Here's What You Will See

W. W. McKinney (right), former pres-ident of Cascade Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, shows three youngsters what they may expect to see at the Scout Jamboree scheduled for next summer at Valley Forge, Pa. The boys, from left to right:

INCOME TAX TIPS

Under Certain Circumstances Even Aspirins Are Deductible

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Tax relief | of the employe, his spouse or his possibilities stemming from ill-ness or disability are discussed in this article prepared by the tax committee of the Oregon Association of Public Accountants and presented by The Capital Journal as a reader service.

"Pass the aspirin-it's tax time

That appropriate headline ap-peared in one Oregon paper carry-ing this income tax series.

There's at least one comforting thought: Under certain circum-stances the cost of the aspirin may be deductible Because of the financial burdens resulting from illness and disabil-ity, a number of tax relief provis-ions are included in the regula-liness during this period. If the absence was because of injury, there is no waiting period.)

Beduct Medical Expenses
In general, if there was illness in your family during 1956, you are entitled to deduct medical expenses that are in excess of 3 percent of your adjusted gross income. These, of course, must be itemized.

If you or your spouse are 65 or

If you or your spouse are 65 or over, the 3 per cent limitation does not apply to your medical expenses. On the other hand, it does apply to the medical expenses you If you or your spouse are 65 or
