Republican Clubs' Legislative Day

A visit to the legislature, a luncheon and a tea are all on the agenda for the traditional "legislative day" for Oregon Republican Women's Federation in the capital next Tuesday, February 19, with the Salem club hosting the event.

Women from all parts of Oregon are expected to be here for the day.

Visiting members are asked to go directly to the Capitol, the women to be in their seats before 9:30 a.m. when the legislature meets. It is suggested that visitors park in North Summer street, this street approaching the Capitol mall, because parking is very congested nearer the Capitol building during legislative sessions.

Hostesses for the day will be officers of the Salem club, who will be on hand at the Capitol building to welcome and direct visitors from 9 a.m. on, and who will distribute courtesy cards to visitors for street parking in Salem for that day. The Salem club hostesses will be Mrs. Paul Van de Velde, Mrs. William G. Stacey, Mrs. Hilary Eitel, Mrs. Richard D. Slater, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, Mrs. Stanley Rollness, Mrs. Clark C. McCall, Mrs. Sigfrid B. Unander, Mrs. John W. Cochran, Mrs. William F. Leary, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mrs. Florence Ames, and Mrs. Stanley F. Watson.

After the legislative session, guests and members will adjourn to the Marion hotel, where the luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock. Salem hostesses will be on hand there, also, to greet and direct the visitors. Visitors may park their cars at the Marion Car Park without charge. It is located across the street from the Marion hotel.

Mrs. William L. Phillips is chairman for the luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Abner K. Kline, Miss Elizabeth Porter, Mrs. Charles H. Helzel, Mrs.

Ted Jenny, Mrs. Howard R. Post, and Mrs. Stanley F. Watson.

Mayor Robert F. White will extend the welcome to the city, and the Rev. W. M. Rosenthal, curate of St. Paul's Episcopal church, will ask the blessing.

Speaker of the day will be State Senator Warren Gill, Lebanon. Entertainment has been arranged by Mrs. Abner K. Kline, and there will be a musical program provided by two students of Willamette university.

Attending the luncheon with Senator Gill will be State Senators Philip B. Lowry of Jackson county, Lee V. Ohmart, of Marion county, and Anthony Yturri, of Grant, Harney, and Malheur counties.

Senator Gill will be introduced by State Senator Sidney Schlessinger of Marion county.

Invitations to Oregon state dignitaries are being extended, personally, by the state federation president, Mrs. Harry A. Pallady, recently elected member-at-large of the National Republican Women's Federation. Former Governor Elmo Smith will be among the honored guests at the luncheon.

Chairman for the tea honoring the state president, Mrs. Harry A. Pallady, and other state officers of the federation, is Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, assisted by Mrs. Philip A. Johnson, at whose Candalaria home the tea will take place. The address is 2880 Mountain View Drive.

Several past state presidents will be included in the receiving line, headed by Mrs. Clark C. McCall.

Pouring for the tea will be visiting presidents of the 30 Oregon units of the federation, representing a membership of more than 3800 Republican women.
