

AT OSC Campus Busy With Varied Activities

By PHOEBE LOU BRAUN
(Capital Journal correspondent)

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis (Special)—A great many students at OSC enjoyed the opportunity of entertaining their fathers for Dads Weekend. The basketball games seemed to give a great deal of pleasure to the spectators in spite of Oregon State's holding the short end of the score.

Lighted card stunts at half time were more than usually effective and certainly appropriate of "Dear Dad." After the proverbial letter home was relayed — "Dear Dad, No Mon, No fun, Your son" — up came the dollar sign in lights. Following the answer: "Too bad, So sad, Your Dad"; a big cent sign went up. And so the weekend story was featured in lights at half time, with the home bound car in lights at the end.

The Dads luncheon was so well attended that seating space was less than half adequate. Secretary of State Mark Hatfield was seated next to Dean Moore at the head table, but, to the disappointment of many, he made no speech at all — only took a bow. The luncheon ended with relaxing entertainment, and most of the dads left for the boxing matches or the swimming meet.

The Panhellenic sing seemed to be very well received by the Dads. Many of the Salem girls took part.

"Life With Father," the student play, was hilarious, and according to the experts, was remarkably well done.

Some of the many parents on campus for the events were Chester Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ward, Mr. Harold Busick, Mr. C. C. Boyer, Earl Cook, Fred Klaus, Paul Hale, Walter Sociolovsky, D. H. Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eyre, C. W. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Waters, E. A. Carleton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Braun, Fred Snider, and Hugh Morrow.

Forty freshmen women attended the Brain Child Bust Tuesday evening, sponsored by Alpha Lambda Delta. Freshman women attaining a grade point of 3.5 who attended from our vicinity, were Jill Cummings, Carol Stooke, Pam Clayton, and Carol Mandall.

Both first place winners in the Puget Sound forensic tournament were from Salem, Kathy Deeney won first place in women's interpretative speaking, and third place in impromptu, Beverly Burgoyne, formerly of Salem, won first place in after dinner speaking, and first place in oratory.

Guests truly was a guest at the M.U. Council luncheon last week, to report on the M.U. movie program. Each Sunday afternoon a worthwhile movie has been shown to students in the M.U. The combination of reduced prices and well-known stars draws a large crowd to the programs.

Election of officers has been conducted recently in many of the houses. Holding the office of president are Wayne Erickson, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Kitty Metcalf, Kappa Alpha Theta; and Joan Lewis, Gamma Phi Beta.

A "We Hate Women" campaign is being staged this week by the men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The members are weary of trying to maintain their best appearance, and want a vacation. Any SAE caught speaking to a girl will be tubbed, in public, on the front steps of the chapter house.

To offset this wild plan, the men of Lambda Chi Alpha are staging a "We Love Women" program. Women all over campus are being taken into the "Beaver" for free coffee from the Lambda Chi.

A COMMUNITY program is planned at Mountain View school the night of February 22, at 8 o'clock, school groups and Community club groups taking part.

MOLALLA (Special) — A Valentine party marked the monthly meeting of past presidents of the Molalla auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars when they met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Peggy Jordan. Games were played, with awards won by Mrs. Marie Wells and Mrs. Iris Mitts, and Valentines were exchanged. Eight of the 10 past presidents were present.

Mrs. Hazel Perry is to contact the local grade school regarding the 8th grade citizenship award to be given to a boy and a girl. Refreshments were served by the hosts. Mrs. Hazel Perry will be hostess for the next meeting, March 11, in her home.

GREEN BEANS WITH SAUCE BLANCHE

Ingredients: 1 can (15½ ounces) whole green beans, milk, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon white pepper, 1 egg yolk, ¼ teaspoon lemon juice.

Method: Drain liquid from beans into a measure; add enough milk to make 1½ cups. Melt butter in medium-sized saucepan over low heat; stir in flour, remove from heat. Gradually add milk mixture, whisking until smooth after each addition. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until thickened and boiling. Whisk in salt and pepper. Remove from heat. Beat egg yolk with fork to mix well; vigorously but slowly whisk a little of the hot mixture into the egg yolk; beat back into hot sauce. Whisk in lemon juice. Add drained green beans. Reheat gently; do not allow to boil. Serves 4 to 6 servings.

Clows Honored at Shower Given Sunday

PLEASANTDALE (Special)—The Legion hall in Dayton was the scene of a miscellaneous shower Sunday afternoon, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Norman Clow, who were married January 27 in Portland. The shower was given by Mrs. Arthur Biles, Mrs. George Webster, Mrs. Sam Whitney, Mrs. J. M. Murphy and Mrs. Merle Reichstein.

Mrs. Webster had decorated the hall in the Valentine theme, using red paper hearts, pussywillows and greenery. Two heart-shaped cakes, made by Mrs. Biles, were given as special prizes and went to Mrs. Julia Howe and Allen Nichols.

Those present were Miss Nancy Withers of Salt Lake City, who was formerly the room-mate of the bride at Lewis and Clark college; Miss Carolyn Booth of Willamina, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Morris, Mrs. Rose Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mosgrove and Mrs. Julia Howe, all of Dayton; John Clow, Unionvale, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wulff, Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Swan, Mrs. H. A. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Richards, Miss Esther Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schütz, Arthur Biles, George Webster, Sam Whitney, Mrs. J. A. McFarlane, Mrs. Harold Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nichols and Myron, Mrs. John Litscher, Ruth and Beverly, Mrs. Henry Green, Mrs. Lester Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Reichstein, all of Pleasantdale, the hostesses and honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Clow are now living on Grand island, on the N. C. Hanna place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Kershaw

Mr. and Mrs. Kershaw Anniversary Feted

GATES (Special)—The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Kershaw was observed at an open house, Sunday, February 10, between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m., at the residence of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kershaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Kershaw were married February 5, 1907, at Falls City, Neb. A second son, L. Keith Kershaw, was killed in the battle of St. Lo in World War II.

Mr. Kershaw retired recently from his position with the Railway Express agency at Billings, Mont., and the Kershaws moved to Gates to be near their son and his family, which includes the grandchildren, Arlene and Billie.

DR. AND MRS. Robert W. Schneider left for New York, Tuesday evening, on a combined business and pleasure trip. Dr. Schneider will attend the international conference at the New York Academy of Sciences and the couple will include some Broadway shows on their schedule. On their return trip, they will visit relatives and friends in Ohio and Wisconsin.

MR. AND MRS. James W. Goin and family are leaving Friday for Aselomar, Calif., to attend the winter session of the square dancers organization in a state-owned camp. Workshop programs will be of particular interest to the Goin who are active in the Mid-Willamette Valley Dance association. The session will run from February 17 to 22.

HOSTESSES to the Gamma

Gamma chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority this week were Mrs. Raymond Housley and Mrs. Larry Dixon. Following the business session there was a white elephant sale.

Plans were discussed for the northwest district council meeting in Portland on March 10. Gifts were presented Mrs. William Robbins and Mrs. George Steinmann for their new babies.

The Valentine theme was carried out in the decorations and at the dessert.

LEBANON (Special) — Junior Women's club members worked on a recipe book project under the direction of Mrs. William Duerfeldt and Mrs. Gilbert Eilers at a meeting last week preparing lists of favorite recipes. Mrs. Robert Wiper of Salem, a former member, was a guest.

Past presidents will be honored at a meeting February 21. Mrs. Hugh Herron and Mrs. Duerfeldt were hostesses at the civic room.

Guild Meets

Junior guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church met Tuesday afternoon at the church. The meeting was preceded by luncheon at which Mrs. William H. Damery and Mrs. Gale Fox were honored for their February birthdays.

Announcement was made that the Junior guild will conduct its annual rummage and baked goods sale in the basement of the church on Thursday and Friday, March 14 and 15. Chairman of the rummage sale will be Mrs. Harry R. Walters, and anyone interested in donating rummage is asked to contact her to make arrangements for delivery at the church. Mrs. Gale Fox will be chairman of the baked goods sale.

The hostess committee for the luncheon Tuesday was Mrs. Stanley F. Watson, chairman, Mrs. Frank D. Bligh, Mrs. Andre Lambert, and Mrs. Joan Poole. Mrs. Poole, a guest for the first time, in the absence of her sponsor, Mrs. Wayne Pettit, served for Mrs. Pettit on the hostess committee.

MEMBERS of Willamette Valley chapter of B'nai B'rith Women met Tuesday evening at Temple Beth Shalom, with Mrs. Sydney P. Levene presiding.

Mrs. John Golden, a visitor from Vancouver, B.C., gave the opening prayer. Mrs. Robert Golden reviewed the anti-defamation project of the chapter. Emphasis during the evening was given to Brotherhood week, Boy Scout week, and Lincoln's birthday.

Hostesses were Mrs. A. Samuels and Mrs. Lester Burke.

MOLALLA (Special) — A group of nine women gathered last week at the home of Mrs. Zoe Durst for a class on dyeing of woolen rags for braiding into rugs. The class is being given through the county home extension agent's office. Mrs. Durst and Mrs. Esther Werner were given the series of instructions through the county agent, Mrs. Helen McDowell, in Oregon City, and they will be project leaders for the three sessions here.
