

GOP Leader of Oregon House Dies Sunday

PENDLETON (AP)—Irvin Mann, state legislator and widely known stockman, died in a hospital Sunday. He was 58.

A rare blood disease, associated with leukemia, caused death, a physician said.

Mann's Double M Hereford Ranch at Adams was one of the region's largest, and his cattle were frequent winners at western stock shows.

Mann, who first served in the Legislature in 1935, was elected to lead the Republican minority in the state House of Representatives this session, but illness kept him from taking the position.

He entered a hospital in Portland early in December with a back injury. Later he was transferred to the hospital here.

Besides being representative from Umatilla County, he was a director of the Federal Land Bank here. For 10 years he had been a member of the Umatilla Port Commission.

He leaves a widow, a son, Irvin Mann Jr., and a daughter, Mrs. Pat Hopper of Adams.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

W. G. Farmer Dies Sunday

Warren G. Farmer, 80, a resident of Salem for 23 years, died Sunday in a Salem hospital after suffering a stroke at his home, 1675 Saginaw St.

Farmer had been manager of the Argo hotel dining room and later an attendant at Fairview home until his retirement five years ago. Arrangements are still pending at Howell-Edwards mortuary.

Before coming to Salem in 1934, Farmer had lived 37 years in his birthplace of Salem, Ohio, where he was born March 4, 1876. He moved to Portland in 1913, where he was in the grocery business.

He was a member of Odd Fellows and the Methodist church.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Edyth M. Farmer, Salem; two sons, Donald W. and George A. Farmer, both Portland; and one stepson, Thomas Blaine Stewart.

State Highway Closures Given

The Oregon Highway Commission Monday announced the following closures because of slides and high water:

John Day Highway—At Vale. Old Oregon Trail Highway—Bridges across river at Ontario, traffic detouring via Payette.

Fremont Highway—13 miles south of Paisley because of bridge damage.

Crown Point secondary—Between Bridal Veil and Dodson. There also is one-way traffic on the Columbia River Highway near Clatsop Crest, and on the Wilson River Highway just west of the Tillamook County line.

Silverton Man Injured in Fall

Edgar Fennimore, 22, of Route 1, Box 345-A, Silverton, received undetermined injuries Monday morning when he fell from a scaffolding at North Salem high school.

The Silverton man was working on a construction project at the time of the accident, school officials reported.

He was taken to Salem Memorial hospital by Willamette ambulance.

Shaw Fields, S.C.; plus several brothers and sisters in Ohio.

Marine Drill Leader Given Court-Martial

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP)—S. Sgt. William E. Rich, Manchester, Conn., a Marine drill instructor charged with hitting five recruits with his hands, faces a special court-martial at this marine base today.

Rich is one of four drill instructors who will be tried during the next two weeks on charges of abusing recruits.

If convicted, he faces a maximum punishment of a bad conduct discharge, six months confinement, forfeiture of two-thirds pay for up to six months and reduction of rank to private.

Capt. James P. Mahoney, base public information officer, said the other drill instructors charged are Cpl. William F. Walsh Jr., Lyndhurst, N.J.; Sgt. Daniel K. Corey, Boston, Mass.; and Sgt. Clinton L. Jones, Pensacola, Fla.

Mahoney said Walsh, accused of striking 11 recruits, will face a special court-martial in about two weeks.

Jones and Corey will face a summary court-martial within a week, Mahoney reported. The summary court-martial is the lesser of the three military courts—general, special and summary.

Maximum punishment of a summary court-martial is up to 30 days confinement, forfeiture of two-thirds pay for as much as a month, and reduction in rank to private.

Jones is accused of striking one recruit with his hand. Corey is charged with pushing a recruit to the ground and forcing another to stuff candy into his own mouth, Mahoney said.

Mahoney said none of the recruits required medical treatment. The base has had several cases of recruit mistreatment within the past year. The latest investigation was touched off when Nelson R. Porter, Hartford, Vt., wrote Maj. Gen. Homer L. Litzenberg, base commander here, that his son, Pvt. David L. Porter, had written he was struck by Walsh with an object which looked like a "hand-canceling stamp used in post offices."

Last April, six recruits drowned during an unauthorized night disciplinary march. S. Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon, Worcester, Mass., was convicted and reduce in rank to private, fined and confined for three months.

The largest man-made lake in the world is Gatun Lake, a part of the Panama Canal. It has 133 square miles.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat firmed after an irregular start on the Board of Trade Monday, bouncing ahead for gains extending to more than a cent in a brisk trade.

Flour mills gave support to wheat and there also was some buying on export business with West Germany.

Rye and soybeans turned higher late in the session but feed grains had trouble in reducing early losses. Very heavy arrivals of cash corn exerted a depressing influence on corn and oats.

Wheat closed 1 1/2 to 2 cents higher, March 2.33 1/4, corn 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher, March 1.29, oats unchanged to 1/4 lower, March 75 1/4, rye 1/4-3/4 higher, March 1.35 1/4, soybeans 1 1/2-1 3/4 higher, March 2.43-2.42 1/2, and lard 7 to 13 cents a hundred pounds lower, March 14.97.
