hold 2nd With Win
The Northwest conference standings will find Willamette still in second place, if it wins tonight, even though Pacific should topple Lewis & Clark tonight. Linfield strengthening its clammy grip on first by beating Whitman as expected, meets the cellar-dwellers again tonight before sending Whitman over to play at Willamette. man over to play at Willamette man over to play at Willamette.

Monday night.

Thus, Coach Johnny Lewis' improving and sparkling crew will be meeting lower division teams for the next five games before closing the season with single games against the upper crust trio, Linfield, Lewis & Clark and Pacific.

For Coach J. A. "Babe" Brown of the Coyotes, the first half was fun while it lasted. His team, making the most of difficult shots and rebounding right with Willamette, trailed by 11 points at 30-19 but in the last seven minutes of the first half made the veteran coach proud and pulled within one point at the intermission.

Neil Causbie had 12 points in that half

Neil Causbie had 12 points in

C. of I. quickly ran into a drouth in the second half and in the first five minutes fell behind 51-41, then in the next five minutes got only two free them. minutes got orly two free throws while the rampaging 'Cats were spinning the scoreboard figures for 14 to make it 65-45. Willamette shooting was sensa-(Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

We'll Take That Ball, Please

College of Idaho's Gary Moore (in black with baskethall) isn't giving up to the three "bullies" from Willamette in this floor action here last night. Bearcats, in white, from left to right are Tom Johns, around from behind Moore). Willamette

Linfield Clicks Sec. 2, Page 1

chamer's point production for

0	pointern management	A CALCON
0	Whitman (70)		(75) Linfiel
8	Greable (2)	F	(22) Machame
•	Johnson (22)	F	(18) Koffor
	Green (7)	C	Harm
$		G	(14) Rile
	Parker (a)	G	(6) Brow
	Subs: Whitm	an-E	Beck (12), Chris
24	man (12). Linfi	eld-1	Woods (5), Hugh

Dayton Knocks Off Yawama League Foe

Pirates, Bowman YAWAMA LEAGUE STANDINGS Share First Place

The Sherwood Bowmen and Dayton Pirates share first place in the torrid Yawama League basketball race as a result of Friday night's activity.

activity.

Sherwood, Dayton, and the Willamina Bulldogs entered Friday's play in a three-way tie for the loop lead, but Sherwood dumped Yamhill's Tigers, 50-39, at Sherwood; Dayton upended Willamina, 45-34 at Dayton; Banks lost to Philography at Section 18 Banks, and the Sambard Section 18 Banks Section 18 Bank

PHILOMATH 46, BANKS 36
The Philomath Warriors, held to a 22-all halltime count by the underdog Banks Braves, rallied in the second half to wrap up the hall game. Lynn Funk tallied 17 for the winners. Bobby Parsons hit 11 for Banks.

the winners. Hobby Parsons lift II for Banks
Philomath also swept the Bee Prelim.

ALLEN SCADERT S. ARITY 45
Bob Funks Crusaders, obviously Bob Funks Crusa

Sat., Feb. 9, 1957

The Sportmeter By A. C. JONES, Capital Journal Sports Editor

The Elkhart Express Coming Glenn Cunningham always required more time to warm up before a mile race than any other distance runner of his time, because of the scar tissue on his legs burned badly at the age of 8. He stopped in our home town (Chanute, Kans.) once in the mid-1930s to work out.

ran six miles at a jog around our dirt half-mile track, did calisthenics for another half hour, then ran some more. It must have been his tapering off day. We'll never forget that his barrel chest wasn't torget that his oarret closes was it heaving after his long run or how muscled the calf of his leg was. We have his autograph, too, acquired after he won the Kansas Relays mile at Lawrence. Somebody told us once that Cunningham learned to run by chasing jack-rabbits near his Elkhart, Kans., home but we don't believe that Anyway, Dr. Cunningham (he has a Ph.D.) is speaking in Salem Sunday evening at the First Christian church and again Tuesday noon at North Salem high school.

And we'll be there to ask him about those jackrabbits.

Odds and Ends Bobby Martyn, who might be in the New York outfield this summer, is working on his summer, is working on his master's degree by attending Linfield college each fall term. He was with Denver in the American Assn. last year but has the understandable ambition to make the major leagues... He explains that a 10-year veteran of the major leagues... He explains that a 10-year veteran of the major swould get $175 a month for life after reaching 50, McDrel 1011 331 Mo. and for only five years he would get $88 a month starting at age 50. It would take a heap big insurance policy to pay that

JOE LOUIS

. . . taxed for benevolence

West Virginia university knows how to promote an All-American prospect. It has sent out a glossy brochure on "Hot Rod" Huntley, the scoring ace and basketball clown who is being talked about a lot these days. It must have cost a pretty penny but certainly was at Dayton: Banks lost to runner math, 46-5, at Salem and the Sager sage and the first and part 2 model to separate the losy for the Chusder scorees with 2 points each, but Amily 20, and the men of the Basing ways Fisce and Dale Basing 3 model to separate the losy for the Basing 12 points and the Basing 12 points and the Basing 12 points and the separate the losy for the Basing 12 points and the separate the losy for the Basing 12 points and the separate the losy for the Basing 12 points and the separate that the ways a set the section of the Basing 12 points and the set of the Basing 12 points and the section of the Basing 12 points and t at Dayton; Banks lost to Philomath, 46-36, at Banks; and the Samath, 46-36, at Banks; and the Samat ther words, at that time he was fully paid up and the records subtantiate this.

"Joe fought four charity fights that I am positive of while he was in the service, plus the enjoyment that he gave people for free. During this period he donated the purses to Army Relief.

Navy Relief and the USO. From the records it is evident that

(Continued on Page 2, Col 1)

(Continued on Page 2, Col 1)

(Continued on Page 3, Col 1)

Defeats Leaders

Huskies in 50-47 Win; McDaniel Scores 31

By JOHN HARVEY Capital Journal Sports Writer SWEET HOME (Special)—Royce McDaniel, playing as smoothly and efficiently as possible, led the Sweet Home Huskies to a 50.47 win over South Salem here Friday night to put the Saxons in a first place tie with Albany in district orbit.

ight.

McDaniel, the leading scorer in the district, put in 31 points to break his own school record of 30, as the 5-9 mighty mite couldn't be stopped by the Saxons.

The loss snapped an eight game winning streak of the Saxons, but more important it gave them a 5-1 record in district play, the same as Albany's.

First Loss Since December

The Saxons hadn't tasted defeat since December, but the loss was inevitable as McDaniel time and time again gave the Huskies the time again gave the Huskies the spark that shoved his team into a bigger lead.

He capped his performance by getting three free throws in the final 90 seconds that proved to be the winning margin. Sweet Home Coach Lou Scrivens came up with a defense that stop-ped Ron Russell almost complete-came up with a defense that stopped Ron Russell almost completely, as every time the high scoring Saxon got the ball, four Huskles surrounded him. Russell wound up with 12 points, but Dan Moore led the Saxons with 16 points, all coming from the field.

A onchander by Ed Lewis early in the opening period gave the Saxons a 6-5 lead, but that was to be the last time they were to lead during the game. Howard Daniels canned two free throws and McDaniel put in one of his unstoppable jump shots to give the Huskies a three point lead.

With Daniels and McDaniel leading the way and doing all the scoring, Sweet Home took a 19-12 lead at the end of the first quarter. McDaniel had a hot two minutes early in the second quarter when serly in the second quarter when he put in four quick baskets to send his team into a 29-19 lead. South cut it down to 29-24 before McDaniel made two more foul shots to make the halftime score

31-24,

McDaniel had 20 and Daniels 11 in the first half to account for every one of the winners' points. South kept within striking dis-South kept within striking distance the entire third quarter, but at crucial points the ball would hang on the rim before falling out. McDaniel made eight of Sweet Home's 12 points in the quarter, as the Huskies held a 43-35 lead at the start of the final period. Moore made a jump shot and Russell hit on a pair from the foul line to cut the score to 43-39, and after Mike Edgely made a and after Mike Edgely made a lavin for Sweet Home. Russell cancharged with a foul against Mc-Daniel in a wild scramble after the woodburn also w

Sweet H	Sweet Home (50)		(41)	8.	Salem
	GF			G	r	T.	И
Logicy	.1001	4	Lewis	12	्रह्म	- 2	93
McDnel	10.11	33	Moore	8	.0	0	11
Roberts	0 2	2 :	Russell	4	4	4	1:
Doan	0 1	100	Trelstad	813	0	4	93
Daniels	4 5	1 1	Coon	3	0	3	ì
Varrosky	0 0	0 0	Brunnell	0	2	Ö.	83
Sullivan	0.0	1 1	Bayne	1	ò	0	X.
Selber	0 0	0	Thomas	0	n	ñ	Ш
	200	200	Scott	ő	6	- 9	δĝ

It's On the Way for Viking Basket

Bill Lowery of North Salem (right) gets off a jump shot over the outstretched hand of J. W. Phillips of Lebanon here Friday night. Lowery is a junior. North Salem won the District 8 game, 54-33, to hold third place. (Capital Journal Photo)

Mount Angel

Mahony's total was tops for the light. Larry Donley canned 9 for

Gervais also won the Jayvee

Two-Way Tie Set in Capital As Cascade Blasts Stayton less Mt. Angel Preps their seventh

BulldogsNipSerra To Share First; Foxes Win

The Woodburn Bulldogs and Cascade Cougars continued to share top billing in the Capital Conference basketball race by Conference Dasketball race by virtue of victories in Friday nights league action. Host Woodburn defeated the Serra Sabres, 56-51, Cascade overpowered visiting Stayton, 51-33, to knock the Eagles out of a three-way tie for first place; Silverton's Foxes smacked North Marion's Huskies, 54-34, at North Marion; and Gervals de-feated Mt. Angel, 46-28, at Ger-

WOODBURN 56, SERRA 51 another pair of gift tosses the Bulldogs rolled to their seventh league win against a single loss. The Brilliant Basque tallied 27 Within One Point at 46-45 Edgely made a free throw, and Jerry Coon hit on a jump shot to pull South within a point at 46-45 with three minutes left.

The Brilliant Basque tallied 27 North and you to fall the lead. Vic Belleque added
12 to the Woodburn total. Serra's
Altime lead. Vic Belleque added
12 to the Woodburn total. Serra's
14-31.

Denny Frank tallied a like amount.

Woodburn also won the Jayvee

North Marion won the Bee mix,

CASCADE 51, STAYTON 33 The issue was never in doubt as Cascade ground to a 51-33 win over the Stayton Eagles. Cascade held quarter leads of 9-8, 24-20, and 40-27. Both teams had entered the ballgame tied with Woodburn for first place with doubter for first place with identical 6-1 rec-ords. Jim Uhrhammer led the host quint with 13 points. Tommy Crabtree canned 12 for the losers. Stayton won the Bee game, 46-

SILVERTON 54, NO. MARION 34 Silverton, behind Rex Brown and Dell Weeks, rolled to a wide 21-17 halftime advantage in racking up North Marion's Huskies. Brown and Weeks had 14 points apiece for the winners. Roger Moore led North Marion with 11.

GERVAIS 46, MT. ANGEL 28 Phil Mahony hit 14 points for Gervais, as they handed the win-

shot at the gun to complete the scoring. The South Salem JV's, trailing by 13 points in the third quarter, came from behind to pull out a 39-37 win over the Sweet Home JV's. Bob Hartman led the winners with 12 points. Sweet Home (30) Sweet H

The Falls City Mountaineers took over Marion County B League Mi-nor Division lead by virtue of developments in League action Fri-

Falls City knocked over the Che-VALSETZ 46, SANTIAM 32

Trink's 34-point scoring effort, Other league action saw Oregon School for the Deaf's Panthers paste St. Paul's Buckaroos, 54-46, at St. Paul, and Mill City drop a 32-46 loss to the visiting Valsetz Loggers.

FALLS CITY, 53, CHEMAWA, 43

The Falls City win over Chemawa was the results of the part of the p Scott 0 0 2 0

Totals 15 20 12 50

Totals 15 2

Jones Bags 16

As Froel Selo Santiam Minor Division W

Vikings Trounce ' Lebanon

Warriors Downed 54-33; Viks in Contention

By GENE MAUDLIN
Capital Journal Sports Writer
Using a nearly impenetrable defense and a well-rounded offense to good advantage, North Salem's Vikings rolled to an easy 34-33 victory over Lebanon Friday night in a District 8-A-1 basketball game in the North Salem gym.
The victory left North Salem just one game out of first place in the district on a record of four wins and two losses. The Viks gained as previously unde-feated South Salem lost to Sweet Home, 50-47.

Home, 50-47.

Albany moved into a tic for first with South Salem by trimming Corvallis, 63-38. South and Albany now have 5-1 marks.

North coasted to a 33-14 halftime lead, and, except for the third quarter, successfully staved off every threat Lebanon could muster.

Kent Lammers of the Vikings Kent Lammers of the Vikings topped all scorers with 18 points, eight in each half. Dennis McKee and Homer Wood tallied ten each for North, the same number Lebanon's leading scorer, Jon Pattinson, collected for the night. In the Vikings' good first half, scoring came from nearly every point. Besides Lammers' eight points, Bob Reaves netted eight, Wood had nine and McKee scored six.

consecutive Conference loss.

The Gervais aggregation held a wide 26-9 halftime lead, and eased the rest of the route in flawless ter, the stronger Viks rolled in eight consecutive points on bas-kets by Reaves, Lammers, Wood, then Reaves again while Leba-non's Warriors went scoreless. Lebanon had to do most of its shooting from outside, and none of the Warriors were notably efficient in that department. The Viks jammed up the alley leading to the basket and Lebanon had few open shots from close in.

open snots from close in.

The few times that Warrior guard Terry Blanchat did sneak through on a "pass and go" situation, he was snowed under by the tailer Viks.

Lebanon, whose tallest man, center Pattinson, stood four inches shorter than the 5-6 Vik center, Grant Harter, generally had to be content with one shot as North Totals 19 13 10 51 Totals 21 14 11 56 Free throws missed: Serra 5, Woodburn 6. Halftime score: Serra 47, Woodburn 28. Officials: Vander-Salem overwhelmed the visitors in the rebounding department.

North JV Wins
North Salem's jayvees, down one point at the end of the first quarter, staged big rallies in the second Ward (8) F (11) Whitehead Webh (2) F (10) Speer Crabtree (12) C (13) Uhrhammer Shelton (4) G (8) Harris Garland (5) G (6) Peters Reserves Scoring: Stayton; Champ (2), Cascade; Downer (1), Lyons (2), Officials: Wickert and Johnsrud, and third period to whip the War-rior jayvees, 46-27 in the prelimin-

Silverton (34) (34) North Marion Kout (7) F (3) Lowrick Lynch (9) F (2) Shrock Brown (14) C (11) Moore Zetteberg (6) G (6) Jenes Kuenzi (2) G (6) Itichter Reserves Scoring Silverton; Wedshill (14), Meland (3), N. Marion; Lamb (2) Historia Bialcely and Bates

Jones Bags 16
As Frosh Win

Totals 32 9 14 33 Totals 31 12 14 34
Free Thows Missedt Lebanon 10,
Halftime Score: Lebanon 16, N. Sa183 Officials: Beard and Evans.

MONMOUTH (#) — Hugh Springer scored 22 points to lead the undefeated Oregon Frosh basketball team to its ninth win, 94-45, over the Oregon College of Education junior varsity, Friday night.

Officials: Beard and Evans.

Lebanon JV (27) (46) N. Salem JV
Barnes (2) F (13) Youngouist
James (1) C (18) Selegate
James (1) C (18) Selegate
James (10) C (18) Selegate
James

ATTENTION BOWLERS! CAPITOL ALLEYS

NOW: Open Bowling Mon. and Thurs. Eves., Too!

For the first time in years in Salem we have reserved Monday & Thursday evenings for OPEN PLAY. This is in addition to our regular Saturday and Sunday P.M. & Eve. Open Play. There are NO League Plays at these times. Call reservations early for parties large or small. Bring the family and join the fun. Special mixed doubles 7:30 every Sun. Eve. starting Feb. 10, NOT A LEAGUE. Come when you can-Special Help for Beginners.

- Also ----SNACK BAR—SNOOKER—POCKET BILLIARDS

New Cloth & New Cushions On All Tables FREE INSTRUCTION