

Store Hours: Monday and Friday, 9:30 a.m. 'til 9 p.m.
Other Days: 9:30 a.m. 'til 5:30 p.m.

Dacron, permanently pleated

Sissy Shirdress

10<sup>98</sup>

Lavish nylon lace ruffles make this dress as fresh as a day in May! Washable . . . drips dry, prettied with pearly buttons. In Lilac, Mint, Blue, Pink, sizes 12-20, 14 1/2-24 1/2.

Lipman's Budget Dress Shop
Second Floor

flatter with freedom

Sta-flat by Warners

10<sup>95</sup>

At last, a girdle to give you the unbelievable comfort you crave with the firm control you want! The light rings in the front panel give greater area freedom. A lure elastic bra . . . $3.95

Lipman's Foundations
Second Floor

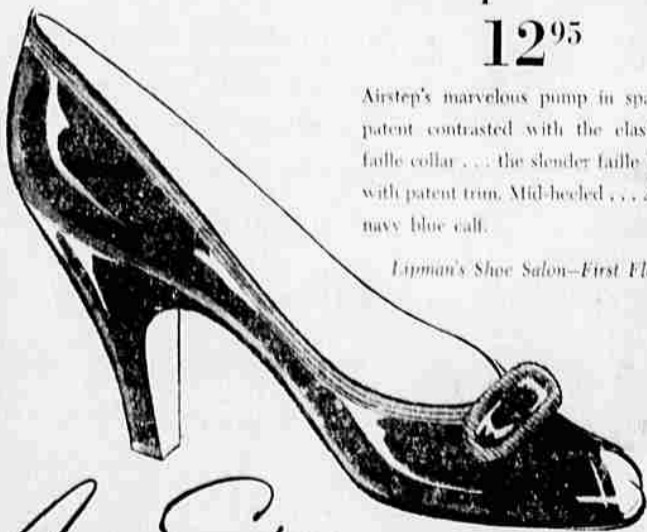

the pump that fits to perfection

Airstep "Theme"

12<sup>95</sup>

Airstep's marvelous pump in sparkling patent contrasted with the elasticized faille collar . . . the slender faille buckle with patent trim. Mid-heeled . . . Also in navy blue calf.

Lipman's Shoe Salon—First Floor

Air Step.

Primroses Topic at Garden Club Meeting

MOUNT ANGEL (Special) — An informative talk on organic gardening and primroses, particularly the newer varieties of primroses, was given by Mrs. Dale Worthington, Portland, for the Mount Angel Garden club program last week at the Mount Angel city hall. A large number of members and guests were in attendance. Pictures taken from many gardens in Portland, Tacoma, British Columbia and other northwest places and several from Vermont gardens were shown. Mrs. Worthington, former editor of the Primrose Quarterly, was accompanied to Mount Angel by Mr. Worthington, and Mrs. John P. Hannon of "Hannon Acres," Portland. The visitors were presented by Mrs. O. J. Williams, president of the Mount Angel Garden club. Primroses, grown extensively here, are featured at the primrose flower show staged annually by the Mount Angel club. The show this year is scheduled for Sunday, April 28, at St. Mary's school. The date for a garden tour in Portland, sponsored by Claud Mills, Portland, has been tentatively set for Thursday, May 9. Mrs. Ed Bickler and Arthur Holmes, Salem, received the two primrose plants presented by Mrs. Worthington, and others receiving awards were Mrs. Paul Sillife, Mrs. John Hammelman, Mrs. S. C. Schmitt, Mrs. J. L. Wachter, Volna J. White, Mrs. Edna Willig, and Eymard Berning. Mrs. Albert Bochsler, Mrs. Emil LEBANON (Special) — Wedding of Mrs. Ethel Mischke and Burgess Vohland at Vancouver on February 9 is being announced to friends. Attendants were Miss Katherine Truax of Lebanon and Earl Fairchild of Dallas. The couple is at home at 820 Park street. Mrs. Vohland operates Ethel's Beauty shop. Bochsler and Mrs. David Shepherd served refreshments during the social hour.

MOLALLA (Special) — Mrs. James Jolley's Camp Fire girls of the Zakita group conducted their first ceremonial recently after school. Each of the 19 girls received earned ceremonial beads. There were 15 mothers present for the meeting. The girls served refreshments. Judy Anderson was hostess to the Twanka Camp Fire on a recent afternoon after school. There was a combined meeting and Valentine party. Mrs. Lyle Anderson served refreshments.

Silverton Rebekahs Active

SILVERTON (Special) — Friendship night and a Valentine day observance provided the program for Tryphena Rebekahs' lodge No. 38, last week, with Mrs. R. Mulkey, noble grand, presiding.

Visitors from Molalla, Monitor, Scotts Mills, Saler, and Portland attended and were presented with Valentine favors. Mrs. Walter Larsen, noble grand, gave tributes based on friendship night, the Valentine observance and a brief account of the state's birthday on February 14. Mrs. Karl Haberly presented a Valentine's cake to Mrs. Mulkey. Invitations accepted were from Harmony Rebekah lodge for installation of officers at the district convention in Gervais, March 30, and from Lyons Rebekahs for a 50th anniversary program on March 9. The Triple Link club will meet February 27 at the home of Mrs. Clay Allen.

A visit of the Bloodmobile to Silverton will be sponsored by Silver lodge No. 21, IOOF, and Tryphena lodge and named from the latter group to assist during the visit were Mrs. Lyle McClure, Mrs. Forrest Zetterberg, and Mrs. John Beals.

Next meeting of the lodge will be February 28 with a program honoring the February anniversaries of Lincoln and Washington. Committees named for the event are: Decorations, Mrs. Robert Renwick and Mrs. Mary Howell; reception, Mrs. Zetterberg, a n d Mrs. Mabel Monson; program, Mrs. Zetterberg; refreshments, Mrs. John Beals, chairman, Mrs. Elba Bentley, Mrs. Amy Beer, Mrs. Pearl Bye, and Mrs. Chester Mulkey.

Mrs. Lyle McClure and Mrs. Zetterberg were named as a telephone committee for the year.

Silverton Scout Group Entertained

SILVERTON (Special) — Mrs. Sheldon Johnson was hostess to the Silverton district Girl Scouts Friday evening. Announcements were made concerning the activities of the organization throughout the spring months.

Mrs. G. L. Collier, chairman, presided and plans for observance of Girl Scout week March 8-25 were made. March 10 will be Girl Scout Sunday with the troops attending the different local churches in groups. March 12 will be an all-scout skating party at Skateland rink in Salem with the Boy Scouts participating.

An annual feature of the Girl Scouts during their anniversary month will be the cookie sale, this year in charge of Mrs. John La-leker. Funds from the sale of the cookies are used for area projects, with each individual troop receiving a portion of the profit for their own treasury.

A junior high planning board consisting of representatives of each troop in the 7th and 8th grade is being organized to coordinate their activities.

Senior Girl Scouts will present a program on camping at the spring council meeting in Albany, April 30. The local district plans to have a Girl Scout festival in May for the general public, announcement of details to be later.

Social Club Meeting

DONALD (Special) — The next meeting of the Social club of the Venus chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will be at the home of Mrs. Irma Leek at Fargo, on Friday, March 1, beginning with a dessert at 1:20 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Colvin, worthy matron, has announced that the group will put on a rummage sale in the old Cycle shop in Woodburn on Saturday, February 23. Anyone having articles to donate for this sale is asked to contact Mrs. Colvin or Mrs. Eugene Truesdell. Saturday will be the second day of rummage selling for the group this week.

At the regular meeting of the chapter on Friday evening, the new rug purchased by the chapter was dedicated. Mrs. Lorin Giesey gave a review of the activities of the social club which were responsible for raising the money to purchase the rug.

Mrs. Colvin designated this meeting as "obligation night" and a degree was given and all members present renewed their obligations.

Following the meeting Rickey Kahle and Jerry Leiser played several numbers on their accordions, and cherry pie was served by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shannon and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Armstrong. The tables were decorated in the Valentine theme.

DALLAS (Special) — Members of the Dallas Business and Professional Women's club entertained their employers at their annual business' night dinner last week at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Edgar Smith from Oregon College of Education. Entertainment for the evening featured an exhibition by members of the local square dance club, the Dallas Hoppers.

DALLAS (Special) — The Polk County Federation of Rural Women's clubs will give its annual friendship tea at the home of Mrs. Harry Dempsey, at Rickreall, Wednesday, February 20, from 2 to 5 p.m. Theme for the affair will be patriotic, in honor of the February birthdays of Lincoln and Washington and various clubs of the federation will present program numbers. Members of all rural clubs of the area are invited.

DONALD (Special) — Mrs. Elsie Black honored her husband-in-law, L. I. Strong, with a birthday dinner last week.

see the scholastic art Contest Gold Key awards

The Gold Key winners of the Scholastic Art Contest will be on exhibit on the Lower Level of Lipman's February 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

from our 2nd floor Coat and Suit Shop

Coat Sale

if you are accustomed to paying $49.95 to $59.95 for your Spring Coat come in tomorrow and pay

$38

Choose From Smartest New Spring Styles. Push-up sleeves, the softer, fuller lines, tie collars, natural shoulders.

Eye the Luscious New Spring Colors. The very new pale shades, also polished black . . . pinks, beige, blues, greys, tan cream.

Feel the Brilliant Exciting Spring Fabrics. Wool and silk combinations, cotton, wool and linen tweeds, all wools.

You'll find sizes for Everyone. Petite sizes 6 to 14, Misses sizes 8-18.

Lipman's Coat and Suit Shop—Second Floor

SAVE AS YOU SPEND

WITH S. N. GREEN STAMPS