2 Fine Ways With Chicken

Two favorite ways to serve chicken so abundant now is to broil—bake it or even fry it.

Broil-Roast Chicken

1 2 1/2-pound chicken cleaned and dressed
2 teaspoon salt
5 ounces clear soup or bouillon, juice of 1 lemon
1 sliced carrot
1 teaspoon thyme
2 slices bacon

Salt, paprika, thyme

Place the carrot in the cavity of the chicken. Sprinkle with thyme and salt. Fasten legs and wings securely and put bird in pan. Cover with bacon and dust with salt, paprika, and thyme mixture. Place the bird in oven pre-heated to 450 degrees. When it is browned, reduce heat to 350 degrees and continue cooking until bird is tender, about 1-3/4 hours in all. Baste every 15 minutes with the soup. When done, mix basting juice with lemon and serve as sauce. Serves 4.

Oven-Fried Chicken

1 2 1/2-pound broiler fryer, cut up
1/4 teaspoon fresh-ground pepper
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup chicken bouillon, broth, or 1 chicken bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup hot water
Seasoned salt (garlic, onion or chive)
1/2 teaspoon paprika

Rinse chicken in cold water. Dry thoroughly. Dust each piece with seasoned salt. Combine flour, paprika, salt and pepper and dust pieces of chicken. Pour 1/2 cup of broth in a shallow baking pan. Place chicken, skin side down, in the broth. Bake in 400 degree oven for 30 minutes. Turn chicken over. Add remaining 1/2 cup of broth and continue baking until chicken is tender — less than 30 minutes. Serves 4.

JELLY TIP

Dip your jelly bag in hot water and wring it out well before using it when you are making jelly.
