

Mothers Set Tea Feb. 23

To honor candidates nominated for "DeMolay Doll," the members of Willamette chapter of DeMolay Mothers club will sponsor a tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray L. Rolow, at 2210 Pheasant avenue. Guests will call between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock.

Candidates for the title of "DeMolay Doll" for 1957 have been named by Bethel's 35, 43, 48 and 59 of Job's Daughters, by Chadwick and Cherry assemblies of Order of Rainbow for Girls, and by 9 groups of Y-Teen clubs.

Mrs. Allan L. Stevens is chairman for the event and assisting her in arrangements for the tea are Mrs. David W. Flaks, Mrs. Thomas Armstrong, Mrs. Charles W. Ronk, Mrs. Roy M. Mogster and Mrs. Richard I. Holm.

Annual Dinner At Mt. Angel

MOUNT ANGEL (Special)—The planning committee for the annual dinner of St. Mary's Catholic parish met at the home of Mrs. Delmer Lulay, general chairman, to discuss preliminary preparations for this year's annual event, which is scheduled for Sunday, March 31, in the St. Mary's school dining hall, from 11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Presiding at the meeting were Mrs. Lulay, who served as co-chairman at the dinner last year, and Mrs. George Vachter, this year's assisting co-chairman. Present and past dinner chairmen serve on the planning committee. The dinner is sponsored by the St. Ann's Altar society.

Society members will handle dining room and kitchen work in advance of the dinner. The Mount Angel Garden club will decorate the tables and the Junior Catholic Daughters of America will provide nursery care for the youngsters.

A new chairman this year is Mrs. Francis Hammelman who will have charge of soliciting cooks to fry the chicken and sausage. Mrs. Raymond Rothenfluch will have charge of donations of home-baked pies and cakes. Mrs. Arthur Hassler is lining up dish washing shifts. Mrs. Walter Kruse will take care of the correspondence. Mrs. Victor Hoffers, posters, and Mrs. J. L. Wachter, publicity. Mrs. O. J. Williams, president of the Mount Angel Garden club is decorations chairman.

The planning committee includes Mrs. Lulay, chairman, Mrs. Vachter, co-chairman, Mrs. Francis Hammelman, Mrs. Paul Wachter, Mrs. Norbert Butsch, Mrs. Vincent Smith, Mrs. Henry Geck, Mrs. Raymond Rothenfluch, Mrs. J. J. Penner, Mrs. Joseph Wagner, Mrs. Fred Baumgartner, Mrs. Alois Keber, Mrs. W. J. Klott, Mrs. Emil Wolf, Mrs. Arthur Hassler, Mrs. Val Eberle, Mrs. Herman Schwab, Mrs. J. L. Wachter, Mrs. Victor Hoffer, Mrs. O. J. Williams, and Mrs. Walter Kruse.

Wed February 10—Mrs. James William Tribe (Cynthia Louise Bourne), above, was married February 10. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Bourne and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hugh Tribe of Eugene. (Steimonts studio picture)

To Assist Project

The philanthropy project of Alpha Phi alumnae will be launched at the coffee planned Thursday morning in Meier & Frank's Salem Oregon room. The project is selling small medical record books, proceeds from the sale going to the philanthropic funds. Mrs. Richard Scandling is chairman of the project locally and will have books to sell at the Thursday coffee. All Salem Alpha Phis are invited. The coffee is arranged especially to honor Mrs. Walter Leth, Monmouth, and Mrs. Rudie Wilhelm, Jr., Portland, wives of state senators; and Mrs. Wallace Brennan, a former national Alpha Phi board member moving to Salem the last year. Mrs. Sydney Kromer and Mrs. Evan Boise are in charge of the coffee and will greet the guests.

DAYTON (Special) — The Dayton Reading club met with Mrs. James Watts last week for dessert. Mrs. Delia U'Ren introduced Mrs. Milo Wold of McMinnville, who gave an account of a trip made through Europe during the summer of 1956. Mr. and Mrs. Wold are members of the Linfield college faculty and with their son and daughter spent three months touring through many of the European countries. The speaker showed colored slides of the various points of interest on the trip. A short business session followed the program.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harold Frink on March 1.

WEBFOOT (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Steve Benedict entertained with a pinocle party of six tables last week. The Valentine theme was used in decorations and score cards. Mrs. John Johnson and Frank Armentrout won the pinocle prizes. High scores were made by Mrs. George Doud and John Heffley and consolation prizes went to Pete Ediger and Mrs. Tommy Lyman.
