Miss Bourne Wed Sunday at Jason Lee Church Service

A bride Sunday evening was Miss Cynthia Louise Bourne, her marriage to James William Tribe of Eugene being solemnized at a service in the Jason Lee Methodist church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Bourne of Salem and Mrs. Tribe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hugh Tribe of Eugene.

Officiating at the 8 o'clock candlelight service was the Rev. E. P. Goulder. Lighting the tapers preceding the service were two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Walter Seifert and Mrs. Rusty Class. They wore pink crystalite, ballerina length frocks, Miss Sharon Anderson of University of Washington was the soloist and Mrs. G. Benedict played the organ.

The bride wore a lace and satin dress. The bodice of chantilly lace was styled with Queen Anne collar. The skirt was of tulle over satin with panels of the lace, and was styled with chapel train. The fingertip veil was arranged from a crown of handclipped lace. The bride carried a Bible covered with an orchid and blue tulle arranged with forget-me-nots. Mr. Bourne gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Sharon Bourne was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a Chantilly lace sheath dress of light blue with overskirt of light and dark blue tulle with lace appliques. She wore a hat matching her dress, and she carried a bouquet of nosegay of blue and white flowers.

Bridesmaids were Miss JoAnn Bourne, sister of the bride, Mrs. Donald Siegmund, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Sharon Anderson. The junior bridesmaid was

Miss Shields Wed Saturday

At a simple home ceremony Saturday evening, Miss Marilyn Kay Shields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shields, was married to Loran S. Hassett, Corvallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley A. Hassett of Grants Pass.

The service was at 8 o'clock, Dr. Brooks H. Moore of the First Methodist church officiating. Candelabras with pink tapers, sprays of pink carnations against a background of huckleberry greens, and floral arrangements of pink carnations and heather formed the decorative setting for the service. Lighting the candles was Miss Ann Halvorsen. Ralph Edward VanHorn sang, Miss Carolyn Burr playing the accompaniment.

The bride wore a full length, handclipped lace over satin dress, fashioned with rounded neckline trimmed with lace flower centers in which were iridescent sequins, long sleeves pointed over the hands, and a bouffant skirt with nylon tulle and panels of lace insets. The fingertip illusion veil was caught to a lace headpiece encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. The bride carried a crescent arm bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Shields gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Patricia Shields was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a pastel frock with corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue dress with matching jacket and corsage of pink carnations.

Hugh F. Hallanan was best man. The bride's mother wore a lace rose dress with corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue dress with matching jacket and corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed the service. Receiving at the door were Mrs. Charles S. Pratt, Miss Carol Warren and Jerry Ackerson. Mrs. Ralph VanHorn cut the cake. Mrs. Wilmer C. Smith, Mrs. Lester Shields, Mrs. Andy Halvorsen, and Mrs. Karl Heinlein presided. Assisting were Mrs. Russell Daulton, Mrs. J. W. Hutchison, Mrs. Earl Bauman.

The couple will be at home in Corvallis, the two attending Oregon State college.

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

A pretty St. Valentine's time party was the farewell coffee given Saturday to honor Mrs. Fred Joehne, who with Mr. Joehne and family, is moving to Portland to live . . . Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Ted Jenny, Mrs. Wallace Cowan and Mrs. Norman Young, the three entertaining at the Jenny home between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. . . . On the door to greet guests was a large Valentine, a white one with a pink lace frill around it, a nosegay of violets nestled in the center, streamers falling from the heart caught with tiny Valentines . . . Low arrangements of violets and other spring blooms decorated the living room . . . The tea table was set with a pink woven cloth, a bit of silver in it, and the centerpiece was an arrangement of pink, blue and white blooms with tulle hearts here and there among the flowers. . . .
