

Coming Events Told for JCDA

MOUNT ANGEL (Special)—Committees to serve at two future events were named at the meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America Monday evening in the school club rooms.

The senior court will entertain at a luncheon honoring the Junior court on Sunday afternoon, February 17, in observance of National Junior CDoA week, February 17-24. The luncheon will climax the initiation program beginning at 2 o'clock in the school meeting room, and concluding with services and benediction in St. Mary's church, when 22 new members who have been provisional members for the last three months, will receive their junior emblems. The committee in charge of the luncheon includes Mrs. Alfred Berni, Mrs. Vincent Smith, Miss Helen Keber, Mrs. Wilbert Schaefer, Mrs. Robert Frank, Mrs. James Hoffer, Mrs. Arthur Berg, Mrs. J. J. Penner, Mrs. Alcin Allen and Mrs. Alice Kroll.

The hostess committee appointed in charge of the social for members planned for Monday evening, February 25, includes Mrs. Joseph Berni, Mrs. Math A. Beyer, Mrs. Carl Erielt, Miss Louise Butsch, Mrs. David Travis, Mrs. Howard Goldsby, Mrs. Albert Uhing, Mrs. Joseph Borschowa, Mrs. Albert Wilde and Mrs. Alois Humpert.

A report was given on the recent benefit food sale and jam and jelly shower at which $46.55 was realized from the food sale and more than 100 jars of jam and jelly were collected for the Benevolent Sisters Nursing home. Mrs. George Vachter was general chairman of the committee in charge.

Alois Keber, reported that there is still a great need for used clothing for overseas relief and she will continue to use her home as a receiving place for the articles. During the last week she packed 13 boxes of clothing which will be given to the Rev. Alcin Heibel, OSB, for Hungarian relief.

A report on home and family life was presented by Mrs. E. A. Hammer, chairman. Mrs. Rudolph Laible received the attendance award. Mrs. J. A. (Azita) Kennedy of Klamath Falls, Oregon State CDoA treasurer, is a patient at the St. Vincent's hospital, Portland.

The local degree team members will give the presentation of degrees at the initiation ceremony for court Christ The King at Newberg, February 22.

Future events of interest to members is the State CDoA conference scheduled at Albany, April 27-29; and court initiations for Court Capital City, Salem, Sunday February 17, and Court Multnomah, Portland, February 24.

During the social hour which

Rainbow Event

DONALD (Special)—Miss Judy Orvold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Orvold of Donald, presided as new worthy adviser for Venus assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at this week's meeting. The new officers were installed at an impressive public ceremony on Sunday evening, February 3.

Arrangements were made to visit two assemblies. On Thursday, February 14, a group will visit Cherry assembly of Salem and since this is friendship night, Miss Elaine Will as faith, and Miss Robin Jackson as love have been asked to take part in the initiation. On February 20 a group will visit Laurel assembly of Canby.

Miss Carolyn DuRette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin DuRette of St. Paul, is the reporter for the activities of the assembly at this time.

Food News Topic at Woman's Club Program

SILVERTON (Special)—Stressing reader-appreciation of the educational value of the food page of a daily newspaper, evaluating the different foods and manner of serving of various countries of the world, and supplementing her travel tours by the showing of a series of pictures, were the highlights of the talk given by Miss Maxine Burden, Salem, Monday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Silverton Woman's club at the Trinity Lutheran fireside room. Mrs. Earl G. Dedrick, president, directed the program.

Mrs. Glenn Briedwell, a Silverton Woman's club past president, brought to the attention of the members certain legislative actions and asked members to contact their representatives in the state session as to their disapproval or approval. "Outlaw cheap literature" was stressed.

Mrs. Briedwell recommended educational reference bills, particularly those that had to do with the library organization in the state and the standardization requirements of librarians.

New members accepted were Miss Vefa Poulson, Mrs. Alvin Hartley, and Mrs. R. R. Main. Guests were Mrs. Alvin Legard and Mrs. James Libner.

Serving during the social hour were Mrs. Charles Hoyt and Mrs. Grace Jack.

Mrs. E. A. Finlay, Mrs. Alf O. Nelson, Mrs. Pearl Woods and Mrs. E. A. Kern, arranged the program and social hour.

The arrangement chairman for the March meeting of the club will be Mrs. Floyd Fox.

Following the business session, refreshments were served by Mrs. Henry Zollner, Mrs. Gordon Aman and Mrs. George Stupfel.

Mr. Peterson Feted On Birthday by Star

WOODBURN (Special)—The birthday anniversary of Leif Peterson, worthy patron of Evergreen chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, was celebrated during recess at the regular chapter meeting Monday night at the Masonic temple. As the family of Mr. Peterson came from Norway a history of that country was read by Mrs. Peterson, worthy matron, who also read the birthday horoscopes of the year. The program in honor of the worthy patron was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Don Tabler and was entitled "This is Your Life," modeled on the Hollywood version and bringing out many incidents in the past life of the honored member. He was presented with a gift from the officers and a decorated birthday cake.

Initiation was set for March 25. Invitations were read to receptions for grand officers at Tualatin chapter, Hillsboro, March 2, and at Naomi chapter, Dallas, March 9.

Friendship night was announced for the next meeting, February 25. In the attendance contest the group with Mrs. Lester Henn as captain was declared the winner. A no-host supper will be served by the losers, with Mrs. Edward Heiden as captain, February 23 at 6:30 p.m. to be followed by a social evening with a program and games.

Refreshments, including the birthday cake, were served by Mr. and Mrs. Ivan C. Beers and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Beckford. Valentine decorations were used in the chapter room and the dining room. Log cabins centered the tables.

MOLALLA (Special)—Neighbors Pastime club enjoyed its annual club family dinner last week in the Molalla Veterans of Foreign Wars hall, with about 70 present for the no-host dinner. The club furnished turkey and ham. Divisions of the evening were card-playing and games.

OCE Schedules New Art Exhibit

MONMOUTH—The Oregon College of Education art department will present two combined showings of paintings, pen and ink sketches, and water colors by Helen Traylor of Portland and Palmer Byrkit of Sheridan, in the OCE art gallery, Feb. 22 through March 16.

Both of these artists have been active in various art groups in Oregon for many years. Both are well known for their teaching and art organization activities as well as for work in their respective mediums.
