It leaves North Salem with three losses and with South Salem to play next Friday, then Corvallis and Sweet Home. Albany has yet to meet Lebanon, Sweet Home and South Salem, and isn't figured to lose more than one, if any, of these.

Coach Ward Paldanius thought his Vikings were not playing nearly so well last night as when they lost by one point at Albany Jan. 11. The facts are that they held a sixpoint lead at 28-22 in the third quarter and were ahead 35-30 at the end of that profitable stanza. Albany's Bob Close and John Wilson did the wrecking job in the fourth quarter with their jump shots from outside in unchecked moments. The totaled 12 of Almoments. The totaled 12 of Alhonories.
