

Musical Tea Event For Monmouth Group

MONMOUTH (Special) — The first in a series of midwinter musical teas was given last week by the piano students of Mrs. B. Carolyn Elliott, teacher of piano and organ. The younger group of students presented a program of solos and duets. At the end of the program Mrs. Elliott played some organ numbers. The guests were the mothers and fathers of the students.

The program was given in the First Christian church of Monmouth. After the program of music and students retired to the social rooms of the church where refreshments were served by Mrs. Elliott. The next tea in this series will be given by the older students and high school students on Saturday, February 23, in the First Christian church.

Students playing were Barbara Brody, Sally Crider, Teresa Hadman, Linda Lowe, Allen Yost, Marmie and Kimmy Owen, Burnett Krauger, Patricia McCrae, Jean Cafert, Tommy Ritey, Evelyn Heibert, Laura Jean Davis, Sylvia Dorenhecker.

WOODBURN (Special) — A host luncheon on noon opened the regular meeting of the Woodburn Woman's Rural club last week at the library. The committee in charge included Mrs. Albert Rheinholdt, chairman, Mrs. Charles Yurank, Miss Mabel Jackson, Mrs. Luella Sanderson and Mrs. Anna Hempel. Guests present were Mrs. Mayme Palmer, Mrs. Mary Chandler of Portland, Mrs. Ursel Livingston, and Mrs. Emil Scharbach.

An exchange of Valentines and a program of games were enjoyed. For the next meeting, March 14,

Civic Club Meets With Mrs. Thompson

MONMOUTH (Special) — Mrs. Clara Thompson, director of dormitories at Oregon College of Education, was hostess to the Civic club last week for its regular meeting.

Mrs. Ellis Stebbins, president, presided at the business session and the group approved giving the usual scholarship for a senior in education at the college. An invitation was read from the Polk County Rural Woman's club to attend a meeting at Rickreall on February 29 from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Thompson conducted those present on a tour through Todd hall and Maaske hall, after which she gave a talk on "What's in the Stew?" She gave a comprehensive survey on what it takes to house, feed, care for, and maintain a laundry for some several hundred students.

At the tea hour Mrs. Thompson served with Miss Esther Mason, head housekeeper at the college, presiding at the tea urn.

The next meeting, March 14, will be at the college library lounge and the program will be given by Charles Noxon of the department of social science at Oregon College of Education. His topic will be "Jerusalem as I Saw It".

SHERIDAN (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hutchinson entertained a group of guests at a buffet dinner last week. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Marrs, Mr. and Mrs. Ev Gift, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter James and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Lash and Mrs. Tom Yocom.

LINCOLN (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ashford were hosts at a card party at their Lincoln home last week, the guest list including Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Yungen, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hoxie, Mr. and Mrs. Avall Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yungen, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Washburn, and Jim Smart.

SHERIDAN (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sohrweid gave their family card party at their home last week, when Mrs. Arthur Sohrweid and Walter Sohrweid won high score, and Mrs. Ed Sohrweid and Art Sohrweid received low score.

Program Planned For Woodburn Tea

WOODBURN (Special) — A diversified program is planned for the 49th annual Martha Washington tea February 22 at the Woodburn library club rooms, sponsored by the Woodburn Woman's club as a library benefit.

The program begins at 2 p.m. and will include a reading by Mrs. Roberta Campbell, vocal solos by Mrs. Ted Landsem accompanied by her daughter, Gloria, a ventriloquism act by the Rev. George Norsworthy and "Junior," and the annual report of the librarian, Mrs. Leonard Fuller.

Mrs. Percy Seely is general chairman for the tea. Pouring will be Mrs. A. E. Austin, the only charter member, Mrs. Charles Conyne, Mrs. Alvah G. Cowan and Mrs. R. L. Anderson. All except Mrs. Conyne are past presidents.

A number of members will wear Martha Washington costumes to lend color to the afternoon. As this project is a benefit for the library to which all receipts are turned over, the entire community has been invited to support the affair.

Chapter Members Guests of Mrs. Reimer

DALLAS (Special) — Members of the Beta Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority met last week at the home of Mrs. Arnold Reimer.

Following a brief business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Victor Bender, two guests from XI Upsilon chapter, Salem, spoke. They were Mrs. Berwyn Maxwell and Mrs. Dwaine D. Chretien who told of the state convention in Salem next year in May with the Salem chapters and the Dallas chapter as hosts. Plans are already under way for the event. Following the business session an exchange of Valentines by secret pals was enjoyed by the members. Assisting the hostess in the serving of refreshments were Miss Harris and Mrs. Sciaccotti.

WILLAMINA (Special)—FL Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Bill Hurl, with Mrs. Jim Reynolds as co-hostess. Following the business meeting, games were enjoyed and refreshments served. March hostesses will be Mrs. Jack Shetlerly and Mrs. Jim Monaco.
