Some Notations . . .

By M. L. P.

A delightful coffee party was the one for which Mrs. Abern K. Kline and Mrs. Lynn Lambeth entertained Tuesday afternoon in the Meier & Frank's Oregon room, guests invited to call between 2 and 5 o'clock . . . The tea table was in pink and white, set with a white cloth, the centerpiece a tiered glass arrangement filled with pink and white carnations and white grapes . . . White candles in silver holders stood at either side of the centerpiece . . . Among those on hand at our late afternoon call, Mrs. E. H. Geling and Mrs. George Larson, both of Coos Bay and here as house guests of Mrs. Lambeth (she is entertaining at a luncheon for them on Thursday at her home); Mrs. Paul A. Lardon, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, Mrs. Russel E. Pratt, Mrs. E. R. Vlesko, Mrs. Ellis Von Eschen, Mrs. Richard A. Meyer, Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. L. C. McLeod, Mrs. Farley Mogan, Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mrs. E. E. Battersman, Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, Mrs. Lee L. Eyerly, Mrs. Jack Eyerly, Mrs. George L. Ar buckle, Mrs. Harry Worth, Mrs. Albert C. Gragg, Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea, Mrs. Karl Heinlein, Mrs. Estill L. Brunk, the latter two pouring during our stop . . .

Members of Salem club of the Oregon Federation of Republican Women may take a bow for a host-job well done at the biennial "legislative day" for the federation here through Tuesday . . . About 300 attended the luncheon given in the Marion hotel Gold room . . . The tables were eye-catching with branches laden with big red cherries down the centers, fitting in nicely with the George Washington time cherry pie served as the dessert . . . More of the cherries decked the head table, and along the front of the speakers' table was a huge spray of bright red carnations . . .

At the head table were Mrs. Harry A. Pallady, Portland, state federation president; Mrs. Clark C. McCall, Salem, immediate past state president; Senator Boyd Overhulse of Madras, president of the senate (and the lone Democrat, in the midst of the Republicans. He was guest of Mrs. William H. Burns; the four speakers, Senator Warren Gill of Lebanon, Senator Lee Othman of Salem, Senator Anthony Yturri of Ontario, Senator Philip Lowry of Medford; Senator Sidney Schlessinger of Salem, who introduced Senator Gill; Mayor Robert F. White, who gave the welcome and presented a key to the city to Mrs. Pallady and her group; Mrs. White; Mrs. William H. Burns, chief clerk of the senate and a past federation president; Mrs. Sigrid B. Unander, wife of the state treasurer; Mrs. Paul Van de Velde, president of the Salem club of the federation; the Rev. Willis Rosenthal, of St. Paul's Episcopal church who gave the invocation . . .

Among the guests introduced from out in the crowd, Mrs. Paul Patterson, Beaverton, widow of Oregon's former governor and an active member in the federation . . . Many Salem women joined the visiting group for the tea given during the afternoon at the Candalaria Heights home of Mrs. Phillip A. Johnson . . . More than 350 called for the affair between 2:30 and 4:30 o'clock . . . A large bouquet of red carnations was arranged for the tea table centerpiece . . .

In the receiving line were Mrs. Clark C. McCall, past state president; Mrs. Pallady, president; Mrs. A. E. Opendwyer of Portland, first vice president of the state group; Mrs. Elmo Smith, wife of former Governor Smith, and Mrs. Paul L. Patterson, wife of former Governor Patterson . . . Aleaby, Mrs. Lawrence Hogue . . .

A special group of guests at the weekly at home tea of Mrs. Robert D. Holmes, wife of the governor, Tuesday afternoon, included members of a Girl Scout troop under the leadership of Mrs. Max E. Denton . . . The thrilled young ladies who had been invited by Mrs. Holmes through their assistant leader, Mrs. Lewis D. Clark, called at the governor's home following school hours escorted by Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Clark. It was a big occasion for the scout members to be welcomed by the first lady of Oregon and to mingle with other guests at the tea . . . In the group were Nancy Barker, Teresa deBaer, Pamela Denton, Susan Griffith, Patty Huff, Sheryl Joyner, Susan Trappell, Beverly Turvey, Sandra Whiting and Sandra Bolow . . .
