

INDISPENSABLE GIRL

New Booklet Tells All About Today's Secretary

By DOROTHY ROE AP Women's Editor

What is a secretary? Well, of course everybody knows she is what makes the wheels of big business go round, the essential ingredient of industry, the indispensable girl. But the National Secretaries Assn. 222 W. 11th St., Kansas City, Mo., comes up with more detailed definitions in a new booklet, "Calling Professional Secretaries." This is the first of a series of brochures planned by the association, after being flooded with requests. It costs 5 cents. Here's how the association describes a secretary: "An executive assistant who works directly with rather than for an executive... who knows how to work with people... who knows the answers to company problems... protects her employer from interruptions... and has complete mastery of office skills." The brochure outlines the rewards of a secretarial career, in-

Improvements for Town Topic at Club

AMITY (Special) — Women's Civic Improvement club met recently at the home of Mrs. William Osborne with Mrs. Ed Waddell as co-hostess.

The meeting was opened with the serving of a dessert by the hostesses. The business meeting was called to order by club president, Mrs. P. E. Meeker. Mrs. Dorothy Payne led a discussion on "Conservation of Our Natural Resources" as requested by the County Federation conservation chairman. The discussion was based on the conservation of timber and water fowl. Mrs. Payne presented a history of timber resources in the U. S. and also speaking on the dangers of fire and insect pests to forests. This was followed by the regularly scheduled discussion, also led by Mrs. Payne, on the topic "How to Improve Our Town." Out of this discussion four major projects were introduced. Items stressed were: Efforts to build a new city hall, a proposed traveling library and the wholehearted backing of the City Council for good city government.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, city librarian, gave a book report on "Innocence Under the Elms." A report was made on the attendance to the County Federation of officers tea, a recent event at the Baptist church in McMinnville and attended by Mrs. Ione Meeker, Miss Laura Judy, Mrs. Mary Spraul and Mrs. Margaret Morse.

Junior CDAs Planning Week

MOUNT ANGEL (Special)—National Junior Catholic Daughters of America Week, February 17-24, will be observed by the Mount Angel Junior court, highlighting with the annual initiation ceremonies scheduled for Sunday, February 17. The juniors will wear their official uniforms during Junior Week, and receive corporate communion Sunday, February 24, at the 8 o'clock mass in St. Mary's church.

The initiation program was outlined and committees named at the Junior meeting Thursday evening, in the school meeting room. Twenty-two girls who have been provisional members for the past three months, will be formally received into the organization at the Sunday, February 17, program, which will begin at 2 o'clock in the school meeting room. Concluding ceremony including benediction services and presentation of emblems to new members, will be in St. Mary's church.

The initiation ceremony will be presented by the officers, including: President, Miss Jerri Gooding; vice president, Miss Kathleen Blem; secretary, Miss Maureen Fischer, and reporter, Miss Patty Aman. They will be assisted by Miss Judy Wachter, organist; Misses Kathy Gaffke, Betty Geck, Diane Bourbonnais, Gertrude Huber, guides; Jean Ebner, Kathy Ebner, Charlene Fisher, sportsmanship; Miss Barbara Bockelman, citizenship; Miss Laura Ann Klotz, faith; Miss Suzanne Hoffer, to love God; Miss Mary Ann Klotz, to serve others; Miss Toni Williams, to live nobly; Miss Joyce Kimlinger, Miss Agnes Purdy, Miss Shirley Schlecht, color guard; Miss Mary Foltz, presentation of roses by a new member.

Assisting with the program will be the Rev. Edward Spear, OSB, chaplain; Mrs. Oscar Strand, Hillsboro, Oregon state junior chairman; Mrs. Joseph Seifer, grand regent of the senior court; Mrs. J. L. Wachter, junior chairman; and Mrs. O. J. Williams, Mrs. Roy Palmer, Mrs. Richard Foltz and Miss Pat Seifer, counselors.

Other events planned at the Thursday evening business meeting was to bring a St. Valentine's day remembrance to the residents of the Benedictine Sisters nursing home. Misses Mary Jean Schmitt, Charlene Fisher, Kathy Ebner and Gertrude Huber volunteered to furnish the decorated Valentine cookies, and musical selections will be presented by Irene Vindasius, ac-
