The 1957-58 term of the Salem schools will open Sept. 9 and close June 5, according to a tentative calendar submitted to the board of directors Thursday afternoon by Supt. Charles D. Schmidt. This would provide for 186 or 187 days of classroom operation.

The Christmas holiday vacation would extend from Dec. 25 to Jan. 2. Dates for spring vacation will be announced later.

Man Gets 3-7 Year Sentence, Then Weds Girl He Wounded

nearly to death — and a few minutes later he married her. The wedding took place yesterday in the probation officer's quarters adjoining the court before an assemblage.

School System Gets Ready for Science Fair

Plans are being developed for the annual Science Fair sponsored by the Salem school system, with the district-wide event scheduled for North Salem high, March 25-26.

The fair, according to Supt. Charles D. Schmidt, provides an opportunity for boys and girls to develop special interests in science and to prepare exhibits of materials and devices in that field. Both the physical and biological sciences will be included.

Each school in the Salem district will encourage pupils to prepare exhibits for display, and many will hold their own fair prior to sending their best materials to the district display. The best of the exhibits will be sent to the State Science fair at Oregon State college in April.

Local chairmen who are in charge of the event are: Ernie Cummins and Mrs. Fay Mort, North high, and Mrs. Jessie Beaty, West Salem.

Woodry, Hogg Stores Named In Damage Suit

Arnold R. and Delores I. Melvin, 1240 Wilbur St. have brought suit in Marion county circuit court for $10,000 in punitive damages against Hogg Bros. and Woodry Furniture company. In addition the plaintiff asks $600 in general damages for removal of furniture without cause.

In another damage suit the Capitol Chevrolet and Cadillac company seeks to recover $1,305 from John Alvin French, Salem, for damages said to have been sustained by a pick-up truck owned by the plaintiff company while being driven by the defendant.

New Armory Plans Revive Hope for E-R

PORTLAND (AP) — The Oregon National Guard Wednesday disclosed plans for a five million dollar armory here. This increased hopes for the long-awaited Portland sports-recreation center.

The guard's adjutant general, Maj. Gen. Thomas E. Rilea, asked the Multnomah County legislative delegation in Salem to sponsor a bill to provide 2½-million dollars in state money to match federal funds. The general said he has been told the federal money can be obtained.

The armory, he said, would jibe with Portland's sports center plans.

In 1954 Portland voters authorized eight million dollars in bonds for an exposition-recreation center. But disputes over proposed sites have prevented construction.

Plans announced by Gen. Rilea call for two armory buildings. One would be a drill hall that could seat 10,000 persons for some events. The other would be an 11-story office building.

Burglary Charge Served on Texan

Recently arrested by the city police on a drunk charge, Harold Frank White, Bryan, Texas, has been served with a Marion county district court fugitive warrant charging him with burglary and grand larceny.

3 Firms Sued On SBA Loans

ROSEBURG (AP) — The Douglas County State Bank has filed a $320,042 suit in circuit court here against three lumber companies.

The firms are Winston Mill, Inc.; Jay-Mark Lumber Co., and Commercial Lumber Sales, Inc., all near Roseburg.

The Small Business Administration is seeking most of the money. The bank would be authorized to collect.

According to the complaint, the bank loaned the firms $225,000 in May, 1954, and 90 per cent of the money was put up by the federal agency and the other 10 per cent by the bank.

Named co-defendants in the suit are several state and federal agencies, individuals and firms because of alleged secondary liens against the companies.

Supercolossal Act Presented By La Dietrich

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Marlene Dietrich's opening night of a three weeks' engagement at the Sands Hotel was, as the press agents say, supercolossal — really "the most."

She wore a gown last night that her dressmaker says was fashioned with 227,000 hand-sewn diamond beads, required a million hand stitches and was six months in the making. She wore a huge white coat made from down of the breasts of 200 swans (count 'em).

The coat trailed 12 feet from the top of the collar to the end of the train and was eight feet at its widest point.

Marlene started off with a rock 'n' roll number, gyrating in the Elvis Presley manner. Later, in her dressing room, she confessed she is a fan of Presley. "He's my idol; I think he's the greatest," she said in a serious tone.

Shipyard May Operate Again

PORTLAND (AP) — Two West Coast firms confirmed Wednesday they are looking into the possibility of reopening the federal Maritime Administration shipyard at Vancouver, Wash.

Both said they are interested in using it for the construction of tankers.

The firms are the Willamette Iron & Steel Co., of Portland, a subsidiary of the Guy F. Atkinson Co. of San Francisco; and the Kaiser Engineers of Oakland, Calif.

In wartime the yard was used to make first, freighters, and then baby flattops. The yard was operated by the Kaiser interests.
