Miss Kizziah Wed Thursday

A St. Valentine's day bride was Miss Joan Kizziah, her marriage to Carl Eugene Bartruff being solemnized Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the Englewood Evangelical United Brethren church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Kizziah and Mr. Bartruff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Bartruff.

Red and white flowers and white candles decorated the church for the service at which the Rev. Lloyd G. Uecker officiated. Soloist for the service was Mrs. Uecker. Lighting the candles were Johnny Kizziah and Melva Avery.

Four attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Jamie Kizziah was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a white satin sheath dress with red net overskirt, a white headpiece, and carried a white heart outlined with red lace and red carnations on it. Mrs. Donald Braaten, Miss Donna Barber and Miss Sharon Wright were bridesmaids. They all wore white formals with white headpieces, and each carried a red heart outlined with white lace and white carnations on it.

Boyd Aydelotte was best man. Ushers were Ron Carrick, Jim Kottek and Bill Edwards.

The bride's mother wore a white tulle dress styled with three-quarter length sleeves and worn with red accessories. Her flowers were red carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with navy and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The reception following was at the church. Mrs. William Edwards, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Tom Kizziah, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. John Kizziah, an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ed Ammann, aunt of the bridegroom, gave the bride and groom a gift. Assisting were Miss Shirley Crick, Miss Cary Benham and Miss Arlene Weaver. The bride's table was set with a white satin cloth and tiny red hearts around the red candles. The tiered cake featured heart cakes at each corner.

For going away the bride wore a red wool jersey sheath dress with gray coat, black accessories and corsage of orchids.

The couple will be at home at 225 West Ewald.

Miss Kuns Is Bride

Wed last Saturday, February 9, at an evening service in the Church of God at Woodburn were Miss Karen Kuns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kuns of Woodburn, and Lonnie Esau, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Esau of Salem.

The Rev. Robert Salisbury of Roseburg officiated at the 8 o'clock candlelight rites. Baskets of white stock and red and white carnations were arranged for decorations.

The bride wore a dress of Chantilly lace, satin and tulle. The fingertip veil was arranged from a beaded headband, and for her flowers the bride carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white hyacinths and red roses. Mr. Kuns gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Delmer Kuns was honor attendant for her sister-in-law. She wore a ballerina length frock of red crystalate and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Wesley Walker of Porterville, Calif., and Mrs. Gene Hendrickson of Eureka, Calif., were bridesmaids, wearing dresses matching that of the honor attendants.

Dr. Dean Dowd of Redmond was best man. The ushers were Richard Esau, Warren Leveck and Delmer Kuns.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress with pink accessories and a corsage of orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with pink accessories and corsage of orchids.

The reception was in the church parlors. Mrs. Robert Salisbury, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Robert Langley and Mrs. Herbert Taylor, aunt of the bride, and assisting were Miss Mabel Kuenzi, Miss Anna Kuenzi, Miss Marie Dewitler, Miss Rose Van Flu, all of Silverton, Miss Jane Hart of Woodburn.

For traveling the bride wore a blue suit with white accessories and corsage of white orchids.

The couple will be at home in Portland.

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

One of the big parties of the month came Wednesday, the coffee for which Mrs. Sidney W. Schlesinger, Mrs. Richard C. Nelson and Mrs. M. H. Saffron entertained a large group of friends between 2 and 6 o'clock in Meier & Frank's Salem Oregon room. . . It was a beautifully arranged party. . . All tables in the room had been taken out, except a row around the walls, providing spacious accommodations for the crowd. . . The three hostesses stood near the large planter, each with a Valentine corsage pinned at the waistline. . . Overhead were suspended garlands of tiny hearts, held here and there by cupid figures. . . At each corner of the planter was a large white square urn filled with red carnations variegated with a bit of white. . . The table was set in the smaller party room. . . It was in clever Valentine motif. . . The table was set with a white cloth and a large center arrangement of red flowers with two gold figures set among them, the figures matching the "sweethearts" on the Valentine napkins. . . A red candle was at either side of the flowers. . . An out-of-town guest greeted was Mrs. Ralph Schlesinger of Portland, formerly of Salem, sister-in-law of one of the hostesses. . . Among others greeted during our call Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. William R. Shein, Mrs. Reid Hanson, Mrs. Helen Lewis, Mrs. George W. Dewey, Jr., Mrs. Robert M. Needham, Mrs. Winfield H. Needham, Mrs. E. W. Reitor, Mrs. E. E. Batterman, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, Mrs. A. SOUTH SALEM (Special) — The Idaho Wiggata Torch group sponsored a "What will you be" party on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Louis Kurth on West Browning avenue.

The girls played charades and acted out what they would be when they grew up as part of the 1957 birthday project, "Together We Make Tomorrow."

The group conducted a ceremonial and installed officers. Installed as president was Barbara Orav; vice president, Cheryl Fleischmann; secretary, Rachel Asbury; and treasurer, Florence Tomlin. Bonnie Jean Korth was named keeper of the fire.

After a Valentine party, the group viewed colored slides of Camp Fire activities of the past.

UO NOTES

Events of Week Are Highlighted

By CAROLYN MADSEN (Capital Journal Correspondent)

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, (Special) — It is now Women's Week on the U of O Campus. Last Saturday night the Associated Women Students started the week by sponsoring a penny-a-minute night. All women staying out between 1 and 2 a.m. must pay a penny for every minute they are out. The proceeds go to the AWS scholarship fund. Monday afternoon the AWS apple polishing party was staged in the Student Union fishbowl. Free coffee was served by 14 university professors. The purpose of the party is to let students get better acquainted with their professors. Some of the Salemites who attended the party were Pat Gilmore (co-chairman of the event), Jan McAlpine, Bob Prall, Pat Deeny, Bill Cook, Gladys Maude, Judy Wolf, Connie Hammond, and Fenton Lockenour.

Tuesday afternoon in Carson hall living room the members of Kwama, the sophomore women's honorary, and Phi Theta Upsilon, the junior women's honorary, conducted their traditional Blue and White party for all interested freshmen and sophomore women. Nancy Sue Payne and Ann Heltzel, members of Kwama, helped with the entertaining.

Wednesday the AWS, WRA, and YWA conducted their elections for next year's officers. Sandra Johansen is running for the office of treasurer of the AWS.

Climaxing Women's Week will be the annual YWCA-sponsored Heart Hop which will be Friday night after the Oregon-Washington basketball game. The dance is to be at Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Pi Beta Phi houses. Six men have been chosen by judges to run for the title of King of Hearts. Each girl who purchases a ticket is entitled to vote for the King of her choice. Those Sophomore women will be going to the Hop are Betty Lou Boehm, Jo Ann Hoover, Nancy Denton, Bob Carr, Jim Allen, Jerry Walling, Steve Higley, Sally Merrill, Elisabeth Walton, Jean Lidbeck, and Kaye Tomlinson.

The men of Delta Tau Delta have decided that they too will have a Queen. So the different women's organizations chose candidates to compete for the title of Delta Queen. From the 28 candidates 12 Semi-Finalists were chosen. Freshman Carol Hoffman who represents Gamma Phi Beta was one of the 12.

A rally and dance were given in the Student Union ballroom this Wednesday night. The team and coach were introduced, yells were given, songs were sung, speeches were made, and dances enjoyed. Some of the Salemites who went to cheer for the team were Ted Leonard, Kay Knickerbocker, Courtney Kurtz, Dale Jones, Julian Dvarak.

Newlyweds — Mr. and Mrs. Wesley A. Hassett (Marilyn Kay Shields), above, were married February 9. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shields and Mr. Hassett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley A. Hassett of Grants Pass. (Yeager studio picture)

Children's Theater Starts New Term

Children's Creative Theater, sponsored by the American Association of University Women, will begin its spring term, Saturday, February 16, according to its director, Mrs. Mirco Ringwald. The place of meeting is the First Congregational church, 700 Marion street, in the social room.

There will be a change in the time of meeting because of other classes. The early group will come from 10 to 11, and the second group from 11 to 12:30, beginning Saturday and continuing until the close of the public schools in June.

In the early group will be the children from five to eleven years of age, along with any others who wish to work with both puppets and "live" stage plays of their own making. In the 11 to 12:30 group should come those who are of junior high age interested in impromptu and regular plays. The theater plans public performances for Easter and for the close of the term.

There is a fee to cover expenses of supplies and rental carried by the director, but anyone may enter during the term and pay for the fraction of time he is present. There is also a special rate for two or three of one family.

'Sweetheart Dance' To Be on Saturday

Members of Salem unit No. 136, American Legion auxiliary, will join with Legion post 136 in arrangements for the "sweetheart" dance at the West Salem legion hall, Saturday night. At the auxiliary's meeting Thursday evening, plans were completed for the buffet dinner which the members will serve Saturday evening.

A surprise visitor to the auxiliary meeting was Mrs. Anson Engels, department vice president. The unit's first vice president, Mrs. Fred Matthieu, submitted her resignation as the Matthews are moving to Mechama.

Mrs. Earl Benz, Americanism chairman, reported on the presentation of two American flags to Brownie groups at Morningside and Swegle schools.

Mrs. Kenneth Taylor was hostess for the social hour, assisted by Mrs. Ellis Drake.

The Junior auxiliary of the Salem unit will meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles Bower, 1920 North third street.

Next meeting of the unit will be in charge of the Americanism committee.

PLUM UPSIDEDOWN CAKE

Ingredients: 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon cumin, 1 No. 2 can (1 1/2 pound and 14 ounces) purple plums (pitted and drained), 1 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon instant non-fat dry milk powder, 1/2 cup syrup drained from plums, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Method: Put 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup brown sugar and cinnamon in cake pan (9 by 9 by 2 inches) place in oven until butter melts; mix well. Arrange pitted plum halves, skinned down, in even rows over sugar mixture. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream 1/2 cup butter and 1/2 cup granulated sugar; beat in egg thoroughly. Stir dry mix powder, plum syrup and vanilla to gether. Stir sifted dry ingredients into creamed mixture, alternately with plum syrup mixture, in 4 additions; beat just until smooth. Spread batter over plums. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean—40 to 50 minutes. Cool in pan on rack 10 minutes. Invert on serving plate. Serve at once with whipped cream (unsweetened or sweetened only slightly). Makes 8 or more servings.

Note: This cake is quite sweet. It tastes best if served shortly after it comes out of the oven.
