Bennett-Cooper Wedding at Dallas

DALLAS (Special) — Mrs. Dessie Cooper was married to Clyde Bennett of McMinnville at a simple ceremony at the R. L. Chapman home on Oak street, Saturday, February 9. The Rev. Philip Wolfe, pastor of the First Christian church, read the noon service. The couple exchanged their vows before the fireplace in the living room, pink and white carnations and tall white tapers being arranged on the mantel.

The bride was given in marriage by her son, Harold Cooper. She wore an orchid colored suit and small veiled hat in matching shade and carried orchid gloves. A corsage of pink elite roses, white carnations and freesias was pinned to her jacket.

Mrs. Dorothy Saling, the bride's daughter, was her attendant. She was attired in a black silk afternoon dress and wore a corsage of elite roses and carnations.

Howard Bennett, son of the bridegroom, acted as best man. An informal reception was given following the ceremony, with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hooten of Corona Del Mar, Calif., son-in-law and daughter of the late Mr. Chapman, as hosts. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom which had decorated the wedding cake of Mr. and Mrs. Hooten when they were married 25 years ago in the same house. The refreshment table was decorated with pink and white carnations and white tapers. Mrs. Saling cut the cake and Mrs. Jack Blankenbaker of Salem, grand-daughter of the bride, poured coffee. Miss Lean Marie Groves passed the guest book.

After a trip along the Oregon coast into northern California, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will make their home in McMinnville.
